

Work of Quartermaster's General Depot at Omaha and the Corps of Officers and Men There on Duty

NON-COMMISSIONED AND OTHER EMPLOYEES—Those sitting in front row (left to right): Privates G. Schroe, I. Piper, J. M. Kipin, M. Bohin, Sergt. William Tracy, Privates Charles Metz, A. W. Kasirski, Maj. John G. Maher, Privates W. Oerhle, Ralph Kitchen, J. J. Foley, L. A. Smith, H. J. Tenner.

COL. F. A. GRANT—He is in charge of Quartermaster General's Depot at Omaha. Colonel Grant's service dates back to the Philippine war. He has recently returned here from a detail to Montreal.

OFFICERS OF QUARTERMASTER'S DEPOT—(Left to right)—Capt. F. B. Buckwalter, Maj. John G. Maher, Maj. William H. Faringhy, Capt. A. Leppardt, Capt. J. R. Galt.

STORAGE ROOM—Men are at work stacking supplies that have been received to be distributed to the camps.

U. S. GUARDS ON DUTY AT DEPOT—(Left to right)—Front row: Maj. John G. Maher, Second Lt. H. C. Johnson, Privates F. H. Burckett, J. J. Smola, C. Casford, H. Burnside, R. Boyer, F. Tooley, A. F. Bower, Corp. R. L. Mitchell, Corp. O. H. Williams, Privates F. E. Meyer, E. R. Grant, Sergt. E. S. Lewis. Back row: Privates C. E. Curry, M. J. Resprey, C. H. Clark, G. Wieme, F. E. Kenaston, C. Rice, C. A. Balduck, R. J. Knapp, M. M. Yerton.

REPAIR WORK ROOM—This is where leggings and other articles of clothing are sorted out and repaired if defective.

CLOTHING WAREROOM—Force of men receiving and checking bales of wearing apparel of various kinds and weights.

Save this section from week to week and you will have a valuable collection of graphic current event pictures.