Leaders on Both Sides Predict Overwhelming Vote of Approval on War Levies in Senate Today.

Washington, Feb. 11.-Final action by congress tomorrow on the $6,000,000.000 war revenue appeared assured tonight after several hours of debate in the senate on the conferees' agreement, which the house adopted last Saturday.

After some difficulties and delay in taking up the bill today Chairman Simmons of the senate man-agers, addressed the senate for Quotations furnished by Burns, Brinker and company, 449 Omaha National bank report, while Senator Thomas of Stocks— Colorado, democrat, sharply crit-icised elimination of his amendment to tax campaign contributions of $500-or more 100 per cent.

Several senators plan to speak to-morrow, but both democrats and republican leaders predicted tonight that an overwhelming vote of ap-proval would be given before ad-journment tomorrow. Senator Simmons said that if necessary a night session would be held.

At the outset today, republicans delayed action on the bill, demanding that the lengthy formal conference report be read. Republicar Leader Lodge and Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania and France of Maryland insisted that this formal-
