

JAZZ NIGHT AT COMMERCIAL LEAGUE GAMES

Nakens Secure High Powered Basket Shooters; Beddeos Will Give Team Moral Support.

Real class is being shown by the Commercial Basketball League and tonight's program on the Y. M. C. A. floor promises to be the "spiciest" exhibition of basket tossing seen on the local floors this season. New faces will appear in the lineup and the jazziest jazz band obtainable will put pep in the players.

Elmer Beddeos and his sales force have been practicing the past week and promise to give the storekeeper team the moral support necessary to take the measure of the fast Commercial high team and get a firm grip on second place.

In addition to the organized "noting," they have secured a company of jazz artists to furnish music. The school boys have not lost a game this season and are confident they will not be "boxed" by jazz night.

The Nakens are making every effort to cop the league hunting and will present a new lineup after tonight's game with the Sixty-second basketballists from Ft. Omaha. Bromley, star of last season, will secure his release from the Central Furniture squad and Holmquist, a former Ames, Ia., shark, are expected to strengthen the team. Holmquist has been playing on a service quintet in California and is said to be a wonder.

Several Naken basket shooters will play with Central high in Council Bluffs and the entire lineup has been changed for tonight's game. Paynter and Shanahan will be forwards, Holmquist center, and Beacom and Dennis guards. The Nakens have signed up for games with a number of out-of-town teams according to their manager, N. W. Naken, who has secured new suits for their trip. The schedule includes games with Yankton, S. D., Saturday; Armstrong Clothing company, Lincoln, the following Saturday; and later dates with Cheyenne, Wyo., Hastings, St. Joseph and Sioux City.

Fort Omaha and the Central Furniture company should play a close and interesting game. The teams are evenly matched and have both played a good brand of ball all season.

Plan Mury Tennis Tourney for Recreation Centers

Tennis will be one of the sports to take a big boom during the summer if the plans of J. J. Isaacson, Omaha recreation director, are followed. He hopes to stage a big municipal tennis tournament in which the various recreation centers and others will participate.

With the establishment of municipal courts for the past two years many new players have been developed and it is expected that old players will return. Lack of courts proved a big handicap to sport before the establishment of municipal playing grounds.

Murray Will Box Jones in St. Joseph Semi-Final

Paul Murray, Wednesday, signed up to box a six-round semi-final bout with "Gorilla" Jones of Memphis in St. Joseph, January 22. The bout will be in connection with the Jeff Clarke-Thompson fight. Murray has kept in tip-top shape since returning from Fort Sill, Okla. where he was an instructor in the army, and says he can travel a fast six rounds. He is experiencing considerable trouble in securing sparring partners, and is anxious to have a few heavy men work out with him at his training quarters near Twenty-fourth and Lake streets.

FLASHES from FILMLAND PHOTO-PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

RUTH ROLAND, the other famous Pathe Serial Star, has just been signed up by that firm to do a new fifteen episode serial entitled, "The Long Arm." The new serial is by Arthur Reeve, author of the "Craig Kennedy" stories and Charles Augustus Logue. Its story concerns three adventurers who steal a tiger idol from a tribe of East Indian natives and the "Long Arm of Vegeance," which pursues one of their number to every portion of the globe where he attempts to hide. Miss Roland, as the heroine, will have what is declared to be the best role of her screen career.

Mary Thumman, one of Mack Sennett's beauties, will play an important role in support of Bryant Washburn in a coming Paramount picture.

Richard Barthelmess, who has supported Marguerite Clark in so many Paramount pictures, will hereafter play opposite Dorothy Gish.

Dorothy Gish, Paramount star, and her director, Elmer Clifton, who were recently stricken with the "flu," are back at the studios again at work on "Boots."

Anita Stewart in "Virtuous Wives" has proved such a success at the Rialto this week that Mgr. H. M. Thomas has decided that the play will be held for the remainder of the week. The story of the play is from "Owen Johnson's" novel of the same title and takes up the problem of whether or not there is such a thing as a universal standard of virtue. The action of the play tells of a young man who leaves his wife in New York to be amused by the idle rich young society men while he goes into Colorado to make a fortune. She is the center of much attention and the problem of just where virtue ceases is the one of the play. Miss Stewart has as her associates in the cast such actors as

DIAMOND STARS FACE BIG CUT IN THEIR SALARIES

New York, Jan. 15.—National league base ball players will receive an unpleasant surprise with their 1914 contracts as a result of the magnates' action today in adopting a club salary limit of not more than $11,000 per month. This is the most radical financial retrenchment attempted by a major league in many years and will prove a startling upset to those diamond stars who have expected a continuation of the high salaries and long-time contracts of pre-war days.

Under the new regulation, which was adopted by a vote of six to two, the maximum monthly salary limit during the playing season must not exceed $11,000 plus the manager's salary. This will make the seasonal payroll foot up approximately $60,000 for a playing period of about five and a half months. With a club roster of 22 players.

Spring Practice Restricted.

The Nationals readopted the rule barring the beginning of spring practice earlier than 30 days before the opening of the season. This will permit the clubs to operate after March 23, and President Hedler state that since this date falls on Sunday he would consider the presence of the players in camp on the previous Saturday within the letter of the rule. Sending pitchers to "boiling out" camps at the expense of the clubs previous to this date also will be considered a violation.

Minors Decide on Policy.

About 30 representatives of 10 minor base ball leagues, all members of the National association, held a protracted session. They discussed proposed changes in the national agreement which will be presented to the joint meeting of the National and American leagues tomorrow, with a request that a reply be given them by the big leagues by 6 o'clock next Friday evening.

The principal change recommended for the present draft rule is the formation of a new governing board on which the two major leagues and the National association would have equal representation. The board would settle all disputes or complaints involving major and minor leagues only.

The minors' proposition regarding the draft rule is that major league clubs may arbitrarily purchase one player from each club in class AA for $7,500 between November 1 and 10. In case the player is not retained for the entire season he is to be resold (outright title) to the club from which he was purchased for $2,500 and in the event the club waives priority, he is to be offered to all the clubs in the same classification for $1,000, except the club that sold him.

WOULD HAVE U. S. OWN AND RUN PUBLIC UTILITIES

Broad Peace Reconstruction Program Proposed in Report of Labor Federation Committee.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Federal ownership, operation or regulation of public and semi-public utilities was recommended in the report of the committee on reconstruction of the American Federation of Labor, made public today after its approval by the federation's executive council. Government ownership of all wharves and docks; federal legislation to prevent child labor, and equality in pay for men and women workers also were urged.

Nonpartisan Policy.

The committee opposed the formation of a labor political party on the ground that the "disastrous experience of organized labor in America with political parties of its own amply justified the American Federation of Labor's nonpartisan political policy."

Other recommendations by the committee were: Legislation making interference with the rights of employees to organize or any attempt to interfere with the legitimate activities of trade unions a criminal offense.

The right of labor to fix its hours of work. Maximum working day of eight hours with overtime prohibited except under extraordinary majorities, and the week's working time limited to five and one-half days.

Right to Organize.

Limitation of tasks of working women to those which they are physically capable of performing.

No limitation on the rights of public employees to organize.

Provision for a referendum on acts of congress or state legislatures held unconstitutional by the supreme court.

Legislation for state and federal governments to own and operate water power projects, the power to be furnished to the people at cost.

Americans Will Discover Art Pays, Says Baumgard

A plea for the establishment of civic and communal art centers in Omaha was made by B. R. Baumgard, noted California educator and speaker, before a representative audience of 300 Omaha art lovers at the Fontenelle hotel Wednesday afternoon.

America's attitude toward art in the past could be summed up in these words: "Will it pay," said Mr. Baumgard.

"But even when looked at from this materialistic point of view there were good reasons why art should be encouraged," maintained the speaker. "Paris, before the war, derived an annual income of $250,000,000 from the lovers of the beautiful who flocked to see it."

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervy wrecks," "run-downs," "brilliant fags," and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-checked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation.—Adv.
