South Side J. E. BROWN HELD FOR DEATH OF SOUTH SIDE BOY

Little Rudolph Kroywetz is Killed by Automobile Just After School is Dismissed.

James E. Brown, 2320 South Thirty-second street, alleged to have been driving the automobile which ran down and killed Rudolph Kroywetz Monday noon at the intersection of Twenty-fifth and L streets. was arrested at 8:30 Monday night on the charge of manslaughter.

After the accident, according to Miss L. Gross, teacher of the South Central school, the driver of the car picked the boy up and carried him to his home which was near the school house. He then left, saying that he would bring a doctor. Miss Gross says this is the last she saw of him and a doctor had to be procured by Miss Gross herself.

Omaha, December 17, 1918. Receipts of grain today were liberal for wheat and showed a fair run of corn Oats continued light. Arrivals were 107 cars of wheat, 61 cars of corn, 27 cars of oats, 12 cars of rye, and 6 cars of barley. Corn prices ranged from 1 cent off to 2 cents up, with the bulk bringing un-changed figures. Good grades sold readily, but sellers asked stronger prices for some of the off grades than offered and as a consequence sales of this kind were slow.
Cats were 1 cent lower, rye 1 cent to 3 cents off and barley unchanged. Wheat was exchanged to 1 cent lower, the bulk

Sand Storm Division May Be Assigned to Army of Occupation

A letter received by Mrs. F. J. Lund of Webster City, Ia., from her husband, Major Lund, assigned to the Thirty-fourth division in France indicates that this division may be assigned as a part of the American army of occupation in Germany Major Lund says that he has been ordered to the occupation army, al though he does not mention the res of the division.

The Thirty-fourth division is composed largely of national guard units from Nebraska and for a long time were stationed at Camp Cody, N. M. Major Lund's letter indicated that at least a part of the division, which has been encamped near Bordeaux since reaching France in September, would be assigned to the army of oc-the past season. Previous to the election of the foot ball captain, the students who gress." responded to the basket ball call issued Monday afternoon, chose class captains and coaches. About 50 were on hand, one-third of whom have played on class teams.

Practice will begin either today or tomorrow. Coach Mulligan intends to keep his squad working during the Christmas vacation. The first game will be played on the home floor about January 10.

The class captains chosen were: Seniors, William Campbell; juniors, Lyton Ayers: sophomores Herman Swoboda; freshmen, William Pender. The class coaches chosen were: Senior, Mr. Bexten; juniors, Mr. Wedeking; sophomores, Mr. Schmidt; freshmen, Mr. McMillan. Class games will be played as curtain raisers to the interscholastic games.

Tendler Beats Hammer.

Philadelphia, Dec. 17.-Lew Tendler, of Philadelphia, gave Ever Hammer, the Chicago light-weight, a bad beating in a six-round bout here last night. In the third round the Philadelphia boxer rained blows on Hammer's stomach and the latter went to the floor. He got on his knees while the referee was counting and claimed he had been struck a foul blow. After an examination by the club doctor the referee ordered the fight resumed and for the remainder of the bout Tendler handled his opponent about as he pleased.

Downey Gets Decision.

Columbus, O., Dec. 17.-Bryan Downey of Columbus, welter-weight won a newspaper decision over Johnny Tillman, of Minneapolis, in a 12-round no decision bout here last night. The majority of the sport writers at the ring side gave Downey seven rounds and called the other five even. In the last round Tillman saved himself from a knock-out by hanging on the ropes taking unlim ited punishment.

WANT PALESTINE FOR HOME LAND

Congress Adopts, Amid Wild Enthusiasm, Declaration for State With Great Britain as Trustee.

Philadelphia, Dec. 17.-The Amercan Jewish congress tonight declared for a Jewish commonwealth in Palestine under the trusteeship of Great Britain, acting on behalf of such a league of nations as may be

The declaration, in the form of a resolution, was adopted amid wild enthusiasm. The 400 delegates representing more than 3,000,000 mem bers of their race in the United States, rose and sang the Hatikvoh, the Jewish anthem expressing the hope that Palestine shall soon be the homeland of the Jews. This Central High Players was followed by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and the waving of American and Jewish flags. A resolution was adopted that member of the 1916 eleven, was the congress shall elect a delechosen captain of the 1919 team at gation of not more than seven members who shall leave as soon as possible for Europe where "in co-operation with the representatives of the Jews of other lands, it shall use its best endeavors to realize the obestablished, in accordance with instructions formulated by this con-

The delegation is instructed to render a report to the congress after its labors in Europe are completed. and the president of the congress is required to summon that body to receive a report of the delegation not later than one year after the treaty of peace shall have been signed and/to transact such other business as may come before it. Then came the adoption of the following resolution:

"That this congress of American Jews requests the peace commis sioners representing the United States of America at the peace corference to use their high and kindly offices to the end that it shall be made a condition precedent to the grant of autonomy, independence or freedom to any nation or land that all inhabitants thereof shall have equal civil, political, religious and national rights without distinction of race or faith, and that such rights shall be guaranteed to them and their descendants in perpetuity." There was much debate over the question of holding an international conference and it was finally decided that the congress shall, as soon as peace is declared, instruct its European delegation to take necessary and effective steps in co-operation with the representatives of lewish bodies in other countries for the convening of a world Jewish con-
