

WEST NEBRASKA IS PROSPEROUS, SAYS MR. COAD

Farmers Raise Bigger Yield and Get Higher Prices Than Ever; Record Crop In.

"Eastern Wyoming and western Nebraska are flooded with prosperity," said Mark Coad, who returned Monday after spending a month on his big ranch near Cheyenne, Wyo.

"More winter wheat has been sown in that section than ever before. The past season was one which produced the most bountiful crops and the highest prices ever experienced by farmers in that farming district, and they are in better financial shape, comparatively, than the farmers in the more favored eastern part of the state."

"Flax has been a very profitable crop in eastern Wyoming and western Nebraska. Farmers, during the war period, were getting $4.50 per bushel for flax seed, from which was pressed a lubricating oil used in aeroplanes. This oil would not freeze in high altitudes or low temperatures. Since the armistice was signed the price dropped to $3 per bushel, but it is a good money making crop at that, as about eight bushels to the acre is the average crop."

"owing to a scarcity of labor the growers of small grain in that section are a little bit slow about threshing, but that will all be done in good time and without great loss. Kimball and all the other towns out in that section are reflecting the prosperity of the people in the many improvements that are in course of erection or contemplated."

Commanding Officer Praises Captain Who Gave Life for Liberty

Hastings, Neb., Dec. 2.—(Special Telegram)—Reporting the death of Capt. Arthur Allyn, son of A. E. Allyn of this city from wounds, Col. A. P. Anderson, Three Hundred and Twelfth infantry, has written the parents that the officer deserves a high place in the history of the United States.

Captain Allyn's gallantry and leadership," writes Colonel Anderson, "insured the ultimate success on October 27, at a pivotal point that determined success for two American armies."

Describing his conduct in directing an operation vital to a victory of great magnitude, the colonel says he met a true hero's death.

Captain Allyn was but 24 years old. He received his master's degree at the state university when he was only 21, and was commissioned captain at 23. Before he entered the army he was a chemist for the United States Rubber company. The fatal action was at the beginning of the American successes in the Argonne.

Ready! U.S. TROOPS ON RHINE ARE GIVEN COOL WELCOME

Germans Show Neither Enthusiasm Nor Hostility as the American Soldiers Enter Towns.

American Army of Occupation, Dec. 2.—(By Associated Press.)—No demonstrations, either friendly or hostile, marked the entry of Major General Dickman's army into Germany today. The frontier was crossed early in the day and by nightfall the Americans had moved forward 12 miles, reaching Radgen, on the left, and Saarholsbach, on the right. The line extended along the Saar river and through Saarburg and Treves.

The reception given the Americans differed from that encountered in Luxembourg and parts of Belgium and France. There they were welcomed as deliverers by almost all of the population. The attitude of the population of Rhenish Prussia was different. Not a single act of open antagonism was reported, but it was evident that even the children had been schooled carefully in the role they must play.

Calm Reception. Officers and men were not surprised by the lack of display of flags and the absence of cheering crowds to which they had been accustomed, but they did not expect the calm silence with which the advance patrols and the columns of marchers were received.

On the Luxembourg side of the Moselle river the streets of the villages were filled with those out to say goodbye to the departing troops or by those who paused to or from church. Across the Moselle the streets of the villages were almost deserted. Perhaps 85 per cent of the population remained within their homes, and in a majority of cases the blinds were drawn and there a German stood in the doorway watching the troops pass and occasionally groups assembled at street corners, but there were no signs of either pleasure or displeasure.

Children Curbed. Larger crowds were encountered in Treves, the largest place occupied, later in the day, but even there most of the people kept moving, maintaining always a studied air of indifference. So far as possible the men in khaki were ignored. Once in a while the youngsters under 6 years of age were carried away by the excitement and displayed an enthusiasm over the marching troops, but their forgetfulness was corrected promptly by some older person.

Brig-Gen. Preston Brown, the military governor of occupied territory, has established his headquarters at Treves, which also has been made advanced general headquarters. General Pershing will spend part of his time at Treves. Civil affairs will be directed by Maj-Gen. Harry Smith.

The troops marched into the headquarters town with bands playing, but even the music and the presence of dozens of high ranking American officers failed to jar the population from its attitude of calm silence. A curious feature of the situation was the presence along the line of march of large numbers of discharged German soldiers, both officers and men, still in full uniform. Along the roads and in Treves these gray-clad men moved in and out of the groups of men in khaki or stood on the sidewalks watching the marching columns. At several places in the city and in the country districts Germans, armed with rifles, were seen acting as civilian guards. They had been placed there by the German authorities to maintain order.

A number of released allied soldiers appeared with the American line as it advanced. Some of them had been set free by the retreating Germans, while others had been permitted "to escape."

The allied commissions which have been in communication with the Germans have notified the local authorities both in Treves and in other places that where the civilian authorities are not troublesome, and where they co-operate with the forces of occupation, they will be permitted to remain at their posts and will not be disturbed except insofar as it is necessary for the carrying out of military measures.

PEACE MEETING TO BE ASKED FOR RULING ON LABOR

French Committee Asks That Clause Relative to International Legislation be Included.

Paris, Dec. 2.—The labor committee of the Chamber of Deputies adopted a report submitted by Justin Godart, under-secretary for the medical services on clauses relative to international labor legislation to be inserted in the peace treaty.

The first clause will promulgate the reforms adopted by the Bern conference in 1912, which contain provisions against night work for young industrial workers and a 10-hour day for women and youths in factories.

The second clause will submit to an international labor conference the following reforms: A minimum age of 14 years for the employment of children, an eight-hour day for adults in factories or mines with a half day's rest on Sunday, the organization of a reciprocal agreement for sick pay, old age and disability pensions, unemployment insurance and legislation concerning accident occurring during employment. It also will provide for equality in wages and working conditions for foreign and home workers.

The third clause calls for the institution of periodic international labor meetings at which nonsignatories may be admitted, comprising delegates of workers and employers. The object of the conference will be to promote international labor legislation by successive conventions. An arbitration committee or a court will be appointed to settle differences arising between the signatories, as to the application of conventions.

Pogroms Against Jews in Lemberg Making Hundreds Homeless

Vienna, Dec. 2.—(By Associated Press.)—Hundreds are homeless at Lemberg as the result of pogroms against the Jews in that city. It is reported that many people have been killed and wounded, and wholesale looting has taken place. The trouble is said to be extending west of Jaroslav and south to Drohobycz, as well as to many towns in western and eastern Galicia. Jewish reports say that the disorders were the outcome of an effort to prevent the Jews from carrying out the principle of self-determination, according to President Wilson's program. Disinterested observers state that the fighting is the outgrowth of the fact that the Ukrainians in Poland wish to be free and under Ukrainian rule. The people of Lemberg, with the exception of the Jews, want to unite with the Poles. The Poles, therefore, are pursuing a policy of violence against the Jews, who are in the minority.

TEXAS DOCTOR SAYS TANLAC IS WONDERFUL

Prominent Texas Physician Says He Has Treated About Fourteen Hundred Cases of Influenza-During the Past Month and Has Found Tanlac to Be Best Tonic to Be Had to Build Up His Patients.

THE following letter from Dr. J. W. Sandlin, one of the most prominent physicians of Southern Texas, has just been received at the Tanlac office, and gives indisputable evidence as to the value of Tanlac as a reconstructive tonic for persons who are recuperating from the after effects of Spanish Influenza. His letter follows:

"Humble, Tex., Nov. 5, 1918. "Just a few lines in reference to Tanlac. I have found your preparation to be a wonderful reconstructive tonic. It has no equal in its line. I have found it to be the best tonic to be had to build up my patients who have had Spanish influenza. I have treated within the past month about fourteen hundred cases and have never been able to get sufficient Tanlac to supply my needs. "You are very truly, "DR. J. W. SANDLIN." Dr. Sandlin is not only a very large practice as a physician, but he is also a man of wide influence and respect in his community. He is still prevalent and is breaking out anew in many sections of the country and continues to claim its victims. Persons who have had influenza are oftentimes left in a very weakened, run-down condition. It is still prevalent and is taken, both as to habits and diet, serious complications are apt to follow. WORLD IN NEED OF QUICK HELP, SAYS DAVISON

Distress Will Be Acute if Relief is Not Brought to the Many Starving Peoples.

New York, Dec. 2.—Prediction that there will be such distress in the world this winter that it cannot be met by volunteer organizations and that governments must bear the chief burden, was made today by Henry P. Davison, chairman of the war council of the American Red Cross, who has just returned from a three-months' trip in Europe. He inspected the Red Cross activities in England, France, Belgium, Italy and Switzerland.

"There will be an appeal in Germany for humanity from all over the world, no one can doubt," said Mr. Davison. "The needs of France, Belgium, Italy, Russia and the Balkans will not terminate with the formal declaration of peace. The hardships of war and the dislocated industrial conditions of the world have produced hunger, want and disease."

Conditions Serious. "Politically the outlook for a new and better world is bright, but the economic conditions are ominous. There will be such distress in the world that it cannot be met by voluntary organizations. Governments must bear the chief burden, and I am confident that co-operation between the governments may be relied upon in an endeavor to meet this wholesale work of relief which will be needed."

"It will be the necessity for supplementary work which Red Cross organizations throughout the world can do and must do. "The American Red Cross must be kept strong and efficient, and it may do its share in full measure. "As far as can now be foreseen there will be no further occasion for campaigns for Red Cross funds. During the week before Christmas there is to be a roll call, giving every citizen an opportunity to register as a member of the volunteer humanitarian agency for the American people, which is recognized throughout the world as the American Red Cross. This membership involves no commitment beyond the payment of $1.

Subscribe Great Sum

"More than 47,000,000 American people," he continued, "subscribed to the American Red Cross within a period of 11 months a total aggregating $313,000,000 in money, and contributed unmanufactured goods of an estimated value of approximately $44,000,000.

A large American Red Cross force is working with our troops in England and yet larger force in France, where a personnel of 18 in June, 1917, has developed into an organization of more than 7,000 men and women. Our other commissions though smaller, are equally effective in their various fields of operation.

AUSTRIANS ASK U. S. SOLDIERS TO MAINTAIN ORDER

Vienna, Dec. 2.—(By Associated Press.)—On all sides in the former Austrian empire one hears the plea that small bodies of American troops be sent to the centers of population for the purpose of keeping order. Such a step, it is held, would work against the tendencies of unrest caused by the countless political and boundary disputes among the numerous races, and help prevent any trend toward bolshevism that disorderly conditions might tend to promote.

It is urged by Jewish residents arriving here from Przemysl and Lemberg, for instance, that the presence of a few American uniforms would be sufficient protection against such anti-semitic outbreaks as have occurred at those places recently.

The word bolshevism is loosely used here, but the only authentic example of outbreaks taking on this complexion appears to be furnished among the Slovak population of northwestern Hungary, where the former ruling classes, the Magyar country gentlemen, have virtually abandoned their estates. It is reported that efforts by the Czechs to take possession of this territory was followed by an uprising of the peasants and also by outbreaks against the Jews.

The most recent example of the literalness with which the peoples of the old dual monarchy have interpreted President Wilson's conception of self-determination among every body of the same tongue and race is to be found among the inhabitants in the region of Gottschee, some 30 miles north-east of Fiume, a body of about 20,000 German-speaking people living in the heart of Jugo-Slavia. Representative of the Gottschee group visited the correspondent at Trieste three weeks ago and also came to him after his arrival here, explaining that they wished the protection of America against the Jugo-Slavs so that they might declare a republic.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

If little stomach is sour, liver torpid or bowels clogged. Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can't cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and hair until both are entirely covered by the daintily perfumed preparation that thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing the hair dries quickly with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.—Adv.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Back-ache or Bladder Troubles. You—Salts is fine for Kidneys. Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.
