

ASK HITCHCOCK TO CHANGE FRONT TO AID SUFFRAGE

Even Own Party Men Join in Senator Baiting and Call Nebraska Senator to Time.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Lincoln, Jan. 15.—(Special).—S. F. No. 4, memorializing the United States senate to pass the amendment allowing the ballot to women and to submit it to the states for ratification, and requesting Senator G. M. Hitchcock to vote for suffrage passed the upper branch of the legislature here today without even a dissenting vote.

Thirty-two senators, including three democrats, voted in favor of the measure. Senator Hall was absent. Senators Tanner, Taylor and Chapel, the democrats in the upper branch, all fell in line. After the bill had been brought out from the committee and hurriedly advanced to third reading, Mr. Taylor said it afforded him great pleasure to demonstrate that he was loyal to a principle in preference to loyalty to a party. Accordingly he said he would vote for the bill.

The bill now goes to the house, where it is certain of passage.

Suggests New Committee.
Three additional committees were selected by the senate today upon the recommendation of Chairman Hoagland of the committee on committees. One committee, on fees and claims, was suggested by Lieutenant Governor P. A. Beardsley.

The civil administration code committee, in charge of the bill incorporating Governor McKelvie's plans for the rearrangement of the state government includes C. P. Peterson as chairman, Cordell, Reed, Saunders, Bushee, Ainlay, Hall, Cronin and Rankin. Upon motion of Chairman Peterson, the committee was allowed a stenographer. The principal work will come in reading the bill, which is 408 pages long.

The committee on fees and salaries named includes Senator J. W. Hammond as chairman, Cooper, Good, Erickson and Taylor.

A third committee, including Peterson as chairman, Bushee and Reed, will represent the senate on a joint senate and house committee to act in an advisory capacity during the legislative session.

To Print Bills Daily.
The senate arranged for printing 200 copies of the bills daily and distributing them to members of the house and senate, to the officers and to the press.

The secretary read a letter from Assistant Adjutant General Herman Gross of the Nebraska G. A. R. thanking the senate for the resolutions adopted in memory of Civil War soldiers.

The senate adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock Thursday.
