

U. S. TRAINING PLANES IN THE SUNSHINE OF CALIFORNIA

(Photographs Copyrighted by International Film Service, Committee on Public Information and British Official)

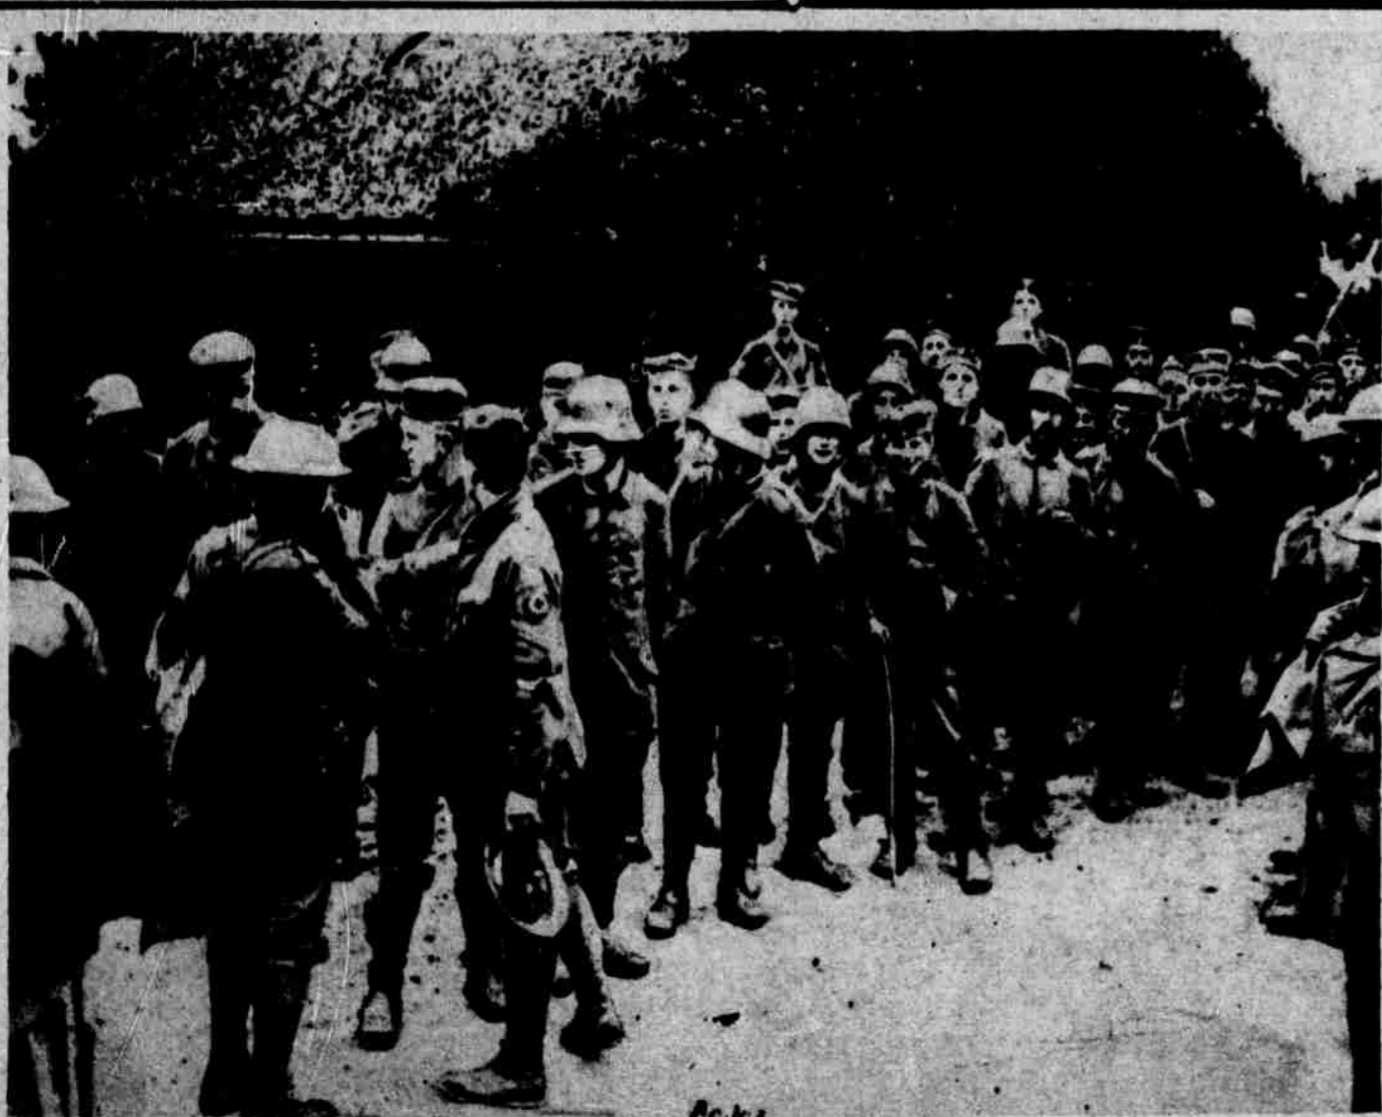

Squadron of Bombing Planes at U. S. Aerial School. A School for Aerial Gunners is Maintained by the United States Government at North Island, California. The Student-Pilot is Taught How to Handle a Machine-Gun Under Actual Flying Conditions and He Becomes an Expert at Bagging the Rocks.

Quartet of 301st Stevedore Regiment, Attached to the 23d Engineers, in France.

German Prisoners Captured at De Tillolay.

During the Fighting in the Champagne District Thousands of Prisoners Were Taken by the British. Photograph Shows a Group of German Prisoners Waiting to Be Identified.

At This Point the German Armies Made a Desperate Stand Before They Evacuated. Many Prisoners Taken Near This Town Are Brought Back to the Scene of the Fighting as Prisoners of War.