

LANDSLIDE AT POLLS CHARGED UP TO WILSON

Democrats Take Political Defeat With Good Nature, Blaming President for Downfall.

Omaha enjoyed a respite from war yesterday by discussing and analyzing the political situation as reflected in the votes cast Tuesday. Democrats were ingenuous over the outcome, although some of the philosophical ones took the outcome good naturedly.

A prominent young democratic lawyer admitted that the president made a "bonehead" play when he made his personal appeal to the people to support democratic candidates on a loyalty basis. This stirred the republicans to almost unprecedented action and the voters answered with their votes, to paraphrase an expression by Chairman Hays of the republican national committee.

Not Rubbing It In.

"Mr. Wilson forces the republican party to be down or fight! I say fight!" announced Mr. Hays in a statement.

Republicans are not seeking to rub it in on the occasion of their nationwide victory. They are willing to commiserate their democratic brethren and to dismiss the matter with the feeling that the democrats had it coming to them.

"I was not surprised," was the expression of Arthur Mullen, democratic national committeeman for Nebraska, when he was asked for a statement on the situation.

Glory Enough For All.

Chairman Baker and Secretary Hollister of the republican county central committee believe there is glory enough for all republicans at this time, and they are not seeking any aggrandizement for the party they took in the local success.

Louis Berka, high man in the list of state representatives, takes his honors graciously and thanks his friends.

Congressman Lobeck takes his defeat keenly. He is sad. His secretary, Jim Hanley, however, refuses to give up, believing that by some hook or crook his boss will yet squeeze in. The democratic central committee concedes the election of Jeffers.

Election Commissioner Moorhead will start the official canvass within a few days. The soldier vote will be reported to the commissioner by the secretary of state. It is not believed that this vote will affect any results as announced by the unofficial count.

CASE OF INDIANS FIRST HEARD IN FEDERAL COURT

Petit Jury Begins Labors with Big Docket of Criminal Cases Awaiting Disposal.

The petit jury reported at federal court Wednesday morning to try criminal cases. There was a big docket, including espionage, Reed amendment and Mann act cases, and a long session is predicted.

The case of Louis Bigbear and Leonard Whitebear, Winnebago Indians, was first to come before the jury. Bigbear is charged with assaulting Mrs. Pottawotami, a wrinkled old squaw, and Whitebear is accused of aiding Bigbear in the crime. Federal officials say the young bucks will draw a long sentence if the charge against them is sustained.

Mary Johnson, young Indian maiden from the Winnebago reservation, pleaded guilty before Judge Woodrough to helping John Blackdeer bring liquor to the reservation from Sioux City, Ia., and was fined $25. Blackdeer was previously fined $100.

Offer Victory Girls and Boys Work on War Contract

Victory boys and girls were offered an opportunity to earn their $5 subscription to the war work drive at a meeting of the Rotary club in the Fontenelle hotel Wednesday noon. Al Scott, of the Scott Text and Awning company, announced that his company was working on a large number of government contracts. A portion of the work can be finished by boys and girls at their home and he said that he would be glad to allow Victory boys and girls to take home the work if they wanted to earn their subscriptions.

PEACE OR WAR. MONEY NEEDED FOR WORKERS

Miss Tuberville of England Points Out Need of Funds to Supply Comforts to Soldiers.

"If peace should be declared tomorrow, Omahans would need to raise twice the sum they have pledged," said Miss Edith Ticton-Tuberville, president of the British Y. W. C. A., at the meeting of United War workers at the Fontenelle, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Tuberville stated that it would take two years to demobilize the English and American armies and in the meantime they must be cared for and given every comfort possible.

Miss Tuberville spoke especially in behalf of the "women soldiers of England who have labored silently since the war began, many of them in as much danger as the men in the trenches."

The Y. W. C. A. is asking for money to carry on the work among these women and Miss Tuberville congratulated the women of Omaha that they were to have a share in raising it.

Numerous incidents were recited by Miss Tuberville illustrating the appreciation of the English girls and women who work, many of them 14 hours a day, for the rest rooms provided.

Miss Tuberville's short talk followed community singing led by L. C. Oberlies, Lincoln, and instructions by A. A. Allwine to the women who will canvass the city.

She left Wednesday night for Minneapolis after spending 24 hours in Omaha.

Much Coal Stored in State; No Shortage is Expected

Operating officials of the railroads of Nebraska assert that there has never been a time when the roads faced winter better supplied with coal. For several weeks at the coal stations coal has been bought in large quantities and storage houses filled to capacity.

What is true with reference to railroads storing coal applies as well to dealers in the towns. Dealers commenced at an early date to lay in their winter stocks and everywhere their bins are filled. Completed old squaw, and Whitebear is accused of aiding Bigbear in the crime. Federal officials say the young bucks will draw a long sentence if the charge against them is sustained.

Webster's Cards Make It Appear He Knocked Norris

John R. Webster, Omaha, candidate for regent of the Nebraska university, and who, according to the returns now in, was elected by a large majority, is considerably worried over an unfortunate circumstance that is charged up to the Omaha Distributing company.

Mr. Webster ordered a quantity of campaign cards, to be placed in the hands of voters. It so happened that about this time a faction that was opposing the re-election of Senator Norris ordered a lot of circulars and hired the same company to distribute them. The circulars were a bitter attack upon the senator and it so happened that they were distributed along with the Webster cards, some cards being folded in the circular.

Fred L. Levine, manager of the distributing company, has supplied Mr. Webster with an affidavit in which he says that the distribution of the cards and the circulars in the same covers was his fault. He adds that he did not consider the effect of distributing the cards and circulars together and at the same time, but did so because he was short of help and adopted the plan in order to save time.

Good News Indeed--Another Shipment of "Wirthmor" and "Welworth" Blouses Arrives

AND again the bargain square on the Main Floor will be the center of attraction. When women actually await the arrival of these weekly shipments of American blouses, there must be a reason.

And you'll not have the least difficulty in determining just what this reason is, when you see the styles, the qualities of the materials from which they are made and the trimmings and finish.

Wirthmor Blouses at $1.00
Four of the latest styles in the Wirthmor blouse to arrive, as illustrated. Beside these there are a dozen other charmingly pretty styles from which you may choose. Priced at $1.00.
The "Welworth" Blouses at $2.00
Shown in almost as many styles, but, of course, in finer quality. They possess daintiness usually shown in blouses priced considerably higher in price. The Welworth price, $2.00.
At no other store in this city can "Welworth" and "Wirthmor" blouses be had.
