DECEMBER CIRCULATION

Daily 65,219—Sunday 62,644

Subscribers leaving the city should have The Bee mailed to them

The police mix-up is not clearing very fast

Why wake up a deputy sheriff who went to sleep

March winds blowing in February may be taken an early spring

Packers deny they tried to employ Francis J. Heney

The planting season soon will be upon us

Old Hansen fooled that bunch of Scandinavian agitators

The red flag has no place in this country

Opponents of vaccination swing into action again

Ideals may have overcome the Hun's power

The violin, says the London police, is an agency for violence

Police have unexampled opportunities when testifying in liquor cases

Stiffer terms are to be applied to the Germans as a result of their failure

Can it be possible that interlopers have gained entry to the peace conference

If the wheels of industry were whirling as they ought to be

Tributes paid to Roosevelt on Sunday all turned on his great service

The ranks of unemployed in the United States have now increased to 290,831

Taxing the Melting Pot

The United States has not yet digested all that it swallowed

We believe wise American nationalism would put up the bars

No other nation in the world ever undertook to nationalize so many people

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Discussion of the constitutional convention is general at Lincoln just now

Here is another possible hitch: It is clearly within the power of the present legislature to call a constitutional convention

Such an objection is worthy of examination at any time, and deserves to be given its full weight

Deportation of Anarchistic Agitators

Fifty-four aliens are on their way out of the country, being deported by the federal authorities

The prompt deportation of the majocents will be of service just that far

Credit for Building Operations

Secretary Glass gives as his opinion that no difficulty will be encountered by prospective builders

National Pioneering

New York Evening Post

Busy as congress is, no measure before it deserves more careful consideration or prompt action than Secretary Lane's bill appropriating $100,000,000 for the investigation, irrigation, drainage, and development of swamp, arid, waste, and undeveloped lands

In spite of the general assumption, it is doubtful whether many soldiers will be eager to cultivate soil, and that they have ceased digging trenches

Suppose, however, that the government says something like this to the soldier: "We will give you a job now at $4 a day for an eight-hour day"

Those who have followed the community settlement projects in Australia, and that in California and elsewhere

Can suitable lands be found, and if so, how can they be obtained?

The warfare which distinguishes civilization from barbarism is a warfare which, more and more as the world advances

Whether its later misuse grew primarily out of the comparative German failure in its legitimate use against the British navy

Use is totally to be prohibited as much as the use of treachery and robbery and murder and destruction against noncombatants on land is to be prohibited

It is difficult to judge a cigar by appearance alone, but fragrance is a sure guide

Colorado has never forsaken the cause of the sacred ratio, and now asks the Paris conference to take up the question of bimetalism

An 18-months' wait in purple socks and a toboggan cap is the prize drawn on the door-step by Mrs. Dohler

DREAMLAND ADVENTURE

By DADDY

Countess Alice gasped when she saw them

"Why, it's Princess Peggy and Billy Belgium," she cried

"We came from the North to help save Red Spot," answered Peggy

"But what are you doing here?"

"Our circus ended its season in Texas last fall, so we stayed here to spend the winter," answered Countess Alice

"We've had a lot of fun running free on the plains and swimming the Rio Grande over into Mexico

"Hello, Countess Alice! Hello, Circus Mike, Nanny Goat and Boston Bull!" she shouted in greeting

Daily Dot Puzzle

Guess what I've drawn? Draw from one to two and so on to the end.

So mad I've got to fight. Where are the cowards who have starved and tortured me?

"That's the way they treat bulls before a bull fight," whispered Countess Alice

"I don't understand animal and bird talk as you do," replied Countess Alice

"Hello, Red Spot, we've come to rescue you," brayed Circus Mike

"I don't want to be rescued. I'm a bull fighter," brayed Circus Mike
