

SAVINGS SHOW LARGE INCREASE, SAYS W. R. ADAIR

Remarkable Figures Disclosed in Records Made by Building and Loan Companies This Year.

The daily transactions of a Loan and Building association, said W. R. Adair, secretary and treasurer of the Omaha Loan and Building association, taken from month to month, are the most reliable barometer of money conditions among the masses.

Figures Are Remarkable.

The figures in regard to the business of our association for the last six months are in some respects quite remarkable. Since July 1 we have gained in assets $692,845.15, while the increase in savings accounts over the corresponding six months of last year reached $171,061.21.

U. S. Troops Complimented By Hohenzollern Prince

German Officer Declares in 32 Years' Experience He Has Never Seen Better Soldiers.

By the Associated Press. With the American Army of Occupation, Dec. 31.—In a talk with an American army officer, Prince Carl of Hohenzollern, lieutenant general and commander of the Thirty-Eighth Landwehr brigade, who now is living in the area occupied by the Americans, said that in all his 32 years experience in the army he never had seen anywhere soldiers of better discipline or who behaved better than the Americans.

Lusitania and expressed surprise when told that celebrations were reported to have taken place in Germany and medals awarded to the submarine crew when the big Cunard liner was sunk.

REAL WINTER AT START OF NEW YEAR IN STATE

Mercury Drops and Snowfall Ceases; Live Stock Does Not Suffer Because of Storm.

The new year started with a real winter morning and when Omahans awoke it was to discover that the mercury during the night had chased itself to a below zero.

Another remarkable thing was that nowhere was it extremely cold. The minimum was 10 degrees below and that was down along the Missouri river valley in Otoe and Nemaha counties.

Warmer in West.

In the extreme west the weather was warmer than Tuesday morning. At Bridgeport it was 2 below, whereas 24 hours previous it was 10 below.

Passenger trains are running on, or close to the schedules. Snow plows were run over some of the lines, more as a precautionary than as a necessary measure.
