NEBRASKA BOY DIES FIGHTING GERMAN AIRMEN

Lieutenant Carles Describes Battle Overseas in Which Lieutenant Lehr Lost His Life.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 24 .- (Special.) -That Lieutenant Manderson Lehr died fighting, and before making the supreme sacrifice did as he had done before-sent his antagonists to their doom-is evidenced by information coming to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lehr, his parents, at Albion, in a letter from Lieutenant Carles, a French observer and Lehr's companion; stating he received his death while guiding his airplane in a battle with Lieutenant Lehr was a nephew of Charles F. Manderson, late of Omaha, and had been in the airplane service in France about three years, having gained the distinction of being one of the most successful fighters, and had several times been his parents last August, little was that he was sent to earth inside the German lines, and his friends had hoped he might have been captured and might still be alive.

"During the conflict I tried to attract Lehr's attention and then saw that he did not move and had given up control of the machine. We had the plane, which was in flames, into a forest, where it crashed.

"I was relieved some time aftefward by the American soldiers. Immediately I asked them where my pilot was, and they made me understand that he had ceased to live." Lieutenant Carles gave a touching tribute to Manderson's bravery and lovable character, and in closing his letter said:

We French will never be able to be grateful enough to you Americans who are giving us the best of your youth."

STAR OF BLUE IS CHANGED TO STAR OF GOLD

North Presbyterian Church Holds Memorial Services for John T. Philips, Killed in France.

At the Sunday morning services at the North Presbyterian church, one of the 62 stars on the church service flag was changed from blue to gold. This particular gold star, and the only one so far on the flag, was placed there to commemorate the death of John T. Phillips, a member of the church, who enlisted May 24, 1918, and was assigned to the 160th United States infantry, Company C, and went overseas September 1, having been killed in action, somewhere in France, October 5 or 6. John T. Philips was born in 1889 and is survived by his parents and five sisters. He had been a member of the North church for a long time prior to entering the army.

At the memorial service Sunday morning, Rev. J. M. Wilson, pastor of the church, read a short sketch of the life of the dead soldier, telling of his enlistment and bravery as a defender of the stars and stripes. Following this he read Lincoln's Gettysburg address, after which a bugler and a squad of soldiers from Fort Omaha marched down one of the aisles and took up a position in front of the pulpit, standing at attention while the congregation sang America."

As the last strains of the singing died away, the bugler sounded "Taps," and Rev. Mr. Wilson crossed the pulpit to the service flag, there replacing one of the stars of blue with a star of gold.

HEALTH IS BETTER NOW THAN SINCE A BOY, HE DECLARES

Began to Suffer With Rheumatism Fifteen Years Ago -Wife Also Helped

By Tanlac. "My health is better today than Ecton and Walding, 16 and 17, it has been since I was just a boy respectively, confessed to auto and I am now 60 years old," was the remarkable statement made by P. railroad out of Omaha, and Clar- benefits he has derived from the ence Sargderger, a fireman on the use of Tanlac, recently. Mr. Robbins lives at 1449 South 14th street Omaha, Nebraska, and is employed

"When only 17 years of age,' continued. "I strained my back lifting and since that time I have had many ailments. Fifteen years ago rheumatism struck me and laid me up for several weeks, and I have never been free from it until now. My muscles and joints were all stiff and hurt me so I could hardly turn over in bed. With almost every change in the weather I would have a severe cold and would frequently have an attack of grippe. I often suffered with dull, thumping headship Carib, which went aground on aches and had neuralgia so bad at the Long Island shore 20 miles east times I could hardly stand it. I of New York last Thursday, was dropped off in weight from one floated at 11:55 a. m. today, the hundred and eighty-nine pounds to navy department tonight announc-ed. The vessel is proceeding to never able to get anything to do me much good. My wife had also been having spells of grippe for thirty years and had gotten to where she wasn't able to keep house. She had no appetite, ached all over and could hardly sleep at all.

"Early in the Spring a friend of mine told me about Tanlac, so I went right down to Sherman & McConnell's and got two bottles, one for my wife and one for myself. At this time I was unable to work, but I have been on the job now ever since I finished my second bottle and my improvement has been nothing less than remarkable. My system seems to be entirely free from the rheumatism, as I never feel it at all now, and you know I must be in pretty good shape to be working every day in a packing house. My wife and I both are just like new people and our enthusiasm for Tanlac knows no bounds." Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores. Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy under the personal direction of a special Tanac representative.
