

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Detroit claims to be the banner city of the United States in the number of its women real estate agents and brokers.

Income tax reports have revealed the fact that chorus and cabaret girls in New York are earning from $25 to $75 a week.

Miss Ada J. Heaton of Lincoln in Y. W. C. A. Campaign

Miss Ada J. Heaton of Lincoln, Neb., has been in Omaha for a few days consulting with the leaders in the Double Triangle campaign, which is the joint campaign of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. for funds for their regular work. This campaign takes place in Omaha February 3, 4 and 5.

Chadron Normal Notes

Considerable interest in basketball has been manifested lately, the occasion being the recurrence of the preparations for the annual inter-class tournament. Fifty new students registered this week. They come from all parts of this section of Nebraska, Wyoming and South Dakota.

Advice to the Lovelorn

C. O. A. is With Us Today for the Second Time. Also a Letter from a Woman Living in His Home Town. Take Your Choice

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am aware of the fact that you published my letter, written in reply to the letter written by S. F. E. I am also very much aware of the fact that some of your readers have been offended by what I wrote. The subject of the unfortunate, much to be pitied, fallen women, and their frequent use of rouge, never for one moment entered my thoughts when I wrote the reply to S. F. E. It will be remembered that in her letter she was the one who used powder and paint and whose appearance was flashy, was the one sought for by most men, and that she, being just a plain, every-day girl and wore glasses, was passed up and only considered by men as a good little pal.

An Opinion of Mr. C. O. A.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: The letter written by Mr. C. O. A. in The Omaha Bee prompts me to write just a few lines in the defense of a real woman.

Key to Happiness.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a Lincoln reader and enjoy very much your space in the paper. Some things are very amusing and sometimes I feel sorry for the silly girls. Please let me say after reading your piece in The Bee Wednesday, when the right man comes you know it. I was only 17 when engaged and just past 18 when I was married. I had many friends among the boys and they all treated me fine and if any time I was not smart, it didn't take me long to tell them what to do. If I went with a boy who got smart he never got the second date and he generally knew why, but was always a friend. I have been married eight years and our love keeps growing more every day. We never had silly quarrels before we were married and don't have them now. We always made it a rule to tell each other what we did, as he lived out of town and no one could tell tales on us, as some people always like to make trouble.

Although we have been married Tony, you are wrong in your opinion of me. You, as well as others, got the wrong meaning from my letter. Your point was well raised and I admit you for the stand you have taken. I don't believe in kicking a fellow when he is down any more than you do, and there isn't a doubt in my mind but that some of the women you refer to

In a Dreadful Plight.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am 17 years old, fair complexioned and considered quite pretty. Now Miss Fairfax I am deeply in love with a young man 18 years old. But all the other young men in my neighborhood love me very much. I only care for this one young man. I would like for you to tell me how to keep their friendship without having them love me. They still love me. I am engaged to be married to this young man, but cannot cook or sew. He says that does not make any difference as he can afford to hire help. Do you think I should marry him? I remain anxiously awaiting an answer. BROWN EYES.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: Having read your columns daily I have decided to come to you for advice. I am a young girl 18 years and 6 months old, and have been going with a young farmer bachelor for the last two years who is 21 years old. Do you think I am too young to get married?

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am coming to you for advice. I have a soldier friend with whom I correspond since he was drafted, which was in July. But I haven't heard from him for two months and don't know the reason why. There is a young man somewhere around 30 years who wants to make love to me and I would care for him too. Please tell me what I should do—wait for the soldier friend to write or be in love with this man? The soldier was just my friend. I would also like to know what will take spots out of white table cloth made from nuts? Thanking you in advance.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a very serious-minded young girl, and for some reason I do not seem to care to mingle with young folks, but prefer to stop at home to read or knit. Mother continually scolds and "nags" because I refuse to go to dances, etc. Several young men have escorted me home from church, but for some reason they do not call on me again. Now, what I would like to know is, why they do not call, for I am sure that I have done nothing to make them think I do not care for their company.

Why Not?

My brother says that I am not the kind of a girl that the boys care to go with because they all prefer the gay and light-hearted ones. Now, I am perfectly contented

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to you for a little advice. I am a girl of 17 and have been engaged to a boy 18 years of age. As my parents treat me very cruel, would you advise me to marry the fellow as he has asked me to? I love him, and he loves me. He is considered a very nice boy and he has lots of money. I can cook, sew and I can keep house. My father will not let me go to dances or parties. Do you think it would be all right to take this ring? He has got the engagement ring, but I don't know whether to accept it or not as I am troubled very much. I hope to see my answer soon. Very anxious. INEZ V.

Why Not?

P. S.—I am anxious. If you are sure that he is the right man for you and can provide for you, I see no reason why you should not marry. Do not accept the ring unless you intend to marry this young man, but be very, very sure that you are doing right.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have come to ask you for a little advice. I am a young man and in love with a young widow and I know she loves me. I see her every day but do not get very much time to talk to her. How shall I let her know of my love for her? Thanking you in advance. F. K. S.

Why Not?

I suggest that you take a day off and acquaint the young lady with your heart throbs.

Why Not?

Six of the largest women's organizations in the state of Nebraska have formed a joint legislative conference to put through the legislature at Albany a program comprising six bills for the benefit of women in industry.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to you for a little advice. I am a girl of 17 and have been engaged to a boy 18 years of age. As my parents treat me very cruel, would you advise me to marry the fellow as he has asked me to? I love him, and he loves me. He is considered a very nice boy and he has lots of money. I can cook, sew and I can keep house. My father will not let me go to dances or parties. Do you think it would be all right to take this ring? He has got the engagement ring, but I don't know whether to accept it or not as I am troubled very much. I hope to see my answer soon. Very anxious. INEZ V.

Why Not?

If you are sure that he is the right man for you and can provide for you, I see no reason why you should not marry. Do not accept the ring unless you intend to marry this young man, but be very, very sure that you are doing right.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am coming to you for advice. I have a soldier friend with whom I correspond since he was drafted, which was in July. But I haven't heard from him for two months and don't know the reason why. There is a young man somewhere around 30 years who wants to make love to me and I would care for him too. Please tell me what I should do—wait for the soldier friend to write or be in love with this man? The soldier was just my friend. I would also like to know what will take spots out of white table cloth made from nuts? Thanking you in advance.

Why Not?

My brother says that I am not the kind of a girl that the boys care to go with because they all prefer the gay and light-hearted ones. Now, I am perfectly contented

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to ask you for a little advice. I am a young man and in love with a young widow and I know she loves me. I see her every day but do not get very much time to talk to her. How shall I let her know of my love for her? Thanking you in advance. F. K. S.

Why Not?

I suggest that you take a day off and acquaint the young lady with your heart throbs.

Why Not?

Six of the largest women's organizations in the state of Nebraska have formed a joint legislative conference to put through the legislature at Albany a program comprising six bills for the benefit of women in industry.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to you for a little advice. I am a girl of 17 and have been engaged to a boy 18 years of age. As my parents treat me very cruel, would you advise me to marry the fellow as he has asked me to? I love him, and he loves me. He is considered a very nice boy and he has lots of money. I can cook, sew and I can keep house. My father will not let me go to dances or parties. Do you think it would be all right to take this ring? He has got the engagement ring, but I don't know whether to accept it or not as I am troubled very much. I hope to see my answer soon. Very anxious. INEZ V.

Why Not?

If you are sure that he is the right man for you and can provide for you, I see no reason why you should not marry. Do not accept the ring unless you intend to marry this young man, but be very, very sure that you are doing right.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am coming to you for advice. I have a soldier friend with whom I correspond since he was drafted, which was in July. But I haven't heard from him for two months and don't know the reason why. There is a young man somewhere around 30 years who wants to make love to me and I would care for him too. Please tell me what I should do—wait for the soldier friend to write or be in love with this man? The soldier was just my friend. I would also like to know what will take spots out of white table cloth made from nuts? Thanking you in advance.

Why Not?

My brother says that I am not the kind of a girl that the boys care to go with because they all prefer the gay and light-hearted ones. Now, I am perfectly contented

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to ask you for a little advice. I am a young man and in love with a young widow and I know she loves me. I see her every day but do not get very much time to talk to her. How shall I let her know of my love for her? Thanking you in advance. F. K. S.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to you for a little advice. I am a girl of 17 and have been engaged to a boy 18 years of age. As my parents treat me very cruel, would you advise me to marry the fellow as he has asked me to? I love him, and he loves me. He is considered a very nice boy and he has lots of money. I can cook, sew and I can keep house. My father will not let me go to dances or parties. Do you think it would be all right to take this ring? He has got the engagement ring, but I don't know whether to accept it or not as I am troubled very much. I hope to see my answer soon. Very anxious. INEZ V.

Why Not?

If you are sure that he is the right man for you and can provide for you, I see no reason why you should not marry. Do not accept the ring unless you intend to marry this young man, but be very, very sure that you are doing right.

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am coming to you for advice. I have a soldier friend with whom I correspond since he was drafted, which was in July. But I haven't heard from him for two months and don't know the reason why. There is a young man somewhere around 30 years who wants to make love to me and I would care for him too. Please tell me what I should do—wait for the soldier friend to write or be in love with this man? The soldier was just my friend. I would also like to know what will take spots out of white table cloth made from nuts? Thanking you in advance.

Why Not?

My brother says that I am not the kind of a girl that the boys care to go with because they all prefer the gay and light-hearted ones. Now, I am perfectly contented

Why Not?

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have come to ask you for a little advice. I am a young man and in love with a young widow and I know she loves me. I see her every day but do not get very much time to talk to her. How shall I let her know of my love for her? Thanking you in advance. F. K. S.

GOING TO CHURCH. A frosty New England day, a good horse and beloved companions. Rugged times; rugged weather; rugged characters! A bracing drive—rather to hear the gossip than the sermon!

High ideals! Scientific bakery knowledge! Modern equipment! Waste-saving efficiency! Cleanly surroundings! All these things—plus the big loaf—combine to produce a saving loaf—a clean loaf—a full-value, full-nourishment loaf—in Betsy Ross.

Bakeries with less complete equipment could not produce bread of equal quality, if they wanted to. Bakeries who "don't want to" have greater temptations than ever in these days to relax sanitary precautions. You protect your family's health and well being—and you save, when you buy Betsy Ross. The big loaf saves fuel, labor, materials—saves wrapping and delivery expense. Saves also in the home. It holds its freshness and delicious flavor. There is no waste.