FIFTEEN TEAMS START SIX-DAY BICYCLE RACE

New York's Annual Indoor Cycling Carnival Opens Auspiciously at Madison Square Garden.

New York, Dec. 1.-Fifteen teams of the best cyclists available made up the field of contestants in the international six-day bicycle race, which began at midnight at the Madison Square Garden. This is New York's annual indoor cycling carnival, instituted a quarter of a century ago. The French point score system will govern the event again this year, and two hours each afternoon and three hours each night, including the final hours of the race, wil be devoted to sprints for points. The following are the official en ance of a war zone city, all lights being turned low in order to save coal. All houses shut up at 8 o'clock, the stores and restaurants at 9 and the cafes at 10. The political situation here is pathetic. There is talk of a revolution on all sides, though those proposing to overthrow the government admit the uselessness of such an action. The correspondent, whose presence is known throughout the city, has many visitors, one of whom said he represented a political group which wished to know if it were possible to annex Austria to the United States. He said that Austria was now in a hopeless situation, surrounded by enemies, both men and women, who were ruthlessly robbing.

The correspondent's visitors who reached such numbers as almost to prevent him and the other correspondents from preparing dispatches, wish either to write to friends or relatives in the United States or else to go there to work. Food conditions in Vienna are gradually becoming worse, with the poor eating black bread in small quantities and a soup made of water and baked flour or regetables. The lack of fats is undermining strength, even in the case of the rich, who are able to eat large but unsatisfying food portions. It is certain there are some provisions in the country districts, but the farmers part with their food supplies only to speculators in exchange for the shoes, clothes or money they need.
