TO DISTRIBUTE XMAS DINNERS

Sixty Baskets to Be Sent Out Monday and Tuesday: Children Will Receive Candy.

Sixty families will be made happy Christmas day by the basket of good cheer distributed by the South Side Settlement to those who otherwise would not be able to have them.

The baskets will contain dinners composed of chicken, canned vegetables, butter, candy, fruit and nuts. The supplies were donated by friends of the settlement and will be distributed Monday and Tuesday. On account of the influenza the usual Christmas tree and program for the children will not be held this year, but in its place the Cellegiate Alumnae association, who provided the tree in former year, has furnished candy, fruit and stockings for 500 children. Christmas day the children to receive these gifts will pass in the front door and out another in settlement, says that games or toys will be appreciated for use in the settlement. They may be left at the settlement, 2728 Q street.
