Cattle-Receipts this week have been but fully 6,000 short of a year ago. As usual on Saturday there were one a few fresh loads here and the market was nominally unchanged. Compared with a week ago the desirable corn fed and week ago the desirable corn fed and range beeves have been in heavy supply and show fully that much of a decile. It has been much the same with the cows and helfers, the good to choice grades ruling steady to strong and the caners and cutters as well as stock cows helfers showing an average decilne of fully for lower making prices the lowest fully 50c lower, making prices the lowest of the season. Good to choice fleshy feed-ers have been in active demand and strong all week, which the market has been badly demoralized on light weight stuff and closing prices are the lowest of the
