

NO PUBLICITY TO CANDIDATES FOR STATE JOBS

Philip F. Bross Gives Out Statement That He Is Not Talking in McKelvie's Absence.

From a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram)—Philip F. Bross, who is still in Mr. McKelvie's office during his absence, made the following statement to the press today with reference to the discussion that has taken place in newspapers or elsewhere in regard to applicants for appointment under the governor-elect: "I believe it is only fair to all who may have applied for appointments under Mr. McKelvie during his absence, to state that all such correspondence addressed to Mr. McKelvie has been held in strictest confidence. I have uniformly refused to say whether there were few or many applicants, whether there were one or more applicants for any special position, and have not mentioned to reporters or anyone else, any person's name as an applicant or who may have had endorsements or letters in their behalf. "This statement is made so that interested persons may know that all correspondence or conversations in regard to appointments have been held in the strictest confidence and any information about applicants for various positions must have been given out by the applicants themselves or by their friends. "This policy will be continued at least until Mr. McKelvie returns and any discussion that may take place of applicants, or probable appointments, or suggested attitude of Mr. McKelvie toward any appointments, will not in any way originate from this office."

Aldrich Named to Fill Vacancy on Supreme Bench Lincoln, Nov. 16.—(Special)—Following his statement made here today that he would not appear in the election for the supreme bench made by the death of Judge Hamer, the candidate in the election who was elected as the third man of the three to be elected in case two of the present members were re-elected, Governor Neville today appointed Chester H. Aldrich to fill the vacancy. It is understood that the new judge will sit with the court at its next sitting which will be next Monday. He has appointed Elin J. Stevinne as his court stenographer. Mrs. Stevinne formerly was with the state banking board, but for the past year has been stenographer for Judge Aldrich.

Protest Filed Against Skip-Stop Car System Lincoln, Nov. 16.—(Special)—C. C. Moffet and eighteen others have filed a protest with the State Railway commission against the "skip-stop" system adopted by the Omaha & Council Bluffs street railway so far as it covers the Forest Lawn line. They set forth that the cars stop at thirty-sixth street and then skip to thirty-ninth street, leaving a space of 1,200 feet, passing both thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth streets. The petitioners claim that they have tried to adjust affairs with the street car company, but have received no relief.

Take All Your Dental Troubles to Dr. Clark The Painless Dentist

QUALITY DENTISTRY is what you want when you seek relief and that is just what you get in this office. Our work is done by careful, experienced and efficient operators—we do not employ students.

TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT of all neuralgia and neuritic pains are caused by disarrangement of the teeth. Have your teeth examined at our office—scientifically—by the use of the X-ray if it is necessary, and get rid of all your pains and doctor bills.

WE MAKE Artificial Teeth that fit your mouth even when old fail. We have demonstrated that, in cases where the process is all sunken away and the mouth is flat, we can make teeth that fit and that wear comfortably. We make a specialty of Gold, Rubber and Aluminum Plates, Gold Crowns, Porcelain Crowns, Gold and Platinum Bridgework, Etc.

ASK MRS. HUGO F. BILZ of 5016 Dodge Street, or phone 1 at Walnut 1265, about my painless method—the Vapor Mist. This is a local anesthetic, which kills all pain—it is just applied to the gums for the painless extraction of teeth and for other dental operations—and without the slightest danger of hemorrhage or other sickness.

ON OR ABOUT December 1st I will move to the 5th floor of the Paxton Block, where I will have one of the finest pointed dental offices in all Omaha. I will also have a special room for the X-ray work. Send For My Booklet About the Care of Teeth. OFFICE—2D FLOOR PAXTON BLK. 16th and Farnam Sts. Phone Red 120. Open Sundays from 10 to 12.
