Debate in House Over Name for War Costs State $100 in Time

By a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 30 .- By action of the house of representatives of the legislature, after debate that cost the state about $100 in time lost, it was decided officially to christen the late war "the world war."

The matter came up as the result of a motion by Black of Lancaster to amend House Roll No. 105, permitting the admission of soldiers of the world war to en-ter the Nebraska Soldiers' and Black sought to change the words, "the world wat" to the "war with Germany." There was objection to this and a number of members spoke against the amendment. One member moved an amendment to Black's amendment, proposing that the words, "the kaiser's war," should be substituted. This raised a laugh. The original words, "the world wur" were permitted to stand in the bill as the official designation of the late unpleasantness.
