

BEWARE PEACE OVERTURES BY HUN SAYS BANGS

Noted Author Describes Conditions as He Saw Them in Devastated France.

John Kendrick Bangs, author, spoke to a large audience at the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday noon, on what he had seen in France and made a strong plea for a peace that will be absolutely lasting.

Mr. Bangs is connected with the American Commission for the Devastated Districts of France, an organization for reinstating the moral and physical well-being of the devastated population in the devastated districts.

He said he had seen the civilian population of these districts under such conditions as he never hoped to see another country for all time to come.

Speaking of the morale of the French people, he said: "Take it from an American who has seen them in their darkest hour, those French people possess that degree of love for home and country, and quiet determination, and undaunted courage, that although 90,000,000 Huns were arrayed against them they never could be broken."

Discussing the peace armistice he spoke a word of caution to the American people and pointed out that they must be careful not to accept the hand, which reeking with blood, the arch foe holds out under the disguise of peace; that the only peace which we can afford to accept is the one which will absolutely destroy that power which has brought such indescribable agony to the world.

Police Chief Pleased With Way His Force Handled Big Crowds

Chief of Police Eberstein is pleased at the way his men handled the crowds Monday. Nobody was killed and only two slight accidents were reported in spite of the big jam of humanity that celebrated all day and evening.

The chief had all the men at work all day and evening instead of merely on their regular shifts, and the South Side men were also on duty in Omaha during the evening.

Three automobiles were stolen but the police recovered four during the day and arrested four alleged auto thieves.

DISMISS DRAFT MEN CALLED IN RECENT QUOTA

Boards Officially Announce to Selective Service Men They Will Be Discharged from Army.

More than 500 selective service men, scheduled to entrain Tuesday for Camp Bowie, Tex., gathered at their respective draft boards Tuesday morning and were dismissed.

"Go back to work," said Henry Meyers, of the third exemption board to the 293 registrants who were ready to go from his district, "the draft call has been canceled and you will each receive an honorable discharge from the army and will be paid for the time you have been in service."

The men laughed when they were told that they would be paid for their short period of service. "We'll donate our pay to Uncle Sam," shouted one happy registrant and a score of voices gave noisy assent.

Draft boards still not yet received official notice of any change in their work and until further orders are received will continue the work of classification. Registrants are urged to remember that they are still subject to rulings of the boards and are to continue to file their questionnaires.

The boards, however, expect further instructions soon. The cancellation order affects 71 men from Sapp county, 42 from Nemaha county and 42 from Otoe county, in addition to the 293 who were to entrain from local board No. 3, who were to comprise the contingent to entrain Tuesday night.

It also affects the call which was to leave Thursday night. This included 492 men, 174 from local board No. 4, 147 from board No. 5 and 78 from Cass county and 93 from Richardson county.

Child Visits Father in Jail and He is Later Released by Court

Little Rosie Kellerman, 8-year-old daughter of Frank Kellerman, 2623 Seward street, marched bravely into police court Tuesday morning and asked the judge if she might see her "daddy."

Kellerman was arrested on a charge of child desertion, but, according to Rosie, he is always good to her. A representative from the Jewish Charities appeared against Kellerman, declaring that he was not furnishing sufficient funds for the support of his four children.

Nephew of Mrs. Healy Killed in Air Service on the French Front

Word has been received by Mrs. L. J. Healy, 720 South Thirty-Sixth street, of the death of her nephew, Lt. Harry Preston, who was killed in action on the Metz front in France.

Lieut. Preston enlisted in the air service when the United States declared war. He was 19 years of age at the time and was attending school in Philadelphia. He received his training in Boston and Long Island.

On September 26, Lieut. Preston in his plane with five other planes was attacked above the Metz front. Four of the planes came crashing to earth, two of them on fire. Lieut. Preston was reported missing in action for ten days when the Red Cross at Geneva sent word that he was killed in action September 26.

Since that time an official government notice of his death has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Preston, who reside in New York City. Lieutenant Preston had been flying about six weeks when killed.

Lieut. Preston with his mother visited Mrs. Healy in Omaha two years ago and Mrs. Preston spoke in public on the war conditions in London.

Ethel Clayton took advantage of the month's idleness in the film industry to make a trip to Mount Rainier, Wash., in her machine and climbed nearly to the summit in it.

Jane and Katherine Lee have arrived in Los Angeles and will start work on a new film there at once.

D. W. Griffith has about completed his latest picture, which will be issued under the title "The Greatest Thing in Life."

End of War Will Bring Roads Big Prosperity Believe Railway Men

While railroad men do not assume to speak with authority, generally they are of the opinion that the close of the war will result in a boom in the railroad business. They point to the fact that with the demobilization of the army and the return of the soldiers from the forts there will be a tremendous movement of passenger trains. Added to this, they say that when the boys commence to return from Europe, thousands of cars will have to be brought into service making the distribution to the states.
