MILLION POUNDS OF BREAD DAILY. U.S.BAKERY PACE

Great City of Tents Marks Site Where Two Thousand Yankees Make Staff of Life.

American Advance Zone, France, Oct., Nov. 7 .- (Correspondence of Associated Press.)-Two thousand soldier-bakers turning out a million pounds of bread a day-this is the vast animated work one sees here at the American army field bakery, which supplies the staff of life to the American army in the entire area of the advance zone. It is a bakery of tents, unlike the ordinary bakery within brick walls and with whizzing machinery, but a field bakery right out in the open air and open fields, half a military encampment and half an industrial city, and like all army camps, capable of being picked up and transported to another point in a few

A city of tents marks the site of this huge camp bakery, along the country roadside about a mile outside of the large cities of the advance zone-nameless as are all places in the zone of advance. The stretches over many acres, ploughed ground of a big but now humming with the activity of a huge productive enterprise. Above the tents one sees countless smoke-stacks of the bakeovens, belching black smoke, and in the open air hundreds of soldiers, stripped to the waist, bending over the huge masses of dough, and hundreds more manipulating the loaves in the huge battery of ovens.

The daily bread train was about to start for the front as we arrived. Although the camp is in the fields, yet spurs of railway have been run alongside, and each day this huge train goes forward so that every American division and every camp along the whole front gets its supply with unfailing regularity. The train was nearly half a mile long, with some 50 box cars loaded solid from floor to roof, 20,000 pounds to the car, or a million pounds of bread to

Flour Quality Fails.

Near by another train was discharging huge stacks of flour straight from American wheat fields and milling centers of the west and northwest. It comes in 98 and 140 pound sacks, of the best standard grades, for nothing is too good for the food of the fighting man. Of late, however, said the escort, some of this flour from far western points has not been up to the highest standard, indicating that the rush of an enormous shipment had led to a falling off in quality.

The soldiers laboring among the flour sacks have now begun to look themselves like flour sacks, for they have adopted a strange uniform, in which the empty flour sacks take the place of sleeveless shirts. The sacks are slit at the side for the armholes. They are of rough white bagging, much cooler, the men say than the army undershirt. Each sack has flaming red and blue letters of its brand, and as they work are resplendent with the whole range of American flour brands in the flour sack shirts.

Here's How a Yankee Succeeded in Saving Five Francs in Paris

Paris, Noy. 9.—A tanned dough-boy on holiday recently stepped up to the counter of a casino on the coast of Brittany and asked for a bathing suit. He deposited the 5 francs required of all patrons. "You get the money back, you know, when you return the suit," said the Y. M. C. A. girl at the counter. "Sure, I know it," said the soldier, grinning. "That's why I'm hiring this suit. I'm not going in swimmin'. I'm just going to hang on the suit until it's time for me to return to camp. Then I'll turn it in and have at least 5 francs in my jeans, Get me?" His 5 francs went on deposit in this unusual "bank."
