GRAIN MARKET

Total grain receipts today were 462 cars of which 156 cars were corn as compared to 540 cars of this coreal last Monday and 156 cars a year ago. Wheat arrivals today's quiet and professional session, the general large of the grain of the morning begins of the grain of the grain of the final dealings.

Corn prices dropped from 2 to 2 cents. Corn prices dropped from 3 to 2 cents. Large receipts and lower option figures were the main factors. Offerings were grain of the close of the main factors. Offerings were fished receipts that the government intended to advance freight rates, with the bulk at the extreme decline. Rye prices were nominally 8 to 8 cents off and barioy 2 to 2 cents lower. Wheat prices were apparently holding off and waiting for the Food Administrator's announcement as to release of supplies.
