

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Where true love bestows its sweetness, Where true friendship lays its hands, Dwells all greatness, all completeness, All the wealth of every land.—Aron.

How'er it be, it seems to me 'Tis only able to be good: Kind hearts are more than coronets, And simple faith than Norman blood.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. E. Burke Meet Many Omahans in Sunny California

Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Burke, who returned Friday from a delightful honeymoon spent in California, met many Omaha people during their stay in the land of sunshine which has become a veritable Mecca for Omahans during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke also met the Misses Marjorie and Mildred Foote who were staying in Los Angeles as there was a serious influenza epidemic at Pasadena where they make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen stopped at the same hotel with the Burkes and they met Mr. and Mrs. Will Coad during their stay in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke will be with Mr. Burke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burke until they secure an apartment. Mrs. Burke's father, Mr. J. E. Fitzgerald and sister, Mrs. Zora Hamilton, who are now on the coast will remain for another month.

For Mrs. MacDowell. A delightful tea was held Sunday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Borglum, when the MacDowell club entertained in honor of Mrs. Edward MacDowell widow of America's greatest composer.

Among the things she'd got together to be prepared for warmer weather, one finds this frock in dainty plaid, the finest voile that's to be had.

Combined in style that must delight with overskirt and vest of white. (Copyright Applied For.)

Dinner Parties. Many small dinner parties followed by the theater are being given in these last few weeks before Lent.

Brownell Hall Dance. A delightful dancing party is being planned by the faculty of Brownell hall for the older students.

Special Meeting of Woman's Club. A special meeting of the Omaha Woman's club will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Y. W. C. A.

A dinner will be served by the Ladies auxiliary of the Park Vale Presbyterian church at the church, Thursday evening from 5:30 to 7.

Fashionable Nancy

Our Nancy isn't one to waste her time and then to buy in haste. For it's best, she's always said, when buying clothes to look ahead.

Mr. Howard Baldrige has returned from a trip to New York. Mr. F. L. Crofoot will return Thursday from the east.

Mrs. W. A. Redick has returned from Excelsior Springs. Mr. and Mrs. William Holzman are at French Lick Springs.

Mrs. Helen Cook Dumas spent the week-end at Schuyler, Neb. Mr. T. F. Mulligan is seriously ill at his home, 2615 Davenport street.

Dundee Community Center Red Cross auxiliary will meet at the Dundee Presbyterian church, Wednesday from 1 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. Milton Shaw Kimball who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Ingwersen and his fiancée, Miss Helen Ingwersen, will remain for another week.

Mr. William Sherman Ruxton of Chicago, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Osgood Eastman, and his fiancée, Miss Helen Eastman, for several days, returned to his home, Sunday evening.

Ensign Paul S. Griswold, who has been stationed at Camp Lawrence, Great Lakes, has been released, but is a member of the United States naval reserve. Ensign Griswold has returned to Omaha and occupies his former position.

For the Future. Mrs. Robert Reasoner will entertain at an afternoon bridge on Friday, when the younger matrons and several of the brides-to-be will be among the guests.

Mrs. Howard Farrell will entertain at a benefit luncheon for the Dundee Woman's Patriotic club at her home, Tuesday.

For a Bride-To-Be. Many affairs will be given for Miss Marjorie Howland, who will be a springtime bride. Mrs. A. R. Busch will entertain at tea at the Blackstone, Thursday, in her honor.

Beatrice Fairfax's Lovelorn Advice

A Question Settled. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: There has been a discussion between another party and myself about the letters in your column of the Bee.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have recently returned from the service and my sergeant stripes seem to make me all the more attractive.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I would like to ask your advice, how to become less attractive, being that I do not use neither powder or rouge as many of the young men of this town do.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We are two girls, 15 years old. We have dark hair and eyes and considered beautiful and are popular. We are five feet, four inches tall.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a constant reader to your "Advice to the Lovelorn" and enjoy it very much. I have come to you for advice and hope you can help me out.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a young gentleman, who appears to be very nice. He calls in the evenings and stays till almost 3 o'clock.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a young couple, 18 years old, and are contemplating eloping. We have been going together two years and love each other desperately.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We are a tall, good looking young man, with blue eyes, light hair and am very much annoyed by the fair sex, and would like to ask your advice.

BEAUTY SECRETS!

Where she gets her good looks, her healthy skin, her pink cheeks, is known to every one, because it is apparent that it is not due to cosmetics, paint and powder. But the true womanly beauty comes from good health, and this good health is a woman's secret.
