

NEW GOVERNOR IS KEEPING OUT OF ALL DANGER

Has Not Revealed Himself to Office Seekers and Phil Bross Wor't Tell.

(From a Staff Correspondent) Lincoln, Nov. 17.—(Special)—The fact that this is a cold and cruel world is being demonstrated to many applicants for political jobs who have dropped their applications to the official hopper at the McKelvie political mill, are anxiously standing around waiting to see what the mill will turn out. It isn't any use to bother Phil Bross, the miller. Phil simply smiles when the anxious ones go to him as the prospective, perhaps future right hand man of the new governor and ask him for information. They simply come away in the belief in the old saying that "a man may smile and smile and be a villain still."

If Mr. Bross were the new governor is, he is hiding his knowledge beneath a smile that proclaims that he has not been mixing with the politicians in Washington for the past dozen years without having learned something. If the hopper is crowded with applicants Miller Bross has a way of showing that it is simply time waste to try and find out what he does know. As a man of silence Mr. Bross is in the front ranks and liable to stay there until the official edict is proclaimed and the aggravated case of political lockjaw has been relieved.

In the meantime the new governor may be home or he may not be at home for another two weeks. Then again he may be at home now and keeping out of sight. In any event nothing will be gained by persistent effort. While persistent dropping of water is said to wear the hardest rock away, there is danger in the persistent dropping might make the rock in this case just a little harder. So applicants for office after filing their applications, might just as well wait and let the governor take his time, for it is said that he is going to endeavor to make the best appointments he can without regard to color or race or previous condition of servitude. The applicant who thinks he has a "pull" may discover that qualifications and location is going to cut a lot of the congealed stuff in the giving out of the jobs.

Reed Holds School Teachers Get No Pay for Time Lost by Flu

Lincoln, Nov. 17.—(Special)—Attorney General Reed stands pat on his former opinion that school boards cannot legally pay teachers their salaries for the time that schools were closed during the recent influenza epidemic. The firm stand taken by the attorney general in response to a protest sent in by Supt. J. P. Demill of Coleridge who alleges that the teachers of his school were engaged for a period of nine months. The county board closed the schools of the county and yet there was not one case of flu in Coleridge during the time the schools were closed. He says the teachers had to live whether they worked or not and it was not their fault that they did not work.

Nebraska Odd Fellows Meet at Lincoln This Week

Lincoln, Nov. 17.—(Special)—The Nebraska grand lodge of Odd Fellows, which was compelled to postpone its session because of the influenza, will meet this week in Lincoln, holding its session in representative hall at the state house on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The Rebekah assembly will hold its sessions in the senate chamber beginning Tuesday. Officers of the ladies' auxiliary are president, Iona Naylor, Chadron; secretary, Emma L. Talbot, Omaha; treasurer, Mary L. Stout, Omaha.

Health Board Considers Flu Situation in State

Lincoln, Nov. 17.—(Special)—The State Board of Health will hold a meeting tomorrow to take up the matter of health conditions over the state as it relates to the influenza epidemic. Generally speaking the conditions have been improving in most places the disease has run its course and former conditions as regards precautions have been abated. However, in Omaha and Lincoln the disease appears to have taken a new hold, although not as serious as before. The recent celebration over the signing of the armistice is said to be responsible for the new conditions in these cities, but the board does not believe it necessary to again place a ban on public gatherings.

STEPHENS PAYS $600 TO RUN FOR PLACE IN THIRD

Democratic Congressman Files Expense Account to Show What It Cost Him to Make Race.

(From a Staff Correspondent) Lincoln, Nov. 17.—(Special)—Congressman Dan Stephens paid $600, of which part went to the congressional committee for the fun of going up against the republican drait, and getting defeated by the man who was drafted, according to his statement filed with the secretary of state.

W. B. Andrews who showed a merry pair of heels to Congressman Shallenberger, says he spent $1,736 to win the congressional job. But Mr. Andrews certifies everything, including railway fare and hotel feed, and a lot of other things which are not required and which other candidates do not list as expenses. This indicates, however, just how much it costs to run for congress in the Fifth district.

Frank A. Peterson of Lincoln, who ran against Congressman Reavis, spent $471.99. Land Commissioner Shadway, who has not yet returned from the west where he went before election to attend the funeral of his son-in-law, certifies he spent $201. Governor-elect McKelvie spent $970.30, of which $500 went to the republican state committee, which nobody will accuse of not doing a good job of electing candidates on that ticket.

Several times in the past endeavors have been made to extend the Grand Circuit in the south, and now that the season has closed, this matter is again being talked of. Several towns have been mentioned, either to follow Lexington or Atlanta, among them being Memphis, Nashville, Jacksonville, Birmingham, Macon, Shreveport, New Orleans, etc. All of these cities seem to offer excellent opportunities for the extension of the big ring in their part of the country, and it is not at all unlikely that some arrangements will be made at the annual meeting this winter, which will add one or more members to the circuit, thus carrying the racing up to November 1 or later.

Camp Grant Detention Barracks Has Number of Athletic Favorites

Great Lakes, Ill., Nov. 17.—Two big league ball players, a Big Ten conference star, a prominent professional box fighter, a southern gridiron official and a college coach who the athletic hall reaped in one detention camp barracks at the Great Lakes Naval Training station in a day. Massaging the soil with a big No. 2 pick was Johnny Brock, late catcher for the St. Louis Nationals and the Little Rock club. Performing other rookie duties was Bob Larmore, known as "Red" Larmore in his few games on the Cardinal infield and several weeks in the Texas league. Brock is an aviation mechanic and Larmore a seaman.

Time for Execution of A. B. Cole Again Extended

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special)—Governor Neville has granted a second reprieve to Alton B. Cole, sentenced to death for the murder of Mrs. Lulu Vogt in Ho. rd county. The date of the carrying out of the penalty was set for July 22 originally. The governor extended the time to Nov. 22 and now makes another extension to January 17. The reason of the extension is to give the supreme court time to hear the appeal of Allen V. Grammer, found guilty of the same crime. In the trial of the latter, Cole was the chief witness and his testimony will be needed in the hearing on the appeal of the Grammer case.

Volunteer Firemen Hold Convention in Fremont

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special)—Fremont, for the second year in succession, will entertain the Nebraska Volunteer Firemen's association. The convention will be held January 14 and 15. Plans for entertaining 500 or more Nebraska fire fighters are being made by the Fremont Fire department and the Commercial club. J. W. Guthrie of Alliance is president of the association. At the convention in Fremont last winter 450 firemen were in attendance.

High Wages Paid Boys Shown by Fremont Registration

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special)—The registration of boys between the ages of 15 and 18 years in the Workers' Reserve revealed that many lads of that age are receiving considerably higher wages than many Fremont men. One boy employed at the Northwestern roundhouse, draws a weekly wage of $33.61, his registration card shows. Another boy not yet 16 months old receives a salary of $110 a month as railroad clerk. Many others from $100 to $125.

NEW MEMBERS MAY BE ADDED GRAND CIRCUIT

Stewards Planning to Extend Big Ring in South; Movement for New Association Started.

Several times in the past endeavors have been made to extend the Grand Circuit in the south, and now that the season has closed, this matter is again being talked of. Several towns have been mentioned, either to follow Lexington or Atlanta, among them being Memphis, Nashville, Jacksonville, Birmingham, Macon, Shreveport, New Orleans, etc. All of these cities seem to offer excellent opportunities for the extension of the big ring in their part of the country, and it is not at all unlikely that some arrangements will be made at the annual meeting this winter, which will add one or more members to the circuit, thus carrying the racing up to November 1 or later.

NEILLA DILLON LEADING WINNER

On the money winners in the Grand Circuit the past season furnish some interesting study. A total of 196 trotters entered the money winning list with amounts from $25 up to their credit.

Neilla Dillon leads the list with a total of $15,914.25, which she won in three races, while Anty is not far behind with $13,715 and Princess Loree is a close third, having won $13,595. The season just closed was lacking in anything bordering on the sensational, especially among the pacers, and had it not been for the performances of Miss Harris M. and Single G, there would have been practically nothing for the statisticians of the turf to change in the tables of 1917.

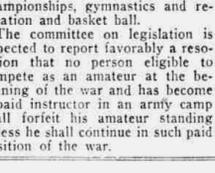

Amateur Athletic Union Meets at Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Matters pertaining to the amateur standing of athletes who acted as paid instructors at army cantonments during the past year, the awarding of championship and delegate representation are among the things that will be considered at the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States, which began a two-day session here today.

New Parent Association

The next event of importance in the light harness world of the middle west, is the Chicago sale, the week of December 16. The sale this year is of more than usual interest inasmuch as a meeting of horsemen has been called to take up the matter of forming a new parent association. Space will not permit the publishing of all the demands incorporated in the first draft of the rules, but it is sufficient to say that they take in a large range of territory. The idea seems to be to form an association to buck the American and National, and while a number of their demands are good, others are rather laughable. For instance, one of the things they pay particular attention to is "No more drunken grooms."
