

London, Jan. 28.—(By Associated Press.)—At a special meeting of cabinet today urgent questions regarding demobilization were discussed.

It is understood the conference concluded about 1,000,000 men would be required to the army, which means, roughly, three out of every four men will be demobilized and the fourth retained "to finish the job." It is proposed to release the men who have already given the most service to the country.

The pay of the men retained will be largely increased, and a new scheme of leave introduced.

COUNCIL VOTES
TO ESTABLISH CITY MARKET

Gardeners, Grocers and Commission Men Have Meeting With City Commissioners; Ready by Spring.

Omaha is to have a new municipal market. The city council, last night, by a vote of 5 to 2, decided to establish one at Fifteenth and Davenport streets.

It was a stormy session, attended by scores of gardeners, commission men, grocers and consumers, many of whom made speeches. The gardeners, grocers and commission men all declared the market is "foredoomed to failure" while the consumers applied opprobrious epithets to the "middlemen," one orator calling them "parasites" and other names being hurled.

Mayor Smith, who is the author of the idea, said the establishment of the market place at Fifteenth and Davenport streets will cost about $15,000. As his resolution was brought to a vote, Commissioner Ringer proposed that the market place be established in the basement of the Auditorium until it shall have been demonstrated without any cost was lost by just one vote, Ringer, Ure and Zimmerman voting in favor of it and Towl hesitating before he said "No."

Commissioner Zimmerman related the experience of the city in establishing a market at Fourteenth and Capitol avenue some years ago, which proved a failure within a month after it was opened.

"The reason that market failed," declared Mayor Smith, "was because the city council then was in sympathy with the commission men. The only way to give the consumer a chance for his money is to get the market away from Eleventh and Jackson streets. The commission man makes a moral coward out of the producer who brings his stuff there to sell and the consumer is not welcome to buy there."

J. J. Cameron declared that less than 10 per cent of the people of
