

PETERSON BILL
ADVANCED FOR
THIRD READING

Provides That Delegates to Constitutional Assembly Shall Receive Same
Pay as Legislature.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Lincoln, Feb. 21.—With only one slight change, the senate today advanced S. F. 217, the Peterson bill, providing for a constitutional convention under the provisions of the amendment adopted at the November election, to third reading and passage.

The one amendment which the senate authorized was in Section 4, which provided that signers of petitions for the nomination of candidates pledged themselves to vote for the candidate whose petition they signed. The section was amended so that it reads "that the signer recommends that the candidate be elected."

The bill as drawn by the constitutional amendment committee of which Peterson is chairman, provided that the delegates to the constitutional assembly should receive the same pay as members of the legislature and also be granted mileage.

Senator W. J. Taylor submitted an amendment which would have restricted the pay of the members of the convention to not in excess of $600, but the proposed amendment was voted down.

The bill provides that in the primary selection of candidates shall be nonpartisan. Under the provisions of the bill the convention is to be opened in Lincoln December 2, 1914, and delegates are to be elected in November. The primary election will be held earlier in the summer. Each district in Nebraska will be entitled to the same representation at the convention which it now has in the legislature.

Green Bill Passes House by Margin of Six Votes

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—During the business session of the house today, J. Reed Green's bill providing for the payment of discharged employees immediately on termination of their jobs, with the penalty of allowing wages to continue until paid, met with opposition, but was passed with a margin of six votes to spare.

A bill was passed ordering the printing of the 1915, 1917, 1918 and 1919 session laws as a supplement to the 1913 volume of the revised statutes.

State Prison Could Find Use for Many More Convicts

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Not only is prison labor to conduct industries maintained at the Nebraska penitentiary, extending to such things as the institution could find good use for 50 or 100 more convicts if they could be obtained.

This information is contained in a public statement issued Friday by S. A. Holcomb, member of the State Board of Control, sounding a warning that there would be little Nebraska prison labor available for work on public highways.

The prison population in January dwindled to 279 men and two women, the statement says. Inmate population in times past has been well over 400.

Whisky in Mail Sack
Puzzles State Officers, Who Finally Trace It

Lincoln, Feb. 21.—(Special.)—A mysterious keg of whisky, now reposing in the vaults of the Adams, Neb., postoffice, is puzzling state prohibition officials, who have notified Federal District Attorney T. S. Allen.
Agent Hyers says that a small keg in a mail sack was dumped off a train at Adams and the keg was not delivered to the postoffice. The postmaster heard of the incident and demanded the keg, according to Mr. Hyers. The agent put the keg in a freight car and sent it to Sterling, Neb., according to the chief enforcing officer, and wired the section boss there to retrieve it and bring it to Adams.

Nebraska Third in Value of Live Stock;
Raises Sugar Beets

From a Staff Correspondent.
Lincoln, Feb. 21.—Nebraska ranked third in total value of cattle, hogs and sheep in the state January 1, 1914, according to the bi-weekly bulletin issued by Secretary Danielson of the state department of agriculture. Iowa and Illinois are the only two other states ahead.

In the total value of all live stock, including horses and mules, Nebraska stands fourth. The state is 17th in value of crops for 1913.
With a sugar belt acreage of 42-831 acres in 1913, Nebraska ranks fifth in the union in production of beet sugar, sixth in beet sugar acreage. The acreage in 1909 was 4,191 and in 1912 31,337 acres.
The four factories of the state bought 446,123 tons of beets for $4,433,746 in 1913, making the gross return per acre on beets of $103.51.
The bulletin presents Nebraska's figures to show that the ratio corn prices to the value of 100 pounds of hogs was $11.76 in 1913, compared with $13.07 for the average of 1910 to 1914 and $10.38 for the United States in 1913.

State Press Association

Lincoln, Feb. 21.—(Special.)—The Nebraska house of representatives suspended business for three quarters of an hour Friday morning in order to enjoy a visit and receive greetings from the Nebraska State Press association. While President B. Cass of the association occupied Speaker Dalbey's chair, several talks were made by members of the organization and of the legislature, and the house also listened to some music from the young women's glee club of Doane college, Crete.

State Auditor Turns Down has turned down a claim for $29.03 filed by Miss Maynetta Marks, war-fice under the old administration, for nine days' time from January 1, 1914, to January 9, when the new administration took charge. Former Auditor W. H. Smith had previously rejected the claim on the ground that he had hired and paid for a substitute for Miss Marks during the nine-day period while she was absent on account of sickness.

SEN. HOAGLAND
"PEEVED" OVER
WATER MEASURE

Bill Affecting Omaha Plant Reported Out for General File; Provides for Salary Boost.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Lincoln, Feb. 21.—State Senator Walter V. Hoagland admitted in the senate this morning that he was nursing a personal "peeve" against Senator John W. Robbins of Omaha.
Hoagland's confession came in connection with a committee report on S. F. 129, the Omaha water board bill which is being sponsored by B. B. Howell. The committee had reported the bill out for general file.
That the bill had been reported out of the committee on municipal affairs, of which he is a member, was the charge Hoagland made.
Senator Robbins is chairman of the committee and is also sponsoring the bill.
Senator Robbins was not present at the session this morning so that his colleague, Senator C. J. Saunders, took up his defense. He said that Hoagland had told the chairman that he refused to attend another meeting of the committee.

Hoagland Riled.
At this point Hoagland became riled and informed Saunders that he had not made such a statement; it was absolutely false. In the absence of his colleague, Saunders refused to yield a point and indicated he did not have anything to retract. The bill was accordingly placed on the committee of the whole.

The measure provides a salary boost for the general manager, R.
B. Howell, by removing the restriction of $5,000 as the salary limit, allows the board of directors to fill vacancies which occur for the unexpired term of the incumbent instead of only until the next general election, authorizes the insurance of employees, provides for payment of fire protection by precincts outside of the city limits and gives the district the right of eminent domain.

Insurrection Breaks
Out Among Bluejackets;
Quelled by Soldiers

Basel, Feb. 21.—A reactionary insurrection broke out at Munich on Wednesday night, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung. Demobilized Bavarian bluejackets attacked the Diet house and occupied the telegraph office and police headquarters, but were dislodged by government troops.

Prince Joachim of Prussia, sixth son of the former emperor, was arrested, it being reported that he apparently had some connection with the movement. He has been staying at Munich under the name of Count Merz. The government has announced that it has taken the necessary measures to protect the diet and punish the persons responsible for the uprising.

Copenhagen, Feb. 21.—Prince Joachim of Prussia, sixth son of the former emperor, was not involved in incidents at Munich on Wednesday night, according to a dispatch received here, which adds that the prince and his consort are returning to Prussia under escort.

Many Prostitutes Being Manufactured in Omaha

Reverend Calhoun Censures Stand Taken by Mayor; Real Estate Men Wax Fat
from High Rentals.

Mayor Smith's stand to rid Omaha of prostitutes by driving them from the city was strongly censured by Rev. Paul Calhoun Wednesday afternoon at the Douglas county W.
C. T. U. institute, held in the Y. W.
C. A.
"The mayor said there was no welcome for prostitutes in Omaha.
They'd have to move on. Well, the prostitute doesn't always come from elsewhere. Many of them are manufactured right here in Omaha," said Rev. Calhoun.
Fighting the class of so-called decent citizenship and church members connected with the vice evil is what makes the battle hard, according to the reverend gentleman.
"We can fight the devil in his own garb but not the wolves in sheep's clothing. We've found the saloon evil and we're fighting the bootlegger and the trafficker in women, but it's the real estate man who waxes fat on the high rental of these properties, bankers who hold the mortgages and politicians who wield the influence which is against us in the fight."

Huns Not Observing
the Armistice Terms in Posen, Say British

Warsaw, Feb. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—The Germans are reported not to be observing the provisions of the armistice agreement as to fighting in Posen, and it is said that skirmishes have occurred at scattered points. The morale of the Germans is said to be low, as is evidenced by the sale of a battery of artillery to a Polish Catholic priest, the price being 6,000 marks.

Colonel Haller, Polish chief of staff, announced in a bulletin that there is military activity all along the Galician frontier. Attacks by Ukrainian troops have been repulsed in that region. In Lithuania thousands of bolsheviks have been routed and 80 prisoners taken.

Two million pounds of flour have arrived from Danzig, coming through from the Germans. American officers will supervise sales of the flour getting it.

To Issue Passports
Only to Travelers on Essential Business

Washington, Feb. 21.—At the request of the British and French governments, the State department has adopted a policy under which hereafter passports for travelers in those countries will be refused to all persons except those going on essential business. Both Great Britain and France recently made formal request that passports to travelers be limited as rigidly as possible because of transportation difficulties and abnormal conditions.

An official denial was made today of reports that the British government had requested particularly that passports be refused prohibition agitators.

the conduct of the war.

REED DEFENDS
BOLSHEVIKI IN
U. S. CAPITOL

Writer, Who Calls Himself Revolutionary Socialist, Says New Russian Regime Is Doing "Great Work."

Washington, Feb. 21.—John Reed, a writer who described himself as a "revolutionary socialist," told the senate committee investigating lawless agitation today that he believed the bolshevik regime in Russia was doing "great work" and that he was a firm advocate of a revolution in the United States. He followed his wife, Louise Bryant, on the stand and like her denied stories of atrocities related by the previous witness.
On cross examination, Reed could not recall that he said last Sunday in a speech at Yonkers, N.
Y., that "3,000,000 rifles are in the hands of 3,000,000 Russian workmen and soon 3,000,000 rifles will be in the hands of American workmen to do the same thing that is being done in Russia."
He also said he "couldn't imagine" himself stating in another speech in New York that he had started the bolshevik movement and soon expected that there would be "something doing" in New York, Baltimore, Albany, Syracuse, Boston and other cities of the east.

Reed's Financial Backing.
Reed, who spent some time in Russia, freely admitted that he was employed in the international revolutionary propaganda bureau of the bolshevik ministry of foreign affairs in Petrograd and told the committee that he expected to start an "information bureau" in New York soon. He said he had discussed the matter with some persons there and added:

"There are some wealthy women in New York who have nothing else to do with their money." The witness said he did not speak at the meeting in a Washington theater, which was largely responsible for the present investigation because he was considered too disreputable, having been indicted for saying things that Senator Johnson has since said in the senate.

Prefers Peaceful Revolution.
In a long discussion with Senator Wolcott of Delaware, regarding his beliefs in respect to law Reed declared that "the will of the people be done, if not by peaceful means, then by force."
"Unfortunately," he added, "profound social changes usually have been accompanied by the use of force, but I never have been able to see any reason why they could not have been accomplished otherwise." The witness said in his opinion the American government as at present constituted had never been brought to the real test as to whether it was flexible enough to admit such great "reforms" as those in Russia and asserted that he favored the nationalization of industry and land. He said he did not think he had ever been affiliated with any anarchistic movement and that he was very much against the abolition of all government.

Albert Rhys Williams, another writer, will appear before the committee tomorrow.

"If Her
Complexion
Wasn't So
Sallow"

You've seen lots of people who would be decidedly good looking if only their complexions were not so sallow and bad.
That comes from the poisons created by food-waste fermenting in the bowels. These poisons seep into the blood and are carried to all parts of the body. The lungs, kidneys and skin pores do their utmost to throw them off. When they fail, it means not only sallow complexions but often serious diseases.
You can easily avoid constipation if you use SALINOS—your drug-
