

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Conducted by Ella Fleishman

SOCIETY

MS. VIRGINIA COUZENS of Honolulu is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Holtman, enroute to New York City, where she will spend the winter. Mrs. Couzens is the widow of the late Harry D. Couzens, a well known artist and writer of South Sea tales.

Mrs. Couzens thinks of the tropical Hawaiian islands as "home," for she has spent the most of her time there for the last 18 years. As a portrait painter Mrs. Couzens has a wide reputation, and also as a sculptress, her work has brought her much fame. During her residence in New York City she modeled the heads of many prominent society women. Mrs. Couzens has visited in Omaha on numerous occasions, but her stay this time will be but a few days. Of most attractive personality, this talented artist is a most interesting woman, for she has traveled extensively, studying in Paris, Holland and Italy.

McMillin-Rogers Wedding.
An out-of-town wedding of especial interest is that of Miss Mildred Prudden Rogers to Lt. Gail Hamilton McMillin, which took place October 17 in Washington, D. C. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, Rev. J. Wallace Larkin of Omaha, the ceremony was a very quiet affair, only the bride's mother being present. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Titus E. Davis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

After a brief honeymoon at Virginia Beach, Va., the bride returned to New York, where she is studying voice. This attractive young singer is well known in musical circles in Omaha as she made her home here for three years. Last winter she was soloist at All Saints Episcopal church and also at Temple Israel.

This army romance began last winter when Lieutenant McMillin was stationed at Fort Omaha, where he received his commission. Later he was sent to Waco, Tex., where he was made commanding officer of the 23d balloon company, which was later transferred to Camp Morrison, Va. The young officer was recently made personnel adjutant on the staff at Camp Morrison.

Surprise Wedding.
Omaha friends of Miss Pauline Ensign of Lincoln, Neb., who visited Miss Edith Hamilton recently, will be interested in the announcement of her marriage to John M. Abbott of Sioux Falls, S. D., which took place Tuesday. The wedding plans were made so quietly that even the bride's nearest friend, Miss Hamilton, did not know of the marriage until she received a wire Wednesday evening announcing that the bridal pair were on their way to Chicago to spend the honeymoon.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ensign of Lincoln will remain in Chicago for the time as Mr. Abbott is now in training at Municipal Pier.

War-time Dances.
Gone are the days of the super-dance for patriotic motives have long since prompted the members of the various dancing clubs to omit the dainty refreshments that were at one time a most essential item of a dancing party. The Qui Vive club, one of the largest of the winter dancing clubs, will adhere to their rule this winter and at the opening affair, Saturday evening at the Blackstone. No supper will be served.

Change in Officers.
Changes in the executive officers were made at a meeting of the Fine Arts society directors held Thursday at the Fontenelle. Mrs. Z. T. Lindsey was made second vice president and Mrs. W. G. Urs, senior member of the executive committee.

When Stephan Lauzanne comes December 3 to lecture for the society, the Alliance Francaise will give a dinner in his honor that evening.

Marriage Announced.
The marriage of Miss Mae Peters of Breckenridge, Mich., to Ellis W. Leach was solemnized Friday, October 25, at the home of Rev. Mr. Thompson. The bridegroom, who is now a member of Company 36, Michigan state troops, stationed at Ithaca, Mich., was formerly a member of The Bee club, having made his home in Omaha for some time.

Comus Club.
Mrs. E. D. Farrin was honor guest at the Comus club which met with Mrs. D. W. Tillotson Wednesday afternoon. Those winning high scores included Mrs. C. M. Barrie, Mrs. Ben F. Marti, and Mrs. George Morris. Mrs. Barrie will be the hostess for the next meeting, which will be given in two weeks.

C. C. C. Girls.
Miss Leona Seibold entertained the first meeting of a little club, who call themselves the C. C. C. Girls, Wednesday evening. The guests included Misses Judith Johnson, Irene Miller, Ethel Brown, Esther Jacobsen, Hazel Haskell, Grace

"First Lady" of Nebraska

That Mrs. Samuel R. McKelvie will with native grace fill the position of new "first lady of Nebraska" may be indicated by the fact that the governor-elect's wife traces her ancestry on her mother's side to Alexander Hamilton, secretary of the treasury under President George Washington. Mrs. McKelvie's great-grandfather, Dr. Joseph Hamilton, was the first surgeon in this country to use an anesthetic in operating.

Her own versatility is the distinguishing trait of the new "first lady." That she is a woman of rare beauty only a glance at the above photograph will attest. Her charming personality and adorable sense of humor is the testimony of friends.

In music, art and play writing, Mrs. McKelvie has already won distinction, though she is quite young in years. Mrs. McKelvie is one of the few women who have made a geological collection, which Professor Barbour, state geologist, has specially commended. She expects to present this collection to the state.

Mrs. McKelvie maintains an artistic studio in her Lincoln home. One of her paintings was accepted and hung in the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, where she studied, as well as at the Minneapolis Art academy and Chase's summer art school at Carmel-by-the-Sea. Mrs. McKelvie is also a talented musician, in fact she taught music and art for two years in the Nebraska university conservatory. Five of Mrs. McKelvie's scenarios have been produced and she has contributed to several moving picture magazines.

The McKelvies were married June 19, 1904. Their only daughter, Dorothy, died in childhood, but they have adopted a daughter, Josephine McKelvie.

Dukes, Zella Morrison, Eva Jacobson and Mrs. Doris Vogelsberg.

Mrs. Clayton A. Pratt and small son, Douglas, have gone to Wilmington, N. C., to spend the winter, as Mr. Pratt is employed at the ship-building yards.

Mr. Fred C. Williams is expecting his wife and daughter, Rosanna, from Lincoln, Friday evening, to spend the week end with him.

United War Drive Notes.
Mrs. H. C. Sumney will be in charge of information desk at Omaha headquarters, in Masonic temple, for remainder of the campaign. Woman's building on court house lawn will be in charge of Mrs. Wm. F. Baxter.

Captains, majors and all workers are requested to report at Masonic temple Saturday a. m. at 10.30 and join parade. Parade will march over Nineteenth street to Harney, down Harney to Fifteenth street, over Fifteenth street to Rialto theatre, where they will view war work movie.

Ralph Frederick Cohn will speak at Temple Israel Sunday in interests of the drive.

A special benediction service will be held at Catholic Cathedral, Fortieth and Burt streets, Sunday afternoon, at 5 p. m. Archbishop Harty will preside and Rev. George Sarague, Catholic priest, a chaplain of the Blue Devils, will talk. Sarague is with the French army, having been in the trenches two years.

RED CROSS

Katherine McKenzie of Bellevue, Neb., has applied for Red Cross motor service overseas.

Civilian relief department is seeking work for a man of 62, father of two soldiers. He is a painter and paper-hanger.

A receptacle for nut shells and fruit pits has been placed in the court house.

More than 700 Christmas cartons have already been given out. Cartons will be given only on presentation of overseas credentials.

Red Cross workers in the Masonic temple headquarters will assist Mrs. T. M. Orr in the work of making comfort kits. A large quota of the latter has been received.

Christmas package headquarters in the Keelie building will be kept open evenings next week to facilitate the handling of holiday gifts to soldiers overseas. Miss Nell Calvin is in charge.

Hanscom park war relief auxiliary, Mrs. Frank Hamilton chairman, meets at the Normandie, Friday afternoon, from 1 to 5.

Mrs. Duffy Bray, chairman, announces that Hillside auxiliary meets Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at Hillside Congregational church, Thirtieth and Ohio streets.

Three canteen workers to be financed by the Council Bluffs Red Cross chapter have been recommended by Nebraska chapter to Chicago. They are Mrs. Ruth Campbell Wilson, Miss Agnes Wickham and Miss Alice White. This is an expenditure of between $6,000 and $7,000, every cent of which is guaranteed by the little band of workers in Council Bluffs.

Miss Cassie Elizabeth Bierman of Omaha and Miss Harriett Radcliffe of Sidney, canteen workers, have been accepted by the Chicago chapter.

Miss Edith Martin of Plattsmouth has applied for her passport. She will do canteen work.

Miss Emma Robertson, hospital hut worker, went to New York Thursday night.

Miss Esther Thomas, canteen worker, has received word to report in New York November 18.

The Nebraska Red Cross bureau of personnel, woman's department, in charge of Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, has up to date interviewed 523 applicants, of which 109 have been accepted. From figures at hand no other state in the union, population considered, has furnished more women for overseas service than Nebraska.

Mrs. Kountze has been assisted by Mrs. A. L. Reed and Miss Gouvis Peters and by Mrs. Ladd at Lincoln. Red Cross still requires additional capable women for overseas service.

Frank Persons, general director, civilian relief department, at the national office, Washington, will be a guest of state Red Cross officials at an early date, probably the middle of this month. Mr. Persons has been on the Pacific coast for a few weeks and is returning via Omaha to Washington.

Mr. Persons was for a number of years at the head of the largest charity organization in the United States, located in New York City, and is probably the best known charity worker in America. Arrangements will be made for him to speak at the Chamber of Commerce, as well as address a conference of all civilian relief heads of chapters in this state while in Omaha.

Word has just been received from Paris that Dr. Newell Jones has arrived in France and has been assigned to the children's bureau of the American Red Cross. Dr. Jones took his degree at the Illinois Medical college and has practiced in Central City and Omaha.

People residing in Mount Clare, Neb., and vicinity, have sent the state office the sum of $450 for general Red Cross relief. This contribution will undoubtedly be placed in the Nebraska Base Hospital fund.

Sophus F. Neble, county commissioner, has sent the American Red Cross a check for $150, the balance of his salary as county commissioner that is undistributed. Up to date Mr. Neble has made the following contributions: Red Cross Base hospital, $100; Knights of Columbus war fund, $150; Y. M. C. A. war fund, $150; National League Women's service, $50; Bohemian Liberty bazaar, $100; Italian Red Cross drive, $100; American Red Cross, $150; Danish Ladies' Red Cross bazaar, $100; United War Work campaign, $200; and American Red Cross, $150. The total is $1,250.

Mr. Neble stated when he accepted the office of county commissioner that during the entire period of the war he would contribute his entire salary to war activities organizations.

Mrs. E. P. Peck, who has been in New York City for several weeks, has returned.

"For six years we have used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in our family and feel we could not possibly do without it, especially for the children." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mrs. Earl Cowell, Cement City, Mich.)

Children become constipated as readily as do their elders, and the result is equally distressing. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is ideal for children because of its pleasant taste, positive, yet gentle, action, and its freedom from opiates and narcotic drugs.

Our Standards
Rigorous as the old Puritan standards is the inspection through which every one of our hams must go before it is passed for the Puritan brand.

That is why only one ham in ten is considered good enough to bear the Puritan label.
