SPANISH INFLUENZA MORE DEADLY

Said That Epidemic Cost More Lives Than American Loss in Battle, Danger Not Over, Great Care Necessary to Prevent Further Outbreak.

The appalling ravages of Spanish In-fluouse in this country are perhaps be: realised by the statement recently man-that more deaths have resulted in little more than a month from this disease they through our whole eighteen months per-ticipation in the battles of the European War.

Our greatest danger now, declare gu-thorities, is the great American tendency to forget easily and to believe the peril is over. Competent authorities claim the coming of cold weather is very and to bring a return of this disease and there should be no let-up throughout the win-ter months of the following easily ob-served precautions, remembering that In-fluence is far easier to prevent them care. Influence is a crowd disease. Avoid

High school, who desires to attend the Omaha university and consists of a loan of $200, payable at the beginning of each semester in eight equal payments upon receipt of statements of creditable work and conduct for the preceding somester. There is also available the Anna Reavis musical scholarship to a student who desires to pursue a course in music for the purpose of carning a livelihood, and not merely for selfculture. This scholarship consists of a loan of $200. A scholarship of 52 weeks' tuition with an opportunity to work for room and board is offered by State Superintendent and Mrs. Clemmons at the Fremont Normal school. All applications should be accompanied by letters of credentials from a superintendent or teacher of the school last attended; a physician stating good condition of health; a ousiness man, preferably a banker; minister of the church last attended. Except in cases where the student desires to pursue some form of vocational work that will aid in war conditions, all applications for work at the state university should be for students prepared to enter the junior In order to receive proper consideration, each application must be eccompanied by a letter of recom-

nrendation from a woman's club which belongs to the state federation, and must be signed by the president and recording secretary of the club making the recom-mendation. In order to receive attention in time to attend at the beginning of the second semester, applications should be sent at once with all the above data, and should be mailed to Mrs. James C. Dahlman, secretary, 2901 Hickory street, Omaha. The trustees and advisory committee will meet in the near future to pass upon these applications, at which time a new member of the trustees, and the state president of the federation will also be present.
