

PLAYS SHERLOCK ON TRAIN, NOW IN COUNTY JAIL

E. C. Turner of Kansas City Arrested for Impersonating United States Deputy Marshal.

Flourishing a revolver, of which the dimensions brought back to memory pictures of Germany's 42-centimeter cannons, and sporting two stars of a United States deputy marshal, E. C. Turner was arrested at the Union depot last night by United States Marshal Flynn and charged with impersonating an officer of the law. Turner is now lodged in the county jail awaiting the results of an investigation.

Turner claims that he was employed as deputy marshal in Kansas City under the supervision of O. T. Woods, United States marshal at Topeka, Kan. When arrested he was unable to show any credentials to corroborate his statements.

Enroute from Kansas City to this city Turner and a friend proceeded to give an exhibition of just how a real sleuth should work. Each passenger of the train was subjected to a search by them. Turner then forced his demands upon the passengers with a huge .44-caliber pistol. A 10-inch barrel aided in making the weapon more impressive.

At Falls City the friend dropped off. Turner was left alone, but he was equal to the emergency and proceeded to terrorize some negroes on the train.

A telegram had preceded him to Omaha from a point near Falls City and he was taken into custody as soon as he alighted here.

Advertising Omaha in Large Eastern Magazines

Colliers for February 8 contains a five inch advertisement about Omaha, inserted by the bureau of publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

The heading is "$333 per person." The body of the ad reads: "This is what the people of the rich agricultural Omaha country have on deposit in their banks. There are 600,000 people and $200,000,000 deposits within a radius of 50 miles of Omaha. They have the money and the will to buy. Why not cover this rich territory intensively from an office or factory branch in Omaha?"

The illustration, which was drawn by Miss Helen Eastman, shows a silhouette picture of Omaha surrounded by money-bags and stacks of dollars to visualize the wealth of the territory.

Negro Prisoner, Lost in Shuffle, is Found Again

William Johnson, 15-year-old negro bell hop, was lost in the shuffle at the police station last Friday morning.

The records at the station showed the boy had been turned over to juvenile officer Vosburg. When Vosburg disclaimed any knowledge of the prisoner Thursday a search, which was instituted immediately, revealed the fact that the boy never had been removed from his cell in the city jail.

Johnson was arrested as a suspect in connection with the numerous thefts committed recently in local hotels. He is now the prisoner of the juvenile court.

Governor of Utah Coming to Big Omaha Congress

Governor Simeon Bamberger of Utah has wired the Omaha Chamber of Commerce that he will participate in the governors group meeting of the Transmississippi congress at Omaha, February 18 to 20.

The governor is one of Utah's big business men and a representative of large interests. He last visited Omaha in connection with the fourth Liberty loan campaign.

Soldier Reports He Cannot Get His Old Job Back

One returned soldier has reported to the soldiers' registration bureau, just established by the Welfare board, stating that his former employer refused to give him back his old position. The superintendent of the bureau is making an investigation. "We will call on all employers to explain if they refuse to give their old jobs back to these boys," said Mr. Weisen.

If Coffee Disagree there's an easy way out.

There's no headache, no sleeplessness, no nervousness in

INSTANT POSTUM

A pleasant coffee-like flavor and an economy in making will soon make it your favorite table drink.

There's a Reason

Children love Cascarets because they taste like candy. When your child has a white tongue, feverish, frowny stomach, give Cascarets anytime to work. The nasty bile, souring food and bowel poison from the clogged-up places. You needn't coax even cross, sick children to take these harmless candy "Cascarets." They never grip—never injure. Cascarets never disappoint the worried mother. Each 10 cent box contains directions and dose for children aged one year and upwards.

"VIRLIOUS WIVES"

Owen Johnson's Sparkling Society Novel, which is making such a hit in the movies. (Copyright, 1918, by Little, Brown & Co.)

CHAPTER XVII. "Isn't it wonderful?" she cried, still perplexed. "But, Andrew, you mustn't work too hard—promise."

"I promise," he said grimly, his mind filled with dreams for the guided future in which all his hopes would come true.

She went into her bath quite satisfied with this assurance. Three weeks later in the vast span of the Grand Central station, quite a party gathered to see Andrew Forrester off to Mexico. It was still 10 minutes before the train's departure. Mrs. Lightbody and Mrs. Dellabarre, with Dawson, Laracy, and young Pardee, hung back discreetly while Amy, tiny and fragile against the broad shoulders of her husband, walked with him down the platform.

Filkins, the private secretary, who was to accompany him, came up briskly. "Everything in place?" "Everything, Mr. Forrester."

"Get all the evening papers—and some magazines."

"Yes, sir."

A late arrival came running down the platform; Filkins flitted away. "I can't bear to let you go alone," said Amy, clinging to his arm. "I don't think it's right, Andrew—I don't."

There was a break in her voice, and her eyes grew misty. She had come down gaily, after a merry luncheon, and now, all at once, before the grim mystery of life's parting, this grinning mask that confronted her, she felt sinking in her heart, a terror of unknown things.

"Why, little girl, it's only a jump here and back this time. Only a week or two," he said, patting her arm. He looked at her, detecting the gathering tears. "Here, here; it's not so bad as that."

"Oh, but it's the first time!" she said incoherently swaying against his shoulder. "Andrew, Andrew, we oughtn't to be separated. I feel it. I know it. My duty's with you."

"Well, perhaps next time."

She looked up into his face, fear and helplessness in her eyes. "What is it, little girl?"

"Then you think I ought to have gone with you? Andrew, Andrew, tell me the truth."

"Of course I don't," he said stoutly. "I will—I'll jump on the car now—just as I am," she said, under the hypnotic terror of all this flurry of coming and going, this sense of looming unexplored horizons of life ahead—and behind.

He drew his arm tighter about her and bent suddenly, careless who saw them, to seek her lips.

"Of course it's only a couple of weeks, isn't it?" she said heavily, at the end of the long embrace that shut out the shrieking confusion about them.

"Perhaps not that," he said, trying to comfort her for her grief affected him, too. "I say—do you think you'd better wait, Amy dear? It's sort of bad luck, seeing the train off."

"No, no, I can't leave—not now—please don't ask that of me."

"All right, then. Better now?" He drew her back to the group of friends who pressed up for the last farewells. "Goodbye, everyone—goodbye, Mrs. Lightbody—goodbye—goodbye, Mrs. Dellabarre—mighty good of you to see me off. I say, cheer up my little girl, will you? Don't let her get too lonely."

He caught up Amy, lifting her almost off her feet, laughing. "Back in a fortnight, my dear, and the train will be waiting in motion as he caught the step."

She stood with her handkerchief waving feebly in the air as the train wound out in snaky flight, dwindled, and was gone.

"Partings are awful. I can't bear them," she said gulping down a sob. "I know. I feel quite natural, dear," said Mrs. Dellabarre, who had waited by her. She had never had such an emotion when leaving Rudolph, and yet, she was rather affected by her friend's distress. She linked her arm under Amy's, murmuring sympathetically. "What a child it is!"

In order that Mrs. Forrester should not languish in teary solitude, they danced in the newest dance hall, dined, and arrived for the second act of a musical comedy. At 2 o'clock, as Amy declared, if she went home, she wouldn't sleep a wink, they decided to make a night of it. Today Dawson was devoted to itself, so kind and so solid, that it was able to support a racing car and frequent the most exclusive tailors and haberdashers. Ordinarily of smiling humor and serene self-complacency, he rose this morning angry at the complex scheme of things in general and at Mr. Forrester in particular.

"What got into me, anyway?" he

CHAPTER XVIII. Eighteen months later, on a brilliant morning in April, when the sky the gray winter fled before the triumphant rush of spring, Mr. Toddy Dawson, after a late night, awoke to the consciousness that a disagreeable morning was ahead. A college degree from one of our modern gymnasiums had brought him the classic privilege of a university club, where the necessary luxuries of life are obtainable to the impetuous crowd. Pigeonbled in a compartment, 12th on the 11th and so this human filing machine, he enjoyed not only the services of a valet, a squash court, a restaurant, a library, and the fattening opportunities of the card rooms, but, by resorting to the free-lunch counter on the rare occasion when he failed to be fed socially, he was able to support a racing car and frequent the most exclusive tailors and haberdashers. Ordinarily of smiling humor and serene self-complacency, he rose this morning angry at the complex scheme of things in general and at Mr. Forrester in particular.

"What got into me, anyway?" he

CHAPTER XVII. "Isn't it wonderful?" she cried, still perplexed. "But, Andrew, you mustn't work too hard—promise."

"I promise," he said grimly, his mind filled with dreams for the guided future in which all his hopes would come true.

She went into her bath quite satisfied with this assurance. Three weeks later in the vast span of the Grand Central station, quite a party gathered to see Andrew Forrester off to Mexico. It was still 10 minutes before the train's departure. Mrs. Lightbody and Mrs. Dellabarre, with Dawson, Laracy, and young Pardee, hung back discreetly while Amy, tiny and fragile against the broad shoulders of her husband, walked with him down the platform.

Filkins, the private secretary, who was to accompany him, came up briskly. "Everything in place?" "Everything, Mr. Forrester."

"Get all the evening papers—and some magazines."

"Yes, sir."

A late arrival came running down the platform; Filkins flitted away. "I can't bear to let you go alone," said Amy, clinging to his arm. "I don't think it's right, Andrew—I don't."

There was a break in her voice, and her eyes grew misty. She had come down gaily, after a merry luncheon, and now, all at once, before the grim mystery of life's parting, this grinning mask that confronted her, she felt sinking in her heart, a terror of unknown things.

"Why, little girl, it's only a jump here and back this time. Only a week or two," he said, patting her arm. He looked at her, detecting the gathering tears. "Here, here; it's not so bad as that."

"Oh, but it's the first time!" she said incoherently swaying against his shoulder. "Andrew, Andrew, we oughtn't to be separated. I feel it. I know it. My duty's with you."

NO CRIME WAVE IN OMAHA, SAYS CHIEF OF POLICE

Many Robberies and Holdups Nothing Compared to Other Cities, Chief Eberstein Says.

Two holdups were reported to the police Wednesday and 25 robberies were reported on Tuesday and Wednesday. This total was swelled by another holdup last night and seven other robberies. However, Chief of Police Eberstein yesterday said Omaha is less overrun by crime now than it has been for years. And that he does not by any means consider this record a crime wave.

"The records will show this," he says. "Of course, there is always a lot of petty stealing going on but there hasn't been any big crime for a long time."

"Other cities are having waves of crime at the present time. Kansas City, Chicago and Cleveland are among these. Cleveland has even organized a citizens' vigilance committee to try to cope with the big crime wave."

Robberies and Holdups. Robberies and holdups in Omaha Wednesday were staged in various sections of the city, according to reports received at the police station this morning.

Two dozen pairs of shoes were stolen from a box car in the yards of the C. B. & Q. railroad.

The National Roofing Co., 1502 North Eleventh street, report the loss of a set of harness from its barn. Loss is estimated at $25.

Werner Bergstrom, 3221 Pacific street, was held up at Thirty-third and Mason streets by three men, two of whom covered him with revolvers while the third searched his pockets.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will value the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

It is a simple antiseptic, made up of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, or any other pure, concentrated sugar syrup. Either way the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations. It gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membrane in all the respiratory tract. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. As you breathe more freely, a new ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

Police Commissioner Ringer has finished his investigation of charges made by Commissioner Ure against Detectives Franks and Graham and will make his report to city council Friday morning.

He declined to say whether or not he will suspend the men, stating that as city council had ordered him to make a report he would not give out the report until he has made it to the council.

The detectives are charged with beating a colored prisoner unnecessarily when they arrested him last Friday at Eighteenth and Webster streets.

Hoopingarner Takes Charge of Advertising for Sprague

A. A. Hoopingarner has begun work as advertising manager of the Sprague Tire and Rubber company, at Eighteenth and Izard streets.

The Sprague plant, built at a cost of a half-million dollars, is now in full operation. Business is developing splendidly.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

Hotel Dyckman Minneapolis FIREPROOF

Opened 1910 Location Most Central. 300 Rooms, 300 Private Baths. Rates $1.75 to $3.50 Per Day.

H. J. TREMAIN, Pres. and Manager.

HEAD SALESMAN SPENT HUNDREDS WITHOUT RESULT

Burton Suffered Twenty Years Before Finding Right Medicine.

In speaking of the marvelous way in which Tanlac has relieved him of a long-standing case of rheumatism, B. E. Burton, head salesman in the wholesale fruit and vegetable department at Luby Bros., Butte, Mont., living at 662 South Montana Street, recently said:

"It is simply astonishing that just a few bottles of Tanlac should fix me up in almost no time, after I had spent almost every dollar I earned in the last twenty years trying to get relief from that awful rheumatism."

Before coming to Butte Mr. Burton lived for ten years in Spokane, Wash., where he was salesman for the Imperial Trading Company of that city.

"I tell you what," he continued, "I have gone through all stages of rheumatism, and the agonies I have had to endure simply cannot be described. The trouble first came on me about twenty years ago. My shoulders, knees and ankles gave me the most worry and ached so at times that I hardly had any use for myself. About three years ago it got so bad that I was laid up in bed for six long months, and when I got up again I had to go about on crutches for three months, and till recently I never did get it out of my system, although I have spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get straightened out. I went to Hot Springs, Arkansas, but without result and then I tried the hot baths nearer home, but got no benefit from that treatment either. A little while ago I felt it coming on pretty bad again. My appetite left me, nothing tasted right, I was constipated and suffered from awful headaches every few days. The pain in my shoulders and knees was so agonizing that I could hardly sleep and I would wake up six or seven times during the night racked with pain. Why, at the time, I started taking Tanlac I couldn't raise my arms as high as my shoulders to save my life and was unable to put on my coat without somebody helping me, and my knees were so stiff and hurt so bad I could hardly walk."

"After reading so much about Tanlac I decided to try it and I hadn't finished my first bottle before the stiffness began to leave my joints, and now I never suffer a bit of pain or inconvenience. My second bottle gave me a whacking big appetite, that constipation is relieved and I never have a headache. I sleep like a log all night, and am lucky if I wake up in time for breakfast before going to work. I certainly am glad to endorse Tanlac and only hope my experience with this wonderful medicine will help someone else who may be going through what I did."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. Also Forrest and McNary Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

NO MORE CATARRH

A Guaranteed Treatment That Has Stood the Test of Time.

Catarrh cures come and catarrh cures go. But Hyromel cures a real catarrh and gives you a permanent relief. It is a guaranteed cure for all catarrhs, whether of the nose, throat, or lungs. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy. It is a guaranteed cure for all catarrhs, whether of the nose, throat, or lungs. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy.

Every year the already enormous sales of Hyromel, a simple, safe, and effective remedy, show that it is a guaranteed cure for all catarrhs, whether of the nose, throat, or lungs. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy.

If you have a hard rubber Hyromel inhaler somewhere around the house, get it out and start it at once to forever rid yourself of catarrh, whether of the nose, throat, or lungs. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy.

Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., or any other good druggist, will sell you a bottle of Hyromel (liquid) and a hard rubber inhaler and bottle of Hyromel, costs but little. No stomach dosing; just breathe. Soothe the inflamed membrane. —Adv.

ASTHMA

There is no "cure" but relief is often brought by—

VICKS VAPORUB

NEW PRICES—30c, 60c, $1.20

The joy of feeling fit and fresh rewards those who heed the laws of health, and keep the habits regular with

GLECHA'S PILLS

Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World. Largest Retailers: Boston, 10c, 25c.

After each meal—YOU get one GLECHA'S PILLS

FOR YOUR STOMACH'S SAKE and get full food value and real stomach comfort. Instantly relieves heartburn, bloated, gassy feeling, STOPS acidity for a repeating and stomach misery. AIDS digestion; keeps the stomach sweet and pure.

GLECHA'S PILLS is the best remedy and only cost a cent or two a day to use. It will be delivered free. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. Please call and try.

Glecha's Pharmacy, Cor. 10th and Howard Sts., Omaha, Neb.

Ringer to Report to City Council on Detectives

Police Commissioner Ringer has finished his investigation of charges made by Commissioner Ure against Detectives Franks and Graham and will make his report to city council Friday morning.

He declined to say whether or not he will suspend the men, stating that as city council had ordered him to make a report he would not give out the report until he has made it to the council.

The detectives are charged with beating a colored prisoner unnecessarily when they arrested him last Friday at Eighteenth and Webster streets.

Spanish War Vets to Have Their Annual Bean Feast

Members of Lee Forby camp Spanish-American war veterans, announce a bean feast for the evening of February 15. It is an annual function with the camp and will be held in the lodge rooms in the Workmen temple, Fourteenth and Dodge streets.

All Spanish-American war veterans are expected to attend the Roosevelt memorial services in the Auditorium Sunday afternoon. A call is out for the veterans to meet on the north side of the court house at 3 and in a body, march to the Auditorium.

Stop Itching Eczema

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zemo furnished by any druggist for 35c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Heating begins the moment zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of eczema, better, pimples, rash, blackheads and similar skin diseases will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, always use zemo, the penetrating, antiseptic liquid. It is not a greasy ointment and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for skin troubles of all kinds.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

FOR LUMBAGO

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister.