

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Truth is a cave; to him who only stands outside all is dark, but to him who boldly enters in and looks out into the sunlight, all is clear.

I never knew a day so dear, But on its leader sky was hung Some shadow of a rainbow clear, From vanished joy in farewell flung.

Grinnell College Glee Club to Sing in Omaha

A musical treat is in store for Omahans for the Grinnell Male Glee club will give a concert March 26 at the First Central Congregational church. Many music lovers will re-

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and, as a rule, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

ATWOOD GRAPEFRUIT

The superiority of Atwood Grapefruit is not an accident. From the first planting the Atwood Grapefruit Co. has sacrificed everything for QUALITY. An initial expense of hundreds of thousands of dollars was incurred, while everything that scientific culture and experience could suggest was done to produce QUALITY. Even then some trees at maturity bore simply good grapefruit, but not good enough for the Atwood Brand. These trees were cut down and replaced by superior varieties.

So through selection and cultivation has evolved the delicious ATWOOD GRAPEFRUIT—"the Aristocrat of the Breakfast Table."

One look through the Bakery—from its glistening sunlight dough rooms clear down to those beautiful white tiled ovens would make the everlasting impression that would make you insist upon getting none other than

Hard Roll Bread

Your Grocer Has It. Peterson & Pagan Baking Co.

member the exceptional program given by these college men several years ago in Omaha and their second appearance is being eagerly anticipated.

College glee clubs throughout the country have been greatly harmed by the war, many of the best singers leaving the schools to enlist. Grinnell has been fortunate, however, in retaining all the talented soloists and the glee club maintains its former standard. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Woman's association of the church and the proceeds will be used for the building fund.

Miscellaneous Shower.

A miscellaneous shower was given Tuesday evening by the Tel Jed Sok members in honor of Mrs. Charles Spicka, a recent bride. Those present were:

- Misses—Rose Dwarak, Marie Lantovica, Rosa Mastika, Emma Cecha, Josephine Chapek, Stella Smolovsky, Albie Jiskra, Minnie Dridlik, Vlasta Kronek, Mary Dohnalek, Katherine Wolf, Rosa Kroupa. Madames—C. E. Dridlik, C. T. Pavlik, J. E. Moudka, James Prus, J. J. Davitt, B. Dienstler. Misses—Antonette Fiata, Louise Sterba, Mary Swoboda, Bejanka Hafka, Milostenska Kaiser, Marie Janak, Anna Novak, Vlasta Rnoch, Olga Chada, Bada Bailey. Madames—J. P. Swoboda, H. Fielichian, Chas. Dugan, Chas. Spicka, B. Sionar.

At the Blackstone.

The Misses Ada and Alice Alexander entertained 12 guests at luncheon at the Blackstone, Thursday followed by bridge.

Several large parties will be given at the hotel the latter part of the week. Mr. H. K. Taylor will entertain 20 guests at dinner, Friday evening followed by dancing. A luncheon party of 20 guests will be entertained by Mrs. Ed Lowry, Saturday.

For Bride Elect.

A pretty luncheon party was given by Mrs. Cyril Langan at the Blackstone, Thursday, when Miss Marjorie Howland, March bride, was honor guest. White tulips artistically arranged in a silver vase formed a beautiful centerpiece for the luncheon table and pretty favors marked the places of the following guests:

- Misses—A. R. Busch, Frank Walker, Hugh Langan. Madames—Herold Sobotker, Chester Nieman, Arthur Fuchs. Misses—Martha Smalley, Dorothy Collier, Winifred Brandt, Frances Patton, Margaret Parrish, Betty Kennedy, Alice Huntington, Frances Cieslak, Margaret Hart.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Organ of Council Bluffs, announce the engagement of their daughter, Edith, to Daniel H. Sheehan of Omaha. The wedding will take place early in May. Mr. Sheehan is engaged in the practice of law here.

Winter Dancing Club.

An informal dancing party will be given by the Winter Dancing Club at Hartle Hall, Friday evening. A formal dance will be given March 21, at the hall. This will be in the nature of a springtime affair with special decorations and music.

Miss Helen Pearce and Miss Edith Hamilton are taking stenographic courses preparatory to entering the business world.

THESE DURABLE SOLES WORN BY MILLIONS

"After giving Neolin Soles a thorough trial, I would not go back to the soles I used to wear even though the cost were less. I receive twice the service from shoes with Neolin Soles," writes G. P. Jones, of Omaha. More than 10,000,000 pairs of Neolin Soles have been put on American shoes. People were quick to realize the advantages of this scientifically-made sole—its long wear, its comfort, waterproofness—and its final economy. Good shoe stores everywhere sell Neolin-soled shoes in many styles for men, women, and children.

And any repairman will re-sole your worn shoes with Neolin Soles—made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also makes Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Neolin Soles

There's nothing that could mar or spoil The beauty of this fine silk voile Nor color that's more sure to please Than this French blue from overseas; One glance, of course, and you can tell That Nancy wears it very well.

So quaint the bodice and the neck, The open sleeves that flare a speck, That it's not difficult to guess Why Nancy loves this special dress. "It's life," she often tells her mother, "It's one wide tuck after another." (Copyright applied for.)

Personals

Mrs. John Kuhn and Miss Marion Kuhn of Los Angeles will visit friends in Omaha this summer.

Mrs. J. F. Prentiss of Lingle, Wyo, formerly of Omaha, will be the house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parrish for two weeks.

Omahans who are stopping at the Hotel McAlpin in New York include Mr. Jerry Van Rensselaer, Mrs. C. A. Pratt, Mr. M. J. Lawless and Mr. A. B. Rutherford.

Cards have been received announcing the arrival of a daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. and Mrs. William G. Stewart of Colorado Springs, February 21. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Ruth Bircbard of Omaha.

Future Events. A musical will be given under the auspices of the Benson Woman's club, March 27. Ethelbert Levm's music will be presented by Mrs. Myrtle Von Gundy and Mrs. D. J. Adams, soloists. Miss Marguerite

First American Woman to Cross the Rhine

Miss Frances Marion

The first American woman to cross the Rhine since the signing of the armistice has come back to the United States. She is Miss Frances Marion—with emphasis on the "Miss" for she is not married as recent reports from abroad indicated—former scenario writer. Miss Marion is responsible for the scripts of recent Mary Pickford-Artcraft pictures including "Johanna, Enlist," "Captain Kidd, jr.," "How Could You Jean," "Stella Marie," etc.

She has been abroad for the past five months during which time she has seen some of the thickest of the fighting. Miss Marion gave up her work in motion pictures in order to do her bit and became connected with the committee on public information. In this capacity she went abroad to carry out an idea which she had offered to the government and which was accepted, to prepare a big film on the activities of American women in the war. During her five months in France Miss Marion had many thrilling experiences. On one of these occasions she and the cameraman were on the job for 10 days and nights with very little to eat and hardly any sleep. During this time there was no opportunity even to change clothing. All this took place right at the very front during one of the big "shows."

"I did not marry 'over there' as the papers said," stated Miss Marion. "I will admit, however, that there is a romance on," she added shyly. No amount of questioning would bring any further information in this connection. "It was all very wonderful and although I would not like to go through it again, I would not sell the experience for millions."

Liljenstolte will play the accompaniment. There will also be a woman's chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ziegman will entertain at a reception in honor of their daughter, Dora, at their home, Sunday. They will receive their friends between the hours of 2 to 5 and 8 to 12.

Mrs. Herman Lehmer will entertain the March social meeting of the Woman's Association of Plymouth Congregational church, at her home Friday afternoon.

Novel Notions. The peg top silhouette is still with us. Hats will be large or medium sized.

Heavy sports silks are again popular. Tapestry will be used for evening coats. Hominy, like rice should never be stirred.

Tunics appear in every conceivable shape. Baby Irish lace is returning to popularity. The separate blouse and skirt will be much worn.

The new Cinderella silk is having a great vogue. A surprise chemisette of rose colored voile has neck and front outlined with pleated bands of voile.

No starch should be used in washing except that which is thoroughly cooked. A bread sponge made with yeast is light enough to use when it is full of bubbles.

Mrs. Cora Wellhouse Bullard, known as the most successful woman farmer in Kansas, is a life honorary member of the state board of agriculture.

Advertisement for Gooch's Best Macaroni, featuring a picture of the product and text: "Most People Expect Gooch's Best Macaroni to be a little better than any other—and it is!"

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Your answers to the "lovelorn" are surely the wisest of wise answers. I am in earnest, and I hope you will consider it as such. I have gone—off and on—with a young man for four years. It seems as if, after so many months of association we long for one another's company. However, it does not take long before we quarrel, and what is each and every quarrel caused by? One word explains it—"jealousy." Please tell me what jealousy is, Miss Fairfax. He accuses me of false intentions with regard to other boy friends. He claims his is true love's company. However, it is love at all?

I have no mother in whom to confide, therefore my sister serves as my counsel. But her answer to my queries is: "Wait, you will be the doctor." So I will. All of which is true, but I don't believe I know my own mind. I have many friends—both boys and girls. I am a live girl and like a good and clean jolly time. I have treated my boy friends alike—as sensibly but whole-heartedly as possible. But one by one, in spite of all, they become serious. My sister says and always has insisted that I encourage them. If I do, it is certainly unintentional.

To return to my first question, the said young man is a very clean type—no bad habits. But I certainly am at a loss what to do. Do you think I

Heart Beats

By A. K.

Much publicity is being given to the philanthropic Patriotic Democratic Chorus "Ladies" because a few of them have paid income tax. And a lot of them have taken part in soldier and sailor and liberty bond performances.

Which makes them glittering gay little heroines. And the managers and producers are basking in the light of favorable comment. Because they were so generous with their companies. But we happen to know that the tired little chorus girls because "they" had to and so very few earn enough income to come under the tax law.

That the government will not notice. When they pay. Of course we would not dispute Mr. Edwards' who is the Revenue Collector. But when he says that not one of these dear little chorus girls ever tries to cheat and that they come flocking by the thousands to pay their tax to a rich government income tax and patriotic collector—

And that Albee and the Shuberts-Klaw and Erlanger Marcus Lowe and Woods Dillingham and Brady Ames and Fox Moss and Morosco Broadhurst and Ziegfeld Selwyn, Comstock & Guest Harris estate, Cohan Et al. Patriotically gave their casts (which is really the services of tired workers) we sit back and laugh for we know that this was done—To keep the stage among the War necessities. So when Edwards says that actors and actresses are vying with each other for the early payment of income tax and patriotic endeavors we sit back and agree with some one who said "Believe nothing you hear and only half you see."

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl 15 years old, who is very much in love with a man 46 years old. He is very rich, has heart disease, and he makes a great deal over me. My folks are against this marriage, what would you advise me to do? I have dark hair and brown eyes and am considered very good looking. My husband would give me everything money could buy and I know I would be happy. I remain a daily reader of the Lovelorn.

P. S.—I have a girl friend who is beautiful, but is not allowed to go away from home on Sunday. How would you advise me to persuade her folks to let her go? Sixteen and 46—just 30 years difference. When you are 40 and charmingly mature, your husband will be 70 and decidedly feeble. Your husband might give you everything money could buy—money buys very little of happiness. A man with whom you were in love could buy you sufficient clothes and food, probably, and that is about all money can do after all. Of course, if you wish to sell yourself to a man who has heart disease, on the gambler

Mercurial at 16. Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl 15 years old, who is very much in love with a man 46 years old. He is very rich, has heart disease, and he makes a great deal over me. My folks are against this marriage, what would you advise me to do? I have dark hair and brown eyes and am considered very good looking. My husband would give me everything money could buy and I know I would be happy. I remain a daily reader of the Lovelorn.

P. S.—I have a girl friend who is beautiful, but is not allowed to go away from home on Sunday. How would you advise me to persuade her folks to let her go? Sixteen and 46—just 30 years difference. When you are 40 and charmingly mature, your husband will be 70 and decidedly feeble. Your husband might give you everything money could buy—money buys very little of happiness. A man with whom you were in love could buy you sufficient clothes and food, probably, and that is about all money can do after all. Of course, if you wish to sell yourself to a man who has heart disease, on the gambler

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl 15 years old, who is very much in love with a man 46 years old. He is very rich, has heart disease, and he makes a great deal over me. My folks are against this marriage, what would you advise me to do? I have dark hair and brown eyes and am considered very good looking. My husband would give me everything money could buy and I know I would be happy. I remain a daily reader of the Lovelorn.

P. S.—I have a girl friend who is beautiful, but is not allowed to go away from home on Sunday. How would you advise me to persuade her folks to let her go? Sixteen and 46—just 30 years difference. When you are 40 and charmingly mature, your husband will be 70 and decidedly feeble. Your husband might give you everything money could buy—money buys very little of happiness. A man with whom you were in love could buy you sufficient clothes and food, probably, and that is about all money can do after all. Of course, if you wish to sell yourself to a man who has heart disease, on the gambler

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl 15 years old, who is very much in love with a man 46 years old. He is very rich, has heart disease, and he makes a great deal over me. My folks are against this marriage, what would you advise me to do? I have dark hair and brown eyes and am considered very good looking. My husband would give me everything money could buy and I know I would be happy. I remain a daily reader of the Lovelorn.

P. S.—I have a girl friend who is beautiful, but is not allowed to go away from home on Sunday. How would you advise me to persuade her folks to let her go? Sixteen and 46—just 30 years difference. When you are 40 and charmingly mature, your husband will be 70 and decidedly feeble. Your husband might give you everything money could buy—money buys very little of happiness. A man with whom you were in love could buy you sufficient clothes and food, probably, and that is about all money can do after all. Of course, if you wish to sell yourself to a man who has heart disease, on the gambler

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl 15 years old, who is very much in love with a man 46 years old. He is very rich, has heart disease, and he makes a great deal over me. My folks are against this marriage, what would you advise me to do? I have dark hair and brown eyes and am considered very good looking. My husband would give me everything money could buy and I know I would be happy. I remain a daily reader of the Lovelorn.

that he will die, do as you please, but remember this: "You may sow what you will, but tomorrow will bring you the harvest to show you what manner of thing is the seed you have chosen to sow." I can hardly imagine a pretty young girl of 16 being so mercenary, so cold and calculating that she would consider bargaining of this kind.

Giving the flatrons a good washing every now and then with soda and hot water.

A Fashionable Springtime Necessity

THIS Springtime, when all the fashionable world is seeking slenderness, and still more slenderness, Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets are more than ever a necessity to women of medium or stout build.

They Slenderize the Stout Figure creating an instantaneous improvement in one's appearance. Abnormal abdominal lines are gently straightened out; heaviness and size are reduced. And, day by day, the figure is coaxed back to charming and youthful lines.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corset

maintains its perfect style lines under the most severe wearing conditions. Rarely need a "Rengo" model be replaced until discarded for an entirely new style.

Prices of Rengo Belt Corsets range from $2 to $10

CROWN CORSET COMPANY 170 Fifth Avenue New York City

Advertisement for Absorene, featuring a picture of the product and text: "Absorene ABSORBS DIRT. To Use ABSORENE. Take 1/2 of a can in the hands—work it like putty until the same temperature as the hands—then spread slightly and wipe down the wall, beginning and ending the stroke lightly on the way—short strokes—not finish the stroke without rubbing. ABSORENE cleans by absorbing the dirt. Follow directions and it gives perfect satisfaction, even where others fail. To use one can of ABSORENE, and learn what a Wall Paper Cleaner can do. A 15c Can of ABSORENE saves the cost of new paper. H.R.H. the great water repellent is sold by ABSORENE dealers.

Orkin Brothers

316-318 South Sixteenth Street

FRIDAY The Most Sensational Blouse Event of the Year

1¢ Sale of Blouses

An entirely new venture in Blouse selling with this store. An event which affords a decidedly new type of values; an event you and your neighbors positively cannot afford to miss.

CHOICE OF 800 BLOUSES AT ONLY 1c

Here's the way to secure Blouses at—1c. We have assembled 800 Blouses from our regular stock, representing broken lines and odds and ends and divided them into two very special sale lots, all far below their original selling price. For Friday only we allow you to buy any blouse involved at the marked price then we sell you another Blouse from the same lot at 1c.

You buy one Blouse for. . $1.99 Then buy one of equal value .01 The two Blouses for only. . $2.00

JAP SILKS, VOILES, STRIPED MADRAS, ALL COLORS—ALL SIZES. Every style is highly desirable, and we have a right to expect the most enthusiastic crowd of Blouse shoppers that ever attended an Omaha Blouse sale.

You buy one Blouse for. . $2.99 Then buy one of equal value .01 The two Blouses for only. . $3.00 CREPE DE CHINES, GEORGETTES, WASH SATINS, NEW COLORS—WONDERFUL STYLES. Don't wait, be here when the doors open at 8:30 sharp Friday morning. Come prepared to buy a season's supply of Blouses. Every sale will be considered final.