Now For The Profiteers

We've made a "clean up" over there, now let's investigate those who have "cleaned up" over here.

We may not live to see the millenium, but there are "those among us" who will not have to wait long now to see their "day of judgment."

With the nation's attention fixed on Europe, shady Americans, who spell "american" with a small "a" and "profit" with a capital "P" have squeezed blood-money out of us because we could not divert our attention from the main issue "over there" to attend to the looters over here.

Now the war is over—and the boys are coming back, flushed with victory—they will be in no humor to trifle with profit grabbers.

The man with bulging pockets will be asked the pointed question, "WHERE DID YOU GET THE MONEY?" and he had better have the right answer.

These boys will come back ready for work—they will want to make up for lost time—and there may not be jobs enough to go around.

That means some won't be able to work all the time, and the aggregate wage will be less than is necessary for the subsistence under present living conditions.

Prices must come down—legitimate merchandising need have no fear, the laborer is worthy of his hire and the trader his rightful profit, but greedy and unscrupulous opportunists are going to have the surprise of their lives.

This applies to the professions as well. "Red tape" and imaginary "reputation" is not going to be figured in future Medical or Dental fees.

The people are coming into their own—and I am glad to be able to say that it has always been my pleasure and privilege to do what I could in my small way towards keeping the prices of good, dependable dentistry within the reach of the family of modest income.
