

South Side PREDICTS GOOD PORK DEMAND IN DECEMBER

Minimum Price to Remain Same; Thinks Foreign Demand Will Keep Market Booming.

In accordance with the latest ruling by the food administration and a subcommittee of the agricultural advisory board and hog raisers and packers, that the minimum price on hogs continue at $17.50 for the month of December as it was in November, W. B. Tagg, president of the National and Omaha Live Stock exchanges, said:

"The Omaha market will continue to pay an average of 17 cents a pound for hogs and no good or merchantable hogs will sell less than 16 cents. I estimate that the demand from foreign countries will be so great that we will have a good market for hogs until spring.

"The price will warrant the producer in finishing his hogs before marketing them as no merchantable hogs will sell under 16 cents."

Says Men in Service Appreciate the Way People Support Them

Ensign F. A. Robbins of the United States navy has been in the city during the last few days visiting old friends. For some years Ensign Robbins was sales manager for the Cudahy Packing company of South Omaha. Later he was transferred to Chicago, and shortly after entered the service as a second class seaman. After entering the service he took an intensive six months' course at the Pelham Bay Naval Training station, which is said to be equal to the regular four-year course at Annapolis. Completing this course he was transferred to Cleveland, where he was assigned to a boat which made all the important points on the Great lakes.

Robbins, says that every man in the service surely appreciates the way the people at home stand back of them in every way, and states it is his opinion that the unstinted loyalty of the people at home had more to do with the boys' success on the field than anyone can realize.

The Bee's Free Shoe Fund To Buy Shoes For Shoeless Children

Are you helping the school children of Omaha to go to school with their little feet protected against the cold fall rains? If so, you would be made happy to see them, all decked out in grand, shiny new shoes in place of the tattered old ones. Poor widowed mothers, families quarantined for influenza, and many other causes put the parents in the position of being unable to buy the children shoes, which are of vital importance to their health and well being. The Bee shoe fund is supplying the shoes where the parents are unable to do so. We need your help.

William Jastrom will go back to his home in Carthage, Mo.
