

EDUCATORS AND EDITORS NAMED AS PRO-GERMAN

List from Dr. Fuehr's Diary Produced at Inquiry; Hearst Correspondent Was on Dernburg's Payroll.

Washington, Dec. 6.—In telling his story of German propaganda in America, A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice, today laid before the senate committee investigating bribery and German propaganda cablegrams exchanged in 1916 by Count von Bernstorff, then ambassador here, and the Berlin foreign office.

One of Bernstorff's messages urged that special favor be shown William Bayard Hale, an American about to visit Berlin as a newspaper correspondent, because he was employed by the Hearst organs, which, the message said, had conspicuously placed themselves on the German side.

Bielaski told the committee that Hale was on the Hearst payroll for $300 a week, and also was employed at $15,000 a year by a publicity organization formed in this country by Dr. Bernard Dernburg, the German propagandist.

"Hearst," the ambassador's message said, "is not aware that Hale is our agent, but knows him only as a Germanophile journalist who has contributed leading articles to papers."

List of Pro-Germans.

From the diary of Dr. Karl A. Fuehr, a German agent brought to America by von Bernstorff, was produced a paper labeled "important list of names," which, M. Bielaski said, contains "practically all who were actively pro-German prior to our entrance in the war and a few who were active after war."

The list follows:

Prof. William R. Sheppard, Columbia university; Prof. Hugo Muensertberg, Harvard university; Prof. William M. Sloane, Columbia university; Dr. Edmund von Mach, Cambridge, Mass.; Dr. Auth von Briesen, New York; Prof. John W. Burgess, Newport, R. I.; Prof. Eugene Smith, Columbia university; Prof. H. C. Sauborn, Vanderbilt university; Prof. J. G. McDonald, University of Indiana; Prof. Ferdinand Schevill, Uni. of Chicago; E. C. Richardson, Princeton university; Prof. Kimo Francke, Harvard university; Prof. George B. McClellan, Princeton university; Prof. A. B. Faust, Cornell university; Prof. Morris Jastrow, jr., University of Wisconsin; Dr. Walter S. McGill, Richmond; Dr. David Starr Jordan, Berkeley, Cal.; Peter S. Grosscup, United States federal judge, Highland Park, Ill.; Richard Bartholdt, St. Louis; Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, Harvard university; Dr. C. J. Hexamer, Philadelphia; Charles Nagel, St. Louis; Oswald Garrison Villard, New York Evening Post; William Randolph Hearst, New York American; Bernard Ridder, New York Staats Zeitung; Edward A. Rumely, New York Evening Mail; Frederick A. Schrader, 1497 Broadway, New York; Frank Harris, New York City; Robt I. Ford, Freeman's Journal, New York; Rev. Father Thiney, American Catholic Weekly, New York; Max A. Heim, New York; George S. Viereck, New York; Prof. William Trent, New York.

Newspaper Plans Aired.

Mr. Bielaski told the committee under date of October 17, 1914, Count von Bernstorff sent this message from Washington to Dr. Bernard Dernburg and Heinrich F. Albert, German propaganda agents in New York:

"The Washington Post was offered me to buy today for $2,000,000 with the understanding to buy it back again after the war for a million and a half. A second offer was to put the paper entirely at our disposal for two months at $100,000. The paper is of importance as the largest newspaper of the capital."

Under date of October 27, 1916, the German ambassador, in a message to the Berlin foreign office in cipher, after expressing regret at the death of John R. McLean, said:

"The Washington Post has since then been fairly neutral, but may be entirely lost to us if it cannot, as is very much desired, be put into the hands of Mr. Hearst."

Another communication produced by Mr. Bielaski and alleged to have been written by Samuel Untermyer, of New York to Albert, in February, 1916, dealt with the purchase of a New York paper for $2,000,000. The name of this paper was not mentioned in the communication, but Mr. Bielaski said there were indications that it was the New York Sun.
