

MRS. RIGGS WILL RECEIVE $65,000 FROM HUSBAND

Divorce Action Settled Without Contest; Wife Charges
That Hubby Showed No
Love or Affection.

The divorce case of Nellie A. Riggs and Elwood Riggs has been settled without a contest, the wife being allowed $65,000 in full settlement and an absolute decree of divorce.

The expected court review of this distressful domestic tangle will not be heard. Mrs. Riggs and her lawyers appeared before Judge Day yesterday afternoon and presented a property-settlement contract which had been entered into by Mr. and Mrs. Riggs, and the court thereupon signed the decree in favor of the wife. Mr. Riggs did not appear, but was represented by counsel.

Mrs. Riggs is to receive $15,000 worth of Liberty bonds this week, $10,000 in cash on or before July 20, 1920, and $40,000 in cash on or before July 20, 1922, with interest at 6 per cent. The decree of Judge Day carries with it the text of the contract signed by Mr. and Mrs. Riggs. One of the statements in the decree is that "Sundry and irreconcilable differences exist."

N. D. Woods' Case Mere Formality; His Discharge Agreed To

Hearing of charges against Patrolman N. D. Woods in connection with his alleged remarks to Rev. Father Jeremiah Roach of Peoria, Ill., arrested here January 7, it is said will be purely formal as it is declared a majority of the city commissioners have already decided he should be discharged.

Woods is charged with upbraiding Father Roach in his cell with the fact that a clergyman should disgrace the "cloth" by becoming intoxicated, when, as a matter of fact the accused was suffering from paralysis.

LINCOLN MAN HAS GAINED 20 POUNDS BY TAKING TANLAC

Had Rheumatism So Bad He Couldn't Raise His Hand to Head—Troubles Overcome.

"I have actually gained 20 pounds since I began taking Tanlac and feel as well today as I ever did," said W. H. King, a well-known machinist, who lives at 1821 O street, Lincoln, the other day.

"For five years" he continued "my stomach was in such awful condition that I hardly ever had a well day. I would be perfectly miserable for two or three hours after each meal on account of the gas formed. No matter how little I ate or how light my food was, it would lie in my stomach like a piece of lead. My kidneys gave me a lot of trouble, too, for they seemed to be out of order most of the time. I also suffered agonies from rheumatism in my right arm and half of the time I was not able to raise my hand as high as my head or get on my coat without help. In fact, I got so badly 'stove up' that my wife had to help me put my clothes on all the time. While in this condition I had a bad spell of pneumonia which almost finished me. I went down in weight from 165 to 130 pounds and had to give up work altogether."

"I had come to the conclusion that I would never be well again, but I began taking Tanlac not long ago and things are different with me now. It beats any medicine I ever heard of for building a man up. Why, before I had taken half of my first bottle my appetite began to come back and it just looked like every dose I took would make me eat that much more. I know my stomach must be all right now, because everything I eat agrees with me perfectly and I am not bothered with gas forming after my meals. I guess I am free from that rheumatism, too, for I haven't had a sign of it for some time. I can use my arm all right and can dress and undress myself as well as I ever could, and it is simply astonishing the way I am gaining in weight. In fact, I can truthfully say that Tanlac has about taken all the kinks out of me. I am 60 years old, but I feel much younger than that, and I am back at work again and glad to endorse Tanlac to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug company's stores. Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. ## TO DOFF GLOVES OF MODESTY IN VICE PROBLEMS

Mrs. Alice Minick Tells
Women They Must Handle
Social Evil Barehanded; to Raise Money.

Calling upon members of Douglas county W. C. T. U. "to doff the gloves of modesty and attack barehanded the social evil," Mrs. Alice Minick, pioneer temperance advocate, Tuesday afternoon took the initial step in a proposed statewide movement to eradicate vice conditions.

Two thousand dollars will be raised in Douglas county March 20-May 31, to carry on the work, according to resolutions passed by the county executive committee yesterday at the Y. W. C. A. The state quota is $25,000.

Calls on Young People.
"After 60 years of effort, I shall not live to see the victory, but I call on you younger women to buckle to the work until the battle is won," declared Mrs. Minick, after an impassioned appeal.

"It makes me shiver and turn cold when I think of the dangers confronting the American people. None of us are safe while a double standard of morality prevails," she exclaimed. "How can children be normal if their fathers are not pure? It cannot be eradicated by license; only prohibition with a severe enough penalty."

"This evil is more deplorable than the liquor traffic. Let there be no compromise with it. The guilty ones should be treated as criminals."

Mrs. Minick's Appeal.
Mrs. Minick's remarks were strongly seconded by Dr. Jennie Callias.

"We women should be proud to enter into this necessary work. After we have stood our ground so long, we are not going to be prudent enough to stop now. We're not afraid nor too hesitant to do the things which must be done."

Mrs. H. G. Claggett, chairman, urged the women to stand behind the government in the two methods it has chosen to fight the evil, forced treatment of diseased persons and education in the schools.

"Let's come closer home. Let's stand behind the city health department," urged Dr. Jennie Callias.

Appoint Committee.
Mrs. W. T. Graham moved the resolutions be adopted and copies sent to government officials and the city health department.

A committee including Mrs. Graham, Dr. Callias, Mrs. H. N. Craig, Mrs. Minick and Mrs. George W. Covell was named to be ready to act whenever action is necessary. The committee will confer with Richard T. Leader, government investigator.

Mrs. Claggett read reports of government action in suppressing vice and quoted encouraging figures on the result, tending to show conditions much better in Pershing's army than any other army that had been mustered.

Pershing's Way.
"Abolition, not regulation of the social evil was Pershing's way of fighting it. If it worked so well in the army, I think it is the best method for civil life too," said Mrs. Claggett.

"If the war has done nothing else, it has helped us in showing a way to fight this evil," Mrs. William C. Bentz, also a member of the Omaha Woman's club, the president of which declared herself opposed to the discussion of the vice evil in the club, said younger women refuse to be interested or come to lectures on the social evil.

Mrs. Minick refuted her statement by the instance that 20 years ago, she had delivered such a lecture to young women in Wesleyan university.

The paper was sent to Clarke G. Powell, manager of Omaha's fourteenth annual automobile show March 10 to 15, by Tom Craig, formerly connected with the Powell supply company, and now in the naval action service.

Brillhart Hints "Infatuation for Lodges" in Petition

Jesse T. Brillhart, well known socialist leader, and one time candidate for city commissioner, filed suit yesterday against his wife, Martha C. Brillhart, for divorce, alleging that her infatuation for secret societies led her to completely neglect her home. The plaintiff avers that his wife refuses to cook for him, making it necessary for him to prepare his own meals, and that he has to care for the house. His wife, he infers, no longer loves him and he desires a severance of the marital relationship. The Brillharts were married in Carrollton, Mo., in 1901.

Judge Dismisses Action Against Officers of D. of H.

Judge Day dismissed an action brought by Lewis Pixley against Mayme Hedrick Cleaver, grand chief of honor, and other officers of the state grand lodge of the Degree of Honor.

The court held that the plaintiff had no cause for action in his allegations that these grand lodge officers were expending funds against the rules of the order.
