ATHLETIC CLUB ASKS MEMBERS' RESERVATIONS

Big Crowds Are Expected at Openings to Be Held the Second Week in December.

Notices are being sent to members of the Omaha Athletic club to make reservations for the grand opening in December at an early

There will be two opening dates, one December 12, for the public, to which everyone is invited, and the other on December 14, which will be the formal opening of the club and to which only members and their families will be admitted.

As the management is expecting a large attendance on December 14. has decided not to install the pool and billiard tables until after the opening, thereby facilitating handling of the crowd.

M. C. Peters has appointed a committee to assist him at both

The call for nonresident memberships is greatly exceeding the expectations of the management and are coming in from all over the country from New York City to San Francisco. A number of reservations for the opening already have been made from New York, Chicago, Minneapolis and Salt Lake

The management announced that the membership list will be closed on the night of the opening of the club, and that after that all applications for membership will be placed

Paris and that rations in Germany had been augmented seemed to put the bulls on the defensive. Bearish sentiment, however, became much more pronounced as in-dications accumulated that big forwarding of corn from first hands was in prospect. In this connection, shippers were officially advised to get wheat out of the way as speedily as possible, and that car permits were now being issued freely for all grain. t was announced also that Argentine shipments besides being of considerable volume included a fair quantity to this country for account of the food adminis-
