

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you.

In the solidarity of human life, neither in its direct result nor in the contagion of its inspiration, can any action be indifferent; each affects the whole life for good or evil and it is for us to see that the result is good.

beef, which is a much better quality of meat than that which has been raised on grass. The range stock is said to have been practically exhausted, and the corn-fed meat will be found exclusively on the market the remainder of the winter.

Kitchenette Breakfasts

Since kitchenette cooking suggests a busy life, the morning meal is probably a triumph of haste. In fact, it may be such a triumph of haste, especially with women, that it ceases to exist at all.

Co-Operation

Miss Gross will be very glad to receive suggestions for the home economics column. This is answered, as far as she is able, any questions that her readers may ask.

Here is a charming blouse made in the newest way of sprightly blue or rose checked organdy with a white collar plaited and stitched in color.

A Good Breakfast. What is the right food for the morning meal? Something hot is taken for granted.

Some breadstuff is necessary for breakfast; but the hot breads are taboo for kitchenettes because of time of preparation.

Fruit for Breakfast. I am now about to make a startling statement. I suppose no ideal breakfast is possible without fresh or cooked fruit.

Standardized Breakfast. If you do not demand too much variety, you will find a standardized breakfast a wonderful saving of time and energy.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The first of a series of industrial talks for club leaders and the extension committee of the Y. W. C. A. will be given Saturday afternoon, January 12, at 4 o'clock.

Among the occupations for which the British government is preparing to train war widows are dressmaking of all kinds, the higher branches of laundry work, piano-making, general nursing, instructresses in swimming and gymnastics in day and boarding schools.

The Countess Markievicz, the only woman who won a seat in the British parliament in the recent election, is an Irish girl who married an Austrian of title.

When shipments from the south of spring beets, carrots, turnips and radishes are resumed to the Omaha market prices will advance about two cents a bunch on these commodities.

Because of a backset to the crops by the recent cold weather, and the irregularity of the train service, shipments from the southern market have been more or less demoralized.

The advance in the price of green goods from the south is said to be due also to the increase of express rates, which became operative Wednesday.

Due to the killing frost in California recently, oranges have advanced from $1 to $1.50 a box. The frost is reported to have killed 10 per cent of the orange crop in that state at the present time, an egg is a good

Ginger Bread

1/2 c. sugar, 2/3 c. flour, 2 eggs, 1 t. ginger, 1 t. molasses, 1/2 t. cinnamon, 1/4 c. shortening, 1 t. soda dissolved in 1 c. hot water.

Cream sugar and shortening; add molasses and eggs and mix well. Add flour and spices, then soda in water.

The recent November election, at which Michigan, Oklahoma and South Dakota enfranchised their women, resulted in the addition of 1,500,000 women of voting age to the electorate of the United States.
