Cattle-With only a few odd cattle on sale today the market, as usual on Saturday, was nominally steady. Receipts for the week have been very liberal, approximately 46,500 head or fully 1,000 more than were here just week and 17,000 more than were here last week and 17,000 more tian for the third week in December a year ago. Short feds and warmed up steers have made up theb ulk of the of-ferings lately and they have sold very unevenly, although the general trend of values has been nower. While the best dry lot steers, as well as choice range range beeves, have been in good demand market possibly a tritle slow, amos reach-ing a top during the week of $14.50. Most of them sold at $14.00 and $14.35, poorer-kinds down to $13.50. Fat sheep have shown a decline in sympathy with the lambs and are fully 50 cents lower than
