Nebraska

Miss Lutha Starns of Milwaukee, one of the chief speakers at the state meeting of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, held in Lincoln recently, recited the following poem:

"Oh, a truly sovereign state is Nebraska.

All that's wise and good and great is Nebraska,

Every day or two I read How her laws and customs lead—

Heaven must indeed be like Nebraska.

"Trusts and bosses never mix in Nebraska.

Oh, the lovely politics in Nebraska! Though the railroads boosted the rate

On nearly every state, They were famously sedate in Nebraska.

"Matrimony cannot fail in Nebraska. Babies all are strong and hale in Nebraska.

That's the state of eugenic bliss, You have read about ere this—

Only gods may coo and kiss in Nebraska.

"Oh, the state of states for me is Nebraska.

There is where I would gladly be—in Nebraska.

I would hasten to her shore With a glad and grateful roar,

Only Wisconsin needs me more than Nebraska—

Kindergarten Helps

By MRS. HARRIET AYERS SEYMOUR.

I KNOW a mother with four children who made up her mind that home should be a very heaven. To her, music was God's special gift to mothers and children, and so she began singing regularly with each of her babies.

There are many lovely songs which a mother can learn, and the best of all are the folk songs of different countries.

A gay song for baby as he eats his breakfast and a quiet one as he lies down to go to sleep—these will sink in deep and form a wonderful foundation for the music of his life.

With the older babies have a regular singing time. Five o'clock is a good hour. The children of whom I speak had a "singing party" every day at 5, and sometimes the neighbors came in and sang with them. Their mother grew to be such a strong influence in the community that many persons came to her for advice and refreshment.

Nagging is often simply a lack of something better to do. A friend of this woman in speaking of her home life said, "She has substituted singing for nagging."

Joy is the best tonic there is, and happiness creates health. The children's song hour will affect the atmosphere of the whole house.

Any mother who has had the regulation music lessons can play simple songs and can learn to guide her children into a singing life.

Sing "Come and be washed," instead of saying it. Here is a little tune spontaneously sung by a child of 6: "Something ever, ever sings."

The little child was right, but the trouble is, most of us do not listen.

Ask your question in song, mother, and soon you will be answered by a cheerful singing reply.

"Baby where are you?" sung on a simple ascending scale will soon bring a musical reply from a hidden child of "I am hiding here."

Play softly, sing gently and listen.

During the day take some familiar tune and swing the rhythm with the arms. Let the children step it, finding out where the slow and quick steps come. Afterward, have them draw lines on the blackboard to show this duration, thus: — — — — — Let them find out in which direction the tune goes, up or down, and make pictures of it either denoting the direction with a sweep of the hands or drawing a sweeping line on the blackboard.

Singing, swinging, stepping and making pitch and duration pictures the children live in music as fish in water or birds in the air.

If there are quarrels and tears, play something pretty and think the word harmony. See how this calms the atmosphere. The mother I speak of controlled her children almost entirely through the power of constructive thought and music. They easily yielded to the word peace sung gently over and over.

Mothers, if they only knew it, have the making of a new world of love in their keeping, and music is a torch to light them on the way.

To a mother who does not know any music, I say, if you can, get some one to come for an hour every day to sing with your children at twilight. See to it that the words of the songs are constructive and beautiful and learn to sing a little yourself. Everyone can sing a little.

Join the community chorus and if there isn't one, start one.

"A singing army is a winning army." A singing family is a spiritually growing family and music the link that brings heaven to earth.

Issued by the Department of Interior, Bureau of Education and National Kindergarten association.

Of Interest to Women

The members of Queen Mary's Army Auxiliary corps now have their own school in London for the education of women clerks for the army.

In various universities and colleges throughout the United States many women are now being trained for positions as factory employment managers.

Miss Annie Tobey, an operative in the electrical shop at the Portsmouth N. H. navy yard, made a record for women riveters recently when she drove 264 copper rivets into battery-boxes in two hours.

An Endless Job

The task of building a business never ends, unless the end be failure.

I have been frequently asked the question why it is necessary to advertise this dental office day after day and year after year, the inference (which was politely hidden) being that if I was worthy of support and patronage, that the public would patronize me on the strength of past publicity.

Very few people dispute the gospel; the great majority believe themselves Christians—yet eloquent ministers preach from millions of pulpits every week, TO THE FEW SINNERS STILL UNCONVINCED.

The greatest honor we can bestow upon an American is to make him President—we have all read the names of the various men who have filled the presidential chair, and yet I dare say fifty per cent of the people cannot today name half the Presidents or state their politics or when they served.

Advertising, with rare exceptions, is forgotten quickly, if allowed to lapse. It is much like washing dishes—you must do it over and over if you keep on eating.

Today there are thousands of people in Nebraska and contiguous territory who know of "Painless Withers Dentistry," and there are as many who have never heard of it.

There are hundreds who read my advertisements who have never been in my office; some because they have their own dentists; some because they imagine it is wrong to patronize an advertising dentist, and still others who do not believe in my skill or my sincerity.

These are the people I want to reach—these are the people I want to CONVINCE that I can save them time, pain and money; that the service rendered patients in this office is equal to and often superior to that rendered in the higher priced "ethical" offices; that good judgment, and economy, beckon them to my office—and only prejudice holds them back.

That is why I am preaching this "lay sermon" every week—it is the only way to prove my faith in myself and the public.
