

U. S. AND BRITAIN ONE ON FREE SEA. ASSERTS TIMES

London Daily Sees No Reason
Why Agreement on Moot
Question May Not Be Easily Reached.

London, Dec. 17.—In the course of an article analyzing the American views on the freedom of the seas, the legal correspondent of the Times, after referring to modifications in these views, which, he says, have resulted from the war, continues: "Far from there being any necessary antagonism between the British and American views of the so-called freedom of the seas, there is revealed the possibility of an Anglo-American agreement respecting the main lines of the declaration of maritime rights and duties to be worked out, not at the Paris conference, but at future conferences." Enumerating the points on which he assumes agreement can even be reached, the correspondent goes on: "Both countries will doubtless insist upon restrictions being imposed upon submarine war, while the practice of straining mines in the open sea is condemned both by Great Britain and the United States. They both sought in 1907 to prevent abuses of the practice, but were opposed by Germany. Many questions affecting neutrals may be reviewed with the hope of a reasonable settlement if Great Britain and America take the initiative." The Times in an editorial emphasizes its conclusion that there is an antagonism between the British and American views and it sees no reason why an agreement should not be concluded. In one form or another, it argues, the doctrine of continuous voyage, as developed by England in this war, "latterly with the full consent of the United States," is sure to become part of recognized international law.

Mediation Offer of U. S. is Appreciated by Chile
Washington, Dec. 17.—The department advised today from Santiago, Chile, says that the mediation offer of the United States government, in addition to the Chamber, December 13, is an account of the United States government's offer of its services to aid in settlement of the Tacna-Arica dispute with Peru, referring to the action as friendly, and as entirely appropriate to American diplomacy.

Draft Evader Dies from Hunger Strike in Jail
Chicago, Dec. 17.—As the result of a hunger strike which lasted 16 days, Dan Skedine, an alleged draft evader, is dead. Skedine sought to effect his release from prison by his hunger strike, and efforts of the prison physicians to feed him forcibly were unavailing.
