HEDYLER FAVORS ONE-MAN RULE IN BASEBALL WORLD

Selection of New Commission Most Important Question at Joint Meeting of League Heads.

Chicago, Jan. 2.-After a confer ence with stockholders of the Chicago club, John A. Heydler, president of the National League, departed tonight for French Lick, Ind., where tomorrow he will join Barney Dreyfus, president of the Pittsburgh club, and President Ban Johnson of the American league in drawing up schedules for the coming season. The schedules will be adopted at the joint meeting of the major leagues in New York January 16.

President Heydler does not expect any opposition to the proposed 140 game schedules, although he revealed that the Chicago club was by a mail vote to 140 games.

will be the most important question to be considered at the joint meeting is the formation of a new national baseball commission. He said the National league would first suggest the appointment of a "one man"

"If this cannot be accomplished, shall vote for a three-man commission the chairman of which shall have no connection with base ball, that the National league does not Herrmann, the present chairman."

The National league executive made an attempt to see "Hank' O'Day, the veteran umpire, to sign him to a 1919 contract, but it was later learned that O'Day had left for the south

Five Giants Given in Trade for Hard-Hitting Catcher
