

BORAH ATTACKS WILSON'S WORLD LEAGUE PROJECT

Idaho Senator Insists U. S. Should Cling to Americanism as Defined by Roosevelt.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Criticizing the league of nations as "the most radical departure" from President Washington's policies and as spelling the end of the Monroe doctrine, Senator Borah of Idaho, republican member of foreign relations committee, declared today in the senate that before the plan was adopted the American people should be allowed to give a verdict on it.

The Idaho senator, who recently declined President Wilson's invitation to a White House conference next Wednesday to discuss the league constitution, insisted that the United States should steadfastly cling to Americanism as established by the fathers and as recently defined by former President Roosevelt. He charged that former President Taft made misleading statements about the effect of the league's plan on American policies.

Congratulated by Colleagues. When Senator Borah concluded an unusual demonstration occurred. While crowded galleries applauded, senators and visiting representatives crowded around the senator seeking to congratulate him. Among the senators were several democrats, including Thomas of Colorado; Gore of Oklahoma, Smith of Georgia and Vardaman of Mississippi.

Before Mr. Borah spoke Senator Sherman of Illinois, republican, introduced a resolution proposing that the senate request President Wilson not to discuss the league until after he confers with the senate, the coordinate treaty making branch, and to "preserve an impartial and unbiased mind" on the subject.

Hitchcock Preparing Address. Tomorrow the attack on the league in the senate is to be continued with Senator Reed of Missouri, democrat, speaking. Senator Hitchcock, chairman of the foreign relations committee, and Senator Lewis of Illinois, democratic whip, are reported planning addresses in support of the league early next week, when Senator Cummins of Iowa, republican, may also make an address.

Senator Borah said he made his speech today especially because of what he termed misleading statements of former President Taft. He disagreed with Mr. Taft's assertions that the league does not conflict with the Monroe doctrine or Washington's injunction against entangling alliances.

Declaring that America would be outvoted five to one by England alone, because of the recognition of British colonies, Senator Borah said the league constitution was "the greatest triumph of English diplomacy of three centuries." He added that the English press and other foreign authorities concede that the plan involves the end of the Monroe doctrine.

Omaha Waitress Becomes Heiress to $400,000 Estate

From a poorly paid Omaha waitress to an heiress worth $400,000 is the transition through which Miss Elizabeth Morris, 2221 Douglas street, is going when she receives the legacy left her by her aunt. Miss Morris has just been notified that she and her sister, Mrs. E. L. McLean of Chicago, have been left an $800,000 estate by Mrs. Elizabeth Seranton of San Francisco, an aunt. The estate is to be divided equally between them.

Miss Morris intends to continue serving patrons at a Larnam street cafeteria until the notice becomes a reality and she receives her portion of the wealth.

The announcement that she has been made heiress to a fortune greatly surprised the young woman and she has made no definite plans for the future.

American General Wears Tabooed Paraphernalia; Gets "Calling Down" From M. P.

Fur Collars and Canes Are in Violation of U. S. Army Uniform Regulations; Generals, Colonels, Chaplains and Privates, All Look Alike To Sergeant.

London, Feb. 21.—(Correspondence of Associated Press.)—Major General Biddle, commanding American forces in England, has been good-naturedly but firmly reminded by a sergeant of the military police that he was not conforming to regulations of dress. Likewise Bishop C. H. Brent of Boston, an army chaplain, and Col. John C. Groom, at one time head of the military police in France, have been numbered among officers who have been "called down" for not adhering strictly to uniform regulations.

Fur is not allowed anywhere on the American uniform. But in choosing a new raincoat General Biddle selected one with a very comfortable fur collar. The first time he stepped out of the entrance of the American headquarters into an automobile he was stopped by the military policeman at the door. "General, I must inform you that the fur collar you are wearing is a violation of uniform regulations," the sergeant said.

The best the general could do was to smile and hurry into the car, as he was late for his appointment, but the fur collar is no longer on the coat.

Bishop Brent also erred as regards fur collars. Colonel Groom, on coming over from Paris acquired a cane, evidently influenced by the almost universal custom among British officers. When entering headquarters he was told that officers were not allowed to carry canes, and when he left he was conforming to regulations.

RECOGNITION GIVEN BY ALLIES TO PADEREWSKI

Polish Premier Appeals to Parliament for Vote of Confidence; Pilsudski Made Head of State.

Paris, Feb. 21.—Official announcement was made today that the representatives of the allies at their meeting at the Quai D'Orsay today decided that the allies should recognize the Polish government, headed by Ignace Jan Paderewski. Warsaw, Feb. 21.—The second important meeting of Europe's newest parliament, the Polish national assembly, Thursday was marked by the formal turning over by Gen. Joseph Pilsudski of his authority as dictator and his return to him, subject to the approval of the diet. Ignace Jan Paderewski, the premier, informed the parliament of the country's situation and asked for a vote of confidence in the ministry.

The presence of peasants in national costume, with here and there priest and rabbi, testified that the assembly was not ruled by a clique of landed nobility.

Asks For Large Army. Premier Paderewski in a lengthy address, declared that the country needed a large army and compulsory service to fight bolshevism. Secondly, he said, another effort must be made to promote the prosperity of the workers and give them better homes. Land must be secured to peasants who had none and, more so, to those who had only a little, but land reforms must not be carried out too hastily. Equal rights must be given to all Polish citizens and freedom of speech guaranteed.

EISNER WITH 2 OTHERS ARE SHOT TO DEATH

(Continued from Page One.) deepest sorrow and condemnation of these shameful acts of murder. Nothing shows the breakdown of order more clearly than when murder becomes a political weapon. If the sacrifice death of Herr Eisner has good results, they will be in bringing us all together to do away with evil conditions. It would mean the ruin of Germany if all did not take this view and join in this condemnation.

The house stood while Chancellor Scheidemann spoke. Storm Police Station. Copenhagen, Feb. 21.—Spartan forces on Thursday stormed the police station and arrested the chief of police and several other persons according to reports from Berlin. The government forces attacked the Spartans and by 7 o'clock in the evening had recaptured all public buildings.

Several soldiers were wounded in the fighting. Sailors who formed the Spartan garrisons under the name of the "Committee for Protection" were arrested. Early in the day the Spartans had arrested the secretary of Premier Eisner and two members of the workmen's council, in addition to the chief of police. All those arrested were released.

Strike Spreading. Berlin, Feb. 21.—The strike in the Ruhr industrial region is still spreading, but it appears to be increasingly evident that only a small minority of the strikers are in sympathy with the Spartans and that the majority of them would go to work if they were permitted to do so.

Marshal Foch is reported to have consented to the sending by the government of troops against Düsseldorf, in the neutral zone fixed by the armistice. Clearing up of that city by the government forces would be a heavy blow for the communists, who are reported to have 15,000 armed adherents there. The Tagblatt, describing the capture of Bottrop recently by the Spartans, says that the Spartans called on the Bottrop authorities to give up their arms. When the demand was rejected, 3,000 Spartans advanced and bombarded Bottrop, causing great damage, including the shattering of the town hall.

Russia Takes Part. Paris, Feb. 21.—Nicholas Tschalkovsky, president of the northern Russian government at Archangel, who has been in Paris for several days, has consented to the participation of his government in the proposed meeting of Russian factions on the Princes islands.

HOUSE FAVORS BILL TO LICENSE CIGARET SALE

They contended that they were sincerely engaged in an effort that would be constructive legislation, that the present law was nullified because it was not backed by public sentiment and that it was a menace to all law because it had no qualities which the public could respect.

They called the attention of the members of the house to the fact that the senate of the state of Iowa had passed a law similar to the one they advocated, after Iowa had had experience with a law like that on the Nebraska statutes which was not enforceable.

They agreed that to all intents and purposes there was now no law on the subject of the regulation, sale of or gift of cigars, because the present statute was a dead letter and they were greater friends of the movement toward prohibition of the use of cigars by persons under 21 than the persons who opposed the passage of the bill.

Larsen of Douglas, offered a motion to prohibit the sale, manufacture, gift or use of cigars in any form in this state by any person, but this was also voted down. It was brought out during the debate that the law as amended has been sanctioned by the attorney general, who has assured the sponsors that it will be a workable and enforceable law, because it will have public sentiment behind it, and that this department will see to its enforcement. Rodman, made a masterly speech in favor of the bill, declaring it was a step forward and a conscientious and sincere effort toward effective regulation.

Congress Recognized Insurance as a Big Business Feature

"The recognition of insurance as one of the leading lines of business receiving consideration by the Trans-Atlantic Adjustment congress is in line with the progressive character of the entire undertaking," said H. H. Lovell, insurer, in speaking of the congress just closed in Omaha. "The spirit of the congress has been largely the recognition of necessity to halt a growing tendency towards centralization and bolshevistic paternalism in all lines. The cable news from Russia of the taking over without recompense of the entire assets of all insurance companies of the soviet government had it come a day earlier might have strongly emphasized to the congress the necessity of halting a similar tendency by the unpatriotic and ultra-socialistic elements in this country."

"The congress was not representative of either extreme capital interests or the opposite, but of substantial, honest and aggressive business interests, and the strong recommendations included in the resolutions expressing the combined thought of the conference along the line of independence of individual effort and initiative, the depreciation of unfair treatment of public utilities by governmental agencies, and against condemnation and unfair publicity by unproven charges against business organizations cannot apply nor be more helpful to any interest than to the interests of insurance."

"The entire trend of public thought influenced by the broadly educational discussions of these problems is sure to be conducive of broader and more considered recognition of the infinitely extensive relations between insurance and other industry. The conference cannot fail to be most beneficial in continuing prosperous business activities, and insurance is so closely related to business and business so dependent upon it that the general good to general business will be shared by all lines of insurance endeavor."

Eight Nabbed in Raid on Soft Drink Place

Eight persons were arrested in a raid on a soft drink parlor, operated by J. B. Castleman, 1402 North Twenty-fourth street, last night. Seven were booked for gambling when the officers of the morals' squad found money and cards on the tables. Castleman was charged with being the keeper of the place. The money found on the tables was given in payment for soft drinks, the inmates told police. The arresting officers said the men were gambling. The inmates were released under bonds of $100 each. Castleman gave a $200 bond.

Danish Delegation Appears Before the Paris Peace Council

Paris, Feb. 21.—A delegation from Denmark will be heard by the supreme council today in connection with the future of Schleswig-Holstein, which Germany took from Denmark in 1866. The delegation proposes a plebiscite for the northern section, but not for the southern section, which includes the Kiel canal. Denmark is the first neutral state to send delegates before the council, and their appearance is an indication of the universal range which the peace conference readjustment is taking. Polish and Albanian delegations, it was expected, also will be heard by the council today. The peace conference commission on international labor legislation at its meeting today under the presidency of Samuel Gompers continued its discussion of the British plan for an international labor organization.

Proceedings of ratification enforced by different states and bills adopted by the international labor conference also were studied. The subcommittee on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways continued its study of various questions.
