Omaha, January 8, 1919.

Receipts of grain today totaled 161 cars, of which 112 cars were corn, 16 cars wheat, 25 cars oats, two cars rye and six wheat, 25 cars cats, two cars rye and six cars barley.

Corn sold fairly well at prices ranging from unchanged to 1 cent up. The yellow and mixed offerings brought about yesterday's figures, while the white showed the advance.

Outs were ½ to ½ cent higher. Barley advanced 1 cent. Rye was unchanged. There was hardly enough wheat to make a market. Prices were unchanged to 5 cents up, the choice hard grades bringing the advance, yesterday's loss

Chicago Grain and Provisions. Chicago, Jan. S.—Fresh advances in the corn market took place today owing to explicit denials that imports of corn from explicit denials that imports of corn from Argentina would be authorized. The market closed unsettled, 14 to 11%c net higher, with January $1.48 to $1.48% and May $1.41% to $1.41%. Oats finished 16 off to a like advance, and provisions varying from 30c decline to a rise of 7 cents. As soon as trading began, corn immediately went to the highest prices yet this season. Advices overnight had removed all doubt that competition from Argentina would remain under a ban. On the buige, however, sales to realize Argentina would remain under a bank.
On the bulge, however, sales to realize profits were of liberal proportions, and there was also a disposition evinced to Nevada Copper...
