

BRIDE OVERSEAS, OFFICER AWAITS HER IN OMAHA

Lieutenant Cooley is Secretly Married to Kansas City Red Cross Worker Who Served in France.

Conditions are reversed in the case of Lt. Paul Cooley of the 41st infantry, stationed at Camp Funston, who is awaiting the return of his bride from overseas, instead of the usual situation in which the war time bride waits the return of her warrior husband. The marriage of Miss Eva Macy of Kansas City to Lt. Paul Cooley, son of Mrs. A. J. Cooley of Omaha, took place in October in Kansas City.

The bride had been accepted for overseas service and as the Red Cross will not accept married women as canteen workers she was forced to sail under her maiden name for France. For this reason no formal announcement was made of the marriage and now the officer is expecting the return of his bride. Lieutenant Cooley was educated in the Omaha schools enlisting in the army when the United States declared war. He received his commission at Fort Crook when the 41st infantry was stationed there under the command of Col. Douglas S. Settle. The young officer was transferred to Camp Funston early in the fall shortly before his marriage to the pretty Kansas City girl.

Bressman, and sister, Anna Bressman, of this city were at his bedside. He is survived by his father, Theodore Bressman and several brothers and sisters in this city.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If feverish, bilious, constipated, give fruit laxative at once.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today keeps a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember, there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

Alkali in Soap Bad for the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulitified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINT

It is not necessary to shampoo your hair so frequently if it is entirely and properly cleansed each time by the use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers is one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair and may be enjoyed at very little expense, by dissolving a teaspoonful of cantrox which can be obtained from any druggist, in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just to the top of the head. This, when rubbed into the scalp and onto every strand of hair, chemically dissolves all impurities. It is very soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to both scalp and hair. After rinsing out the lather so created, you will find the scalp is fresh, clean and free from dandruff, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Adv.

Father of Disillusioned Lass Comes to Omaha to Take Daughter Back to Farm

Goldie Bayles this is—but not as she started on her western trip—the prettiness, the smiles and the coquettishness have been left behind in the city jail, where she was during the night. Goldie is her name, but indeed her appearance is as dusky a brunette as deep black hair and the darkest of dark eyes could make. Insert is Edward Cox man with whom she eloped.

Forgiving Parent Threatens to Shoot Married Man, Who Faces Mann Act Charge for Escapade.

Here to reclaim his 15-year-old daughter, Goldie, who eloped with a married man and came to Omaha, E. D. Bayles, farm manager at Chula, Mo., yesterday with a sob flung his arms around the girl when he was admitted to the matron's department at the city jail. "You'll come home, Goldie, won't you? Mother and me want you back, no matter what has happened," were his words as he clasped the child for whom he had been searching for three days.

Arrested with Girl.

Edward Cox, 26 years old, the man with whom Goldie eloped, was arrested in company with her Sunday, when Omaha police found them together at a downtown hotel. The father of the girl arrived in Omaha yesterday from Chillicothe, Mo.

"I'd have shot Cox," he said, "if I found him anywhere but in jail. As it was, he only missed death by a few hours, because if I'd gone to Chillicothe instead of going the other way to hunt them I would probably have found them, and then they'd have had me in jail for murder."

Faces Statutory Charge.

Cox will be taken back to Chillicothe, Mo., later to answer to a statutory charge and one of white slavery. Deputy Sheriff Sam Rohrer of Chula came with the girl's father to serve the papers.

The elopement was carried out with the aid of a third person, whom Bayles says is John Burnett, a farmer of Chula. The pair met at his farm late Friday afternoon and remained there until nearly midnight, when they drove to town and caught a train for Omaha. Burnett will also be prosecuted.

Had Railroad Tickets.

Cox, when arrested, had tickets for Denver, Colo., in his bill fold. The fact that he paid the girl's fare from Missouri to Omaha will constitute evidence for a white slave charge, officials say. He will not fight extradition.

Powder Always Shows On a Rough Skin

Do you realize that your skin would look twice as nice if you used a finishing cream every time before you put on face powder?

Follow this simple formula—

"A little CRÈME ELCAYA rubbed gently into the skin then if you need color a very little good rouge saved from the cream is quite dry; and after the dry film of face powder over all."

South Side ROOMMATE OF MAN FOUND DEAD IS QUESTIONED

South Side Resident Discovers on Tracks Thought to Have Suffered Accident.

An inquest will be held this morning at 9 o'clock to determine the cause of the death of John Kwialowski, 3318 K street. Kwialowski was found unconscious beneath the Burlington viaduct, Twenty-eighth and A streets Sunday night and died in the Lord Lister hospital Monday morning.

South Side police arrested Frank Harenda, a roommate of Kwialowski's, and took him to the county attorney's office, where he was questioned. He was not held. A coroner's autopsy on Kwialowski indicated that death was due to a fractured skull. The body is at the Crosby undertaking parlor.

Head Badly Bruised.

His head was bruised in a number of places as if he had been attacked with a blunt instrument. Police at first thought Kwialowski was struck by a train while making his way across the viaduct.

Robbery is not thought to have been the motive, as a purse containing $12 was found in the dead man's pocket when Yardmaster Clarence Aldrich found the unconscious body and rushed him to the Union station on a switch engine.

Were Together Sunday.

Harenda, under examination, told the police that with Kwialowski he had visited in the neighborhood of Thirty-eighth and H streets Sunday afternoon. The pair had a few drinks of whisky, he said, and after being there for several hours they in some way became separated.

Both men were employed at South Side packing houses. They had known each other for several months.

"Meetings, which are held every Wednesday from 9 in the morning till 5 in the afternoon, have an
