GRAIN REVIEW.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Sharp new advances based largely on reports of food scarcity in Europe have taken place this week in the value of corn despite an expected en-largement of domestic rural shipments and notwithstanding lowered quotations at Paris and London. Compared with a week ago, cors prices this morning were to 10 6c higher and oats up 1% to 2% @ 2½c. At the same time, lard was off feature of the bond market was to 55c to 77c, but pork and ribs showed Especially during the first part of the week, interest of corn traders centered on the assumed need of large food supplies to avert trans-Atlantic starvation. London advices that arrangements were being made to dispatch a number of German vessels to the United States were responsible for much of the fever to purchase and so too were United States preparations to send large amounts of foodstuffs to Aus-tria, as well as the departure of five big steamships from America for the Nether-lands. Later in the week, however, bear-ish news predominated, including word of liberal Argentine shipments. Accord-ngly, extreme advances were not maintained.

Onts strengthened with corn, but upturns brought out hedging.
Provisions were dull and irregular,

Chicago Grain and Previsions. Chicago, Nov. 23.—Aggressive selling on the part of leading commission houses forced the corn market sharply down-ward today. Cold weather and probable increase of the crop movement to primary increase of the crop movement to primary centers gave an advantage to the bears. About the only support for prices came from shorts. Opening quotations, which ranged from ¼ to 1%c lower, with December $1.25½ to $1.25% and January $1.27% to $1.28½, were followed by a material further setback Week-end adjustment of trades failed to bring about any important raily. The market closedheavy, 2½ to 3½ a het lower, with December $1.24½ and January $1.26 $1.26%.

New York Stocks. New York, Nov 23 .- Prices were lower at the opening of today's stock market. Active issues, including high grade ralls, reacted 1 to 2 points. Selling again contered in metals and meters, secondar, coppers reflecting the uncertain condi-tions in that industry. Pressure against Studebaker was resumed and distilling issues denoted the latest aspects of federa prohibition legislation. United States Steel held steady and Mexican Petroleum was the only leader to show actual strength. noteworthy feature of the bond market was the heavy selling of fourth 414s, which sold at the new quotation of 97.82 for the first time since their isiting

Stocks were depressed at the outset of today's short session, rallied moderately, but soon reacted again, the second decline embracing most branches of the active list. Coppers, motors and equipments constituted the weakest features at extreme reactions of 1 to 4 points, but the reversel finally extended to standard issues, including rails. United States Steel resisted pressure, but related shares and oils fi-nally succumbed.
