BOTH CITY AND COUNTY READY FOR TROUBLE

Sheriff and Police Commissioner Prepare Forces in Case of Violence in Strike Situation.

Commissioner Ringer, Chief of Police Eberstein and Sheriff Clark held a conference Friday morning on the strike situation and arranged for united work in case violence should occur. Both the city and county police authorities have the power to swear in any number of civilians as officers during an emergency.

Mr. Ringer said he did not believe the strikers would resort to volence.

"In case they do. however, we are prepared to give all the protection necessary to those on the cars," he

"It is inconceivable to me." said Chief Eherstein. 7that the strikers will persist in defiance of the government war board statement. This board was created by the president of the United States. Its chairmen have stated that the strikers are making a scrap of paper of the agreement which they signed last

Bradstreet's Trade Review. New York, Dec. C-Bradstreet's tomor-

Uncertainty, savored, however, with optimism, accompanied by a manifestly slower gait in actual movements and ad-ditional cancellations of war orders, epi-tomizes trade conditions. Groping for tangible tendencies, speculating as to the trend of prices, shifting from war to peace work and year-end stock taking secupy most attention in the larger lines. Underneath the pause, preparations to send salesmen on the road after the turn of the year are going on. Immediate demand, light as it is, overshadows overbuying in future accounts, thus indicating a disposition to await developments while velopments while covering current needs. On the other hand, retail trade at a number of centers is of large volume, thanks chiefly to holiday purchases, these being stimulated by cheerful feeling arising out of the termination of the war, and to a lessor extent to reduce the standard property of and to a lesser extent to reduced price on other than holiday goods.
