New York Coffee.

New York, Feb. 6.—Recent advances were followed by a sharp reaction in the market for coffee futures here today. The opening was 18 to 25 points lower under scattering liquidation and the decline caught a few stop orders which carried May contracts off to $14.25 and December to $13.50, or about 28 to 50 points net lower. Lower milreis prices in Brazil may have promoted the selling movement, but later reports no change in the corn and freight market, and the market closed at slight rallies with prices 25 to 34 points below last night's final figures. Closing bids: May, $14.41; July, $14.05 September, $13.75; October, $13.70; December, $13.53; January, $13.45.

Spot coffee, quiet; Rio 7s, 15¼c; Santos 4s, 21½c. Comparatively few fresh fresh offers were reported in the cost and freight market and the lowest price quoted for Santos 4s was 20.50c London credits.

The official cables showed a decline of 200 reis at Rio. Santos spots unchanged. Futures, 25 to 75 reis lower. Santos reported clearances of 22,000 bags for New York. Owing to the interruption of railroad communications, no receipts were reported at Santos. Jundiahy, 1,000.

New York Cotton.

New York, Feb. 6.—Cotton closed at $31.10, with the general list closing steady at a net loss of 52 to 92 points.

GRAIN MARKET

Omaha, Feb. 6 1919.

Very light receipts were in evidence again today with 11 cars of wheat, 35 cars of corn, 36 cars of oats, 1 car of rye, and 14 cars of barley.

There was a fair demand only for the limited number of corn offerings with prices ranging from unchanged to 5 cents higher. The biggest advance was in No. 2 yellow, which brought $1.28@1.30 against $1.25 at late yesterday, and in No. 3 mixed at $1.27, as compared to $1.24 obtained for this grade near the close yesterday. Other grades showed some advance generally as compared to the same quality yesterday.

Oats were 1c to 1½c higher, the bulk 1c up.

Rye ranged from a cent off to 3c up, and barley 1c to 1½c up. Wheat was about a cent up for the better grades. Only a few samples were on the tables.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Apparently mistaken reports of a big advance in the Argentine minimum export price of corn led to sharp upturns today in the corn market here, but heavy selling ensued and the close was unsettled, 2¾c net lower to ¾c gain, with May $1.12 to $1.12¾ and July $1.08⅝ to $1.08¾. Oats finished ¾c off to ⅛c advance and provisions unchanged to 50c higher.

According to the gossip current in the corn pit, the Argentine export minimum had been lifted to 85c a bushel from 74¼c. Although the trade was in general disposed to doubt that such a radical change had been made, most of the houses with Argentine connections bought and this fact tended to emphasize bullish sentiment. Reports that flour purchases for European relief would begin again next week and that packers had received large orders from the food administration gave further temporary stimulus to buyers of corn. Weakness, which prevailed later, was largely due to general construction that the 85c referred to in the Argentine gossip meant offers to ship f. o. b. during March at that price, equivalent to $1.40 at New York.

Oats merely followed the trend of corn.

Packers' buying gave strength to provisions. The market, however, receded somewhat when corn turned weak.
