Auditing Committee—S. A. Harris, chairman; Doane Keller, Arthur Rosenblum.

Negro Prowler Caught by Police in Flight from Wise Hospital

Fifteen frightened nurses of the Wise Memorial hospital watched Officer John Coffey chase a negro prowler two blocks before he was caught.

At the police station the negro gave his name as L. F. Veland, waiter, 2431 Patrick avenue.

Misses Fernie Sexton, Mina Cox, Bessie McMullen and Laetrena Roundin, nurses, were in the main room of the home when the negro attempted to climb through the window.

County Attorney Shotwell's office has adopted a policy of refusing to dismiss complaints of forgery after they have been regularly filed and the defendants bound over from police to district court.

A case in point occurred Tuesday morning when the management of a local department store asked that a complaint against Effie Nixon be dismissed.

The county attorney declined to dismiss the complaint, but agreed that the young woman should appear in criminal court, plead guilty, and be released on parole.

Miss Nixon came here from Dodge county.

A. B. Cassil, shot at Smelting Plant, Succumbs to Wounds.

A. B. Cassil, 2503 1/2 North Twenty-fourth street, assistant superintendent of the American Smelting and Refining company, shot by T. F. Casey, 1106 South Tenth street, right watchman at the plant last night, died yesterday at the hospital where he was taken following the tragedy.

His life had been despaired for several hours.

Cassil was shot three times. The shooting occurred outside the plant of the smelter just north of the Douglas street bridge on the river front.

In a petition for divorce, filed by Viola against Elmer Ruid, the wife alleges that immediately after her marriage in Omaha, March 22, 1917, she was compelled to go to the farm of her father-in-law and was required to do various kinds of housework under the direction of her mother-in-law, and that she refused to be under the direction and orders of her husband's mother and she asks for a decree and alimony.

AT THE THEATERS

OF ALL down acts, the one most unusual ever to be done on the Orpheum stage is presented this week by the Briants. The supposed dummy resembles a lux bundle of old clothes, seemingly quite inanimate. He astonishes the audience with the fact of his being a live person.

A matinee will be played at the Boyd this afternoon, when "The Confession of a War Bride" will again be presented by the company now there.

Capacity houses greet the cleanest, classiest bill presented at the Embassy this season. It has as the headline "1920" a Revue of the Times, a musical comedy, elaborately staged and costumed.

An empty ticket rack after each performance continues to be the condition of affairs in the box office of the Gayety, where magnetic Mollie Williams, the only logical successor to Anna Held, is playing a day to all the people the theater holds.

The receipts from the performance of "When a Feller Needs a Friend," for the Stage Women's War Relief fund, amount to over $2,000.

The Society of American Singers in New York will shortly receive Reginald De Koven's and Harry B. Smith's famous opera, "Robin Hood."

At the Actor's Fund benefit in New York, a 1-act comedy by W. D. Howells, called "The Mouse Trap," was given by Estelle Winwood, Cyril Knightley and Vera Fuller Mellish.

Polled Hereford Breeders Hold Annual Meeting Here.

The Nebraska Poland-Hereford Breeders' association held its annual meeting at the Hotel Castle yesterday followed by a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was concluded by the election of officers, which resulted in E. H. Gifford of Lewistown being chosen president; J. C. Hatz of DeWitt, vice president; Boyd C. Radford of Newark, secretary and treasurer and H. J. Smith, Bellwood, and John Herold of Lewistown, directors.

Wheat Embargo Laid Because of Stores Here.

On account of the grain elevators of the Omaha terminals having been filled to capacity, or nearly so, an embargo has been laid on the shipment of wheat to this market.

It is expected however, that the situation will be relieved within a few days and that Omaha will be open for the shipment of wheat from all points.

Butters, Photographer, is Bound Over to District Court.

A. E. Butters, Omaha "amateur" photographer, whose place was raided and hundreds of photographs of girls of tender years, posed in the market, seized was arraigned in police court Tuesday morning on a charge of aiding and abetting the delinquency of six 10-year-old girls.

He waived preliminary examination and was bound over to district court under bonds of $750, which he furnished.

Here is Chance for Boy to Secure a Good Home.

Rev. C. W. Savidge has received a call from a well-to-do rancher, with ranches in South Dakota and Montana, where he raises both sheep and cattle. This man has a 13-year-old son, and he asks Rev. Mr. Savidge to find him another 13-year-old boy who wants a home.

FLASHES from FILMLAND PHOTO-PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

KITTY GORDON in "Adele" will be offering at the Muse for today and the rest of this week in a story of a girl from Louisiana who becomes a Red Cross nurse in France. The part played by Miss Gordon is a fascinating one and one that calls upon the best she has to offer in histrionic ability in order to make of the play a really great piece of screen work.

Theda Bara in "The Light" at the Sun today and the remainder of this week portrays the life of "the wickedest woman in Paris" who at the time that everyone else is sacrificing for their country is living a life of riotous revelry.

Dustin Farnum's next story is another of his famous western plots and is to be entitled "Square Shooter in Dell."

Tom Moore is hard at work on his latest drama, "A Man and His Humors," said to be one of the film humorist's best works of this season.

The homely story of "Old Matt" and "Young Matt," Sammy Lane and all the big-hearted mountain folks, who were so realistically portrayed in Harold Bell Wright's novel of "The Shepherd of the Hills," live again in the picturization being shown at the Brandeis theater all this week.

Omaha is to have another opportunity to witness the greatest play in which Theda Bara has ever starred "Salome." At the time of its first engagement here the influenza epidemic closed all houses

Red Cross Still Has Large Amount of Work to do in Next Six Months

Omaha women are recalled to Red Cross duty.

At a special meeting of Omaha Red Cross chapter held Tuesday morning, reorganization of Red Cross hospital garments auxiliaries was discussed.

"Since the armistice was signed, women have the idea no further Red Cross work is needed. Our quotas of refugee garments still continue. A large quota of jackets must be completed for American soldiers in Siberia. It is a patriotic duty to come back into the work," said W. B. Tagg, Omaha chapter chairman.

Mrs. Arthur Mullen was named to reach chairman of all auxiliaries in a special effort to finish all outstanding quotas in the next month or six weeks. Auxiliary chairmen will line up former members to complete the work.

Henry Mönky to Address Kellom School Community

Mr. Henry Mönky, prominent lawyer of this city, will address the Kellom school community tonight at 8:15 o'clock. A group of young ladies from the South Omaha High school will present a Japanese drill. Mr. Levinson will give a violin duet and Miss Harriet Ulmer will accompany Mr. Irving Ulmer in cornet solos.

The address by Miss Beulah Byrd before the boys of the school last Wednesday has resulted in a club being formed, whose members promise to stand by certain rules and regulations that will lead to better manhood.

Suffrage Boosters Receive Replies from Three U. S. Senators

"Senator Hitchcock's position on the woman's suffrage question is still the same," E. B. Gaddis, of the senator's secretary wrote to Mrs. H. C. Sumney and Mrs. James Richardson, suffrage boosters, who recently forwarded to him a brief of anti-suffrage fraudulencies practiced in connection with the referendum petition.

Your letter contains much material that may be of use to me," wrote Senator Norris. "I greatly appreciate your kindness in sending me a copy."

Senator A. A. Jones, of New Mexico, chairman of the woman suffrage committee in the senate, to whom a copy was also sent, acknowledged the receipt as follows:

"I am pleased to receive these suggestions and have read the same with much interest. Please rest assured the suffrage amendment is having my most earnest consideration."
