Pershing Expects Mail Service Will Improve

Washington, Jan. 13.—General Pershing in a communication transmitted by Secretary Baker today to Senator Shafroth of Colorado, said he expected an improvement in the delivery of mail to the troops abroad. Considering the comparatively short time the military postal service has been in operation and the difficulties under which it operated with troops in the field constantly, the general said he believed a creditable record had been established.

Secretary Baker wrote that an investigation showed that twelve days usually were consumed in the transmission of mail from the United States to France.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently broves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Figs Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; this poses of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Adv.

Vision Told Him of His Nephew's Death, Later Corroborated by the Navy

John Teilborg Says Vision of Dying Boy Appears Before Him Each Time He Prays.

"The boy appeared so distinctly in my vision that I thought he was standing just within my reach. I could see the huge outline of a battleship. The smoke of battle hung over her deck swarmed with fighting men. I saw a burly individual with a bandaged head attack my nephew and plunge a bayonet deep into his heart. He fell dead and the vision faded out."

This is how John Teilborg, 3227 Franklin street, describes the recurring vision of the death of his nephew which he always sees when praying.

The boy to whom Mr. Teilborg refers is James Teilborg, Colorado Springs, Colo. He had enlisted in the navy about two years ago, and with his ship had touched at nearly every far-eastern port in the world.

LARGE SUMS DUE FROM PATIENTS ARE COLLECTED

Relatives of Inmates of Nebraska Institutions Required to Reimburse State for Their Support.

Early in 1917 attention was called through this paper to the fact that no effort was being made to collect the maintenance charge for patients in the three state insane institutions from relatives who are amply able to pay that charge according to law and required to do so unless they make affidavit to their inability to do so.

O. E. Mayfield was appointed to the board of control about that time, and he sent out letters to the various institutions asking for a statement of the amount of money due the state from this source. It was found that there was over $100,000 on which no effort was being made to collect.

How well Raymond Hitchcock stands in the esteem of the high lights and producing field of the theater may be measured by the organization of the new firm of A. L. Erlanger, Charles Dillingham and Florence Zigfeld to handle the "Hitchy-Koo 1918" show. The agent calls the annual appearance of Hitchcock in "Hitchy-Koo" a "national necessity," a "fatherly" bold description, but as the Zigfelds have laid claim to being a "national institution" without argument, it is not so far afield for the bright and jovial Hitchcock to mingle to assume an honoring title of this meaning.

SPLIT IMPENDS AT MEETING OF BASE BALL MEN

Minor League Magnates Will Demand Relief From Draft Regulations of Majors.

New York, Jan. 13.—Minor league club owners and managers are expected to make a determined effort to obtain relief from the present draft regulations at a series of base ball meetings which will begin here tomorrow, according to statements by officials arriving today.

Several informal conferences were held this afternoon, at which the matter was discussed from every angle, and it was the general opinion that a new agreement must be reached with the major leagues, if the minors are to share in the base ball prosperity of the future.

The draft and optional rules between the two divisions of organized base ball, will be discussed at two meetings tomorrow, which will usher in the most important week of base ball conferences in many years. The new International league will convene in the forenoon, and after a short session adjourn to attend a later joint session with the National Association of Professional Base Ball Association.

Tinker On Committee.

"Joe" Tinker, who is a member of the new league committee, which is trying to procure reforms from the major leagues, was insistent that the draft must be lifted.

"Heretofore, the minor leagues have asked, and when they have been turned down, they took it gracefully," said Tinker. "This time we will ask, and if the request is refused to discuss the situation."

Tinker intimated that the National Association of Minor Leagues would break from the major leagues if the request for emancipation from the draft is turned down. He admitted, however, that the major leagues have shown a conciliatory attitude to the minor leagues. He said the national committee agreed to limit the number of players that could be drafted to one from each minor league club, and also expressed a willingness to reduce the number of players a big league club could let out under optional agreement from one to two.

The major league magnates who were among the early arrivals at the meeting, were more than ready to say that the matter would be given careful study and that minor leaguers would have an opportunity to exploit their alleged grievances when they present their case to a joint committee composed of National and American league representatives and the national commission. This conference probably will be held on Friday.

Another meeting was added to the already long schedule of sessions today, when Secretary-Treasurer McCreedy of the Base Ball Writers' association issued a call for the annual meeting of that organization and set the date for next Thursday.

Wife Pleads Defense of Child for Murder of "Emperor of Sahara"

Mineola, N. Y., Jan. 13.—A mother's determination to protect her 15-year-old daughter from an "insane" father, was declared here today by counsel for Mrs. Jacques LeBaudy, now in jail, to be the reason she killed her husband, the millionaire "emperor of Sahara," in their home at Westbury, L. I., last Saturday night.

The lawyer, Harry W. Moore, said Mrs. LeBaudy had told him that her husband had tired of her and had threatened the happiness of Jacqueline, their daughter. To protect herself and the girl, the widow said, she had heavy chain locks placed on the doors of her own and her daughter's rooms.

LeBaudy had made repeated threats to kill her, she told the attorney, because she refused to consent to his attentions to their daughter, which he told her were "customary in some oriental countries."

Twice during the week prior to the shooting LeBaudy had tried to kill her with a hunting knife, she said. On the day of the tragedy, the "emperor" telephoned her from New York City that he was coming home to "finish" her. When he arrived, he created a great commotion downstairs, opened all the windows and emptied blazing coals from the fireplace upon the lawn. Later LeBaudy, who was armed, came upstairs and attacked her, and in the struggle which followed she shot him and "he fell dead at the foot of the stairs."

"There were no eye-witnesses of the occurrence," said Attorney Moore, "but plenty of evidence as to LeBaudy's intentions to both his wife and daughter."

COURT UPHOLDS BUTTER FIRM IN SELLING STOCK

Sustains Demurrer in Case Brought by Railway Commission Against Alfalfa People.

A demurrer filed by the Alfalfa Butter company was sustained by Judge Estelle in the district court yesterday in the case wherein the Nebraska State Railway commission brought suit restraining them from selling stock under the Nebraska blue-sky law. The Alfalfa Butter company contended that the State Railway commission have no jurisdiction in the matter of business more than one year when offering stock for sale, in which Judge Estelle concurred in rendering his decision.

W. W. Richardson, president of the Alfalfa Butter company said that two similar suits brought by the railway commission within the last 60 days have also been ruled out by Judge Day, which, with Judge Estelle's ruling yesterday, in his opinion should have the attempted litigation of the railway commission for a time at least.

"Our company was incorporated in October, 1915," said Mr. Richardson, "and has been in business more than three years, doing a business in 1918 exceeding $1,500,000, and manufacturing over 3,000,000 pounds of butter. We employ in our Omaha branch, and our factories at Sioux City, Kansas City, Hastings and Norfolk, more than 100 people, and our business from the beginning has been handled in a profitable way, paying 7 1/2 per cent dividends, and accumulating a substantial surplus, and there is not now, nor has there been any disposition to violate any state law or regulation, nor have we done so, which we claim is substantiated by Judge Estelle's ruling. I will say further we have placed our stock at less than one-half of the common value, and the most serious concern has that we have obtained their permit through the State Railway commission."

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair rises quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

E. Ford, 214 Lonsdale Avenue, Pawtucket, R. I.

Thousands of mothers say they keep their children well and strong and build them up after colds and coughs by giving them Father John's Medicine, which is pure and wholesome and guaranteed free from alcohol or dangerous drugs.

RICHARD OLDHAM TRAVELS 25 MILES FOR MORE TANLAC FOR MORE TANLAC

Farmer Finds Relief After Suffering Twenty-Five Long Years; Says It's Wonderful.

"For twenty-five years I have been looking for something to relieve my troubles, and I believe I have found it at last in Tanlac," said Richard Oldham, R. F. D. No. 1, Platte City, Mo., recently. Mr. Oldham, known familiarly to his friends as "Dick" Oldham, is a prosperous farmer who has lived in his community for fifty years and is highly respected by all who know him.

"Yes, sir, I would not wish to be Tanlac," continued Mr. Oldham, "that I have come all the way from Platte City, a distance of twenty-five miles, to get me another bottle of this wonderful medicine. All these years I suffered terribly with indigestion in its worse form, and my stomach was in an awful condition. Just as soon as I would eat anything I would bloat up so with gas, and I would have to let out my belt a few inches, and there was such a tightness in my chest that I could hardly get my breath. Why, at times even a drink of cold water would seem to set me on fire inside, and often I would turn so faint and weak that I could hardly do a thing. Sometimes my appetite would seem to be normal, then it would go back on me, and I would get for two or three days without eating a thing. I just felt miserable all the time and although I tried everything I could hear of I would only get a little temporary relief."

"I have been reading quite a lot about Tanlac in the papers but couldn't make up my mind to try it till one day I saw a statement made by a man in Kansas City who I knew. It would be reliable, I have taken only three bottles so far, and considering the nature of my trouble, and the many years I have suffered the way I have improved is just simply wonderful. My appetite is just fine and I am not troubled now with indigestion like I was before, and I am getting better right along every day. The way it is with me, if a medicine will help me, I would say so, and if it did me good I think it is entitled to the credit, and that is why I say what I do about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative, also Forest and Meany Drug Company in Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.
