

BOTH PARENTS DIE OF PLAGUE IN FIVE DAYS

Little Thomas O'Donnell Now All Alone Save for His Grandparents and Aunts.

Little one-year-old Thomas O'Donnell now is father and motherless, the lone survivor of a family, bright and happy, just five days ago.

On January 16 his daddy, William O'Donnell, 3002 Vinton street, suddenly took sick of pneumonia. He died the same day, Tuesday the same sickness called Mr. O'Donnell's young wife and her little infant, to whom she had just given birth, away from little Thomas. He is now all alone in the world, save for his grandparents and aunts.

Uncle Sam Pocketing Heavy Losses in Sale of Army Live Stock

Camp Funston, Kan., Jan. 22.—Wider interest was manifested today in the horse and mule sale being conducted periodically at the remount depot of the camp, buyers having come in greater numbers and from greater distances. Prices brought by animals sold, however, were lower than at the sale two weeks ago.

Dayton, O., Jan. 22.—Frank Banks, an Australian airplane pilot, while instructing a student at the McCook field here today, was killed when their machine fell.

Fear That Soldier's Wife Fell Victim to Foul Play

Mrs. Mabel Stevenson, St. Joseph, Mo., on Visit Here Is Missing Since Wednesday Night; Believed to Be in Company of Soldiers.

The police have been asked to assist in a search for Mrs. Mabel Stevenson, 19, who disappeared Tuesday from the home of her sister, Mrs. Ethel Armstrong, 1712 Clark street, following the mysterious visit of two strange men wearing uniforms of soldiers. It is feared the girl has met with foul play.

She was seen last by members of the household between 5 and 6 p. m. "I think I shall walk out for a short while," she remarked to her sister, and put on her coat and hat. When she failed to return at a late hour, the police were asked to assist in finding her. No trace had been found of the missing girl at noon today, though the search, which lasted all night, was not abandoned.

Met Men On Train.

Mrs. Stevenson arrived in Omaha Sunday from her home in St. Joseph, Mo. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Armstrong. Their husbands are in France, and on the train they met two men they thought were soldiers. They took Mrs. Armstrong's address, saying they would call later. When the two men appeared at the house in the afternoon the women were not at home. A neighbor offered to take a message for them, thinking they were friends of the women's husbands. They refused to leave any word or reveal their identity.

Whether or not the visit of the two strange men is connected with the disappearance of Mrs. Stevenson, members of the family are at a loss to understand.

Oregon Legislators With Fever Must Leave House

Salem, Ore., Jan. 22.—From today until all danger from the present influenza epidemic has passed, members of the Oregon legislature whose temperatures are above normal must leave the state house immediately that body resolved yesterday. Official clinical thermometers for taking the legislators' temperatures have been provided.

Petition to the Secretary of War to Send Soldiers Home With Six Months' Pay

Sign this petition, get your friends to sign it and forward it to The Omaha Bee.

To the Hon. Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War:

The undersigned respectfully urge you to return to their homes as soon as possible the soldiers who have accomplished so brilliantly every object America had in the war.

We urge, also, that you obtain the necessary authority to pay these men their military wages for six months, or for some sufficient period after their discharge from the army until they can obtain useful and remunerative employment.

We urge this as an act of simple justice by a great nation to its heroes.

(Signed)

ADAMS PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO MURDER CHARGE

Said to Be Sixth Man in Malashock Diamond Theft and Murder of Detective Rooney.

Frank Adams, alias Appleby, pleaded not guilty in police court yesterday to the charge of murdering Detective Frank Rooney, police officer, shot and mortally wounded in a gun battle January 30, 1918, with five bandits who had held up and robbed the Malashock jewelry store five hours before.

Final preliminary hearing for Adams was set for Thursday by Judge Fitzgerald upon the prisoner's request for time to consult with counsel.

Adams was brought to Omaha Tuesday by Detective Felix Dolan. The arrest was made in Gordon, Wis. Adams fought extradition. Adams will probably waive the preliminary hearing and make his first fight for freedom in the higher courts. It is thought he will make an effort to prove by hotel registers in St. Paul, Minn., that he was in that city at the time of the crime. Police are not disclosing what additional evidence they may have against him. They are said, however, to have several witnesses who say Adams is a man who was seen to leap from the roof of the bungalow and to flee toward the railroad yards. He will be held at the city jail, under guard, and without bond until his trial.

MISSIONARY IN CITY ON WAY TO THE NEAR EAST

Expresses Hope Nebraska Will Go Over the Top in Near East Relief (Fund Drive).

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Gannaway of Susari, Neb., are in Omaha on the first step of their long journey to Turkey, where they plan to spend the remainder of their lives ministering to the needs of starving and downtrodden Armenians, Syrians and other victims of Turkish hatred and misrule.

"We will go to Grinnell, Ia.," said Dr. Gannaway, "from Omaha, and will spend a few days with our son, William T., who is in college there, and my brother, J. W., who is professor of political science at Grinnell college."

"Our orders are to report in New York City late this month to be outfitted and to leave for the Armenian field. We go to Turkey by way of France.

"Our parting message is the hope that Nebraska will go far over the top in its drive to raise $320,000 for relief in the near east."

No Increased Tax on Tickets.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Taxes on amusement admissions will not be increased by the war revenue bill. The conferees agreed today to rescind their previous decision to increase the rate from 10 to 20 per cent.
