Market and Industrial News of the Day

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Every commodity on the market today is showing a decided upward movement. The market is being held by heavy selling and by general belief that all commodities were being sold at times with a demand for 4 to 8% cuts down, out of 15 to 4% and provisions with losses...

FINANCIAL

New York, Jan. 24.—Stocks derived much of their strength and wider scope today from the action of the Bethlehem Steel directors, who yesterday declared the usual rate of dividends on the junior shares, albeit in modified form. Number of sales and quotations on leading stocks: Bonds retained their recent irregularity, domestic issues, including the Liberty Division, tending lower, while foreign issues hardened. Total gain aggregated 11.7, 100 United States bonds unchanged on call.
