possible reopening of the coffee futures market today. The impression appeared to be that the bond of managers of the exchange was waiting for further communications from Washington before making any further move in that connection. Meanwhile no change was renection. Meanwhile no change was re-ported in the local spot situation, which remained entirely nominal so far as firm quotations were concerned, although it is said prices are tending toward a closer parity with Brazil. The official cables showed an advance of 25 rels in the Rio market. Santos anots were not quoted market. Santes spots were not quoted and futures were unchanged to 100 rels lower. Receipts at the two Brazilian ports were 48,000 bags and Jundiahy reports were 48,000 bags and Jundiany re-ceipts 24,000. Later cables reported a further decline of 50 to 100 reis in Santos futures. County Attorney-Elect Names His Deputies, Office Force and Also Coroner's Physician. A. V. Shotwell, newly elected county attorney, has announced the appointment of deputies and assistants in his office. The first five named are deputies: J. H. Ready, cheif deputy. W. W. Slabaugh, first assistant.

SELECTED HIS

ASSISTANTS

Arthur Rosenbloom, deputy. E. R. Leigh, deputy. Charles H. Kubat, deputy. Paul Steinwender, messenger, Margaret Hyland, stenographer.

Dr. Samuel McCleneghan, coroner's physician. Friends of Mr. Shotwell congrat-ulate him on obtaining J. H. Ready and W. W. Slabaugh on his staff of assistants. Both have had valuable experience in that line of work. Neither was an applicant for the position but Mr. Shotwell urged them to accept his appointments and they

Electrical Christmas Display at the Burgess-Nash Corner

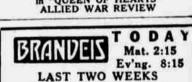

One of the most beautiful and as well as one of the most unique displays ever seen on the streets of Omaha is that at Burgess-Nash store, Sixteenth and Harney. Surrounding the entire store, both on Sixteenth and Harney streets, are large evergreen trees all

The trees are 15 feet high and on the canopy in front of the store is one great tree at least 40 feet in height ablaze with red and green. PHOTO-PLAYS.
