Musical Fantasy by Local Talent Coming Soon

A Cast of More Than 200
Performers to Play
"Fi-Fi of the Toy
Shop."

A famous musical fantasy, "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," which promises to be the most spectacular entertainment of its kind ever given in Omaha, will be presented by the executive committee of the First Central Congregational church on the evenings of May 16-17 at one of the local theaters.

The performance will be given under the management of the John B. Rogers Producing company of Ohio, who make a specialty of rehearsing and staging high class amateur productions. Rehearsals will begin shortly.

The production has been given throughout the east with marked success. It is built along the lines of "Babes in Toyland," "La Collella" and "The Love Tales of Hoffman," in that the leading characters in the extravaganza represent toys and dolls. The principals will be drawn from the leading musical and dramatic talent of the city. More than 200 will participate in the choruses and interpretive dances. Mrs. E. G. McGilton is chairman of the committee in charge.

Committees are being formed and preparations for the coming event will soon begin in earnest. A number of prominent society people will be asked to serve as patronesses and boxholders.

The participants will be drawn from the best musical and histrionic talent available, the entire cast and chorus being local thespians who for the most part have won previous laurels. The time of rehearsals will be announced later.

Carolyn Thomson Claims Fairies Are With Her as She Leaps from One Huge Success to Another

Short cuts to fame are not many—it is only at times that a "by path" leads off the beaten, tedious "little by little," "step by step" way that leads to "stardom," but some way little Miss Carolyn Thomson, who is playing Otilie in "Maytime," found that very road.

Sounds like a fairy story—and Miss Thomson believes in fairies—four years ago she was a soprano in an ordinary Presbyterian church in Minneapolis and one night took the leading part in a local play at the Studio Arcade.

The rest was not ordinary—for on that night the Madame Melba was present and was impressed with the little singer.

A future of professional work built around this soprano voice was the promise Madame Melba held out and which was responsible for Carolyn Thomson and her mother making the New York trip.

She had a letter of introduction to Henry W. Savage and that manager evinced no little interest in her voice and personality but at the time had nothing for her. "I will give you a note to another manager," he said, and this manager, who proved to be Mr. Pickerton, the producer of "Adele," on hearing her sing exhibited the liveliest interest.

"How soon can you sail," he said. "Sail—good heavens!—where?" "London, of course. We open there in three weeks at the Gaiety."

And, to chop a long story, Carolyn Thomson, American girl, aged 19, having never stepped on a painted stage before, made her operatic debut in the English metropolis and scored a genuine triumph.

The war broke out. Things went bloomy everywhere. Carolyn and her mother came back to New York. Went to see Lee Shubert. He was very busy. She waited and presented Mr. J. J. Shubert and Mr. Romayne Simmons, his general music director, entered the waiting room. Mr. J. J. Shubert walked right up to her with the questions, "Do you sing?"

"A little," she modestly replied. Mr. Simmons sat down at the grand piano in Mr. Shubert's office and before she had fairly finished her aria Mr. Shubert interrupted, "Take her right over to rehearsal, Mr. Simmons, and afterward bring her back here for her contract."

It was an emergency. The leading lady of their first production of "The Star Gazer," was too ill to appear. The production was only three days off.

"Can you do it, little girl?" asked Mr. Shubert. "I'll try," she said. "I know you can," said J. J.

She made an enormous success in "The Star Gazer" and the Messrs. Shubert signed her for five years with an option for five more.

Jascha Heifetz Has Two Hobbies But One Mother

Mother Travels With Famous Musician and Prepares Lunches for Him.

Jascha Heifetz has two hobbies—but only one mother, who travels with him. And to this mother Jascha is, despite his world fame, only a little boy who must be petted and looked after and fed. And those who know this unusual pair declare that Jascha and mother like nothing better than the luncheons prepared by Mrs. Heifetz and eaten together in automobiles, hotel rooms, on tour or wherever they happen to be.

The famous violinist likes the movies and fast automobiles. Already considerable publicity has been given to the fact that he carries a regular honest-to-goodness picture camera with him on all his travels, also to the news that almost before he has seen his hotel rooms in each new city he dashes off to see Doug Fairbanks or Lillian Gish. It is a standing joke with the Heifetz party that Mr. Benoit, the accompanist, must run to the hotel to register the new arrivals, and Mr. Drake, the manager, must scour the papers for the best movie the moment the musical tourists reach town.

As for the racing cars, Heifetz is determined to have nothing slower than Ralph De Palma's speed wagon as soon as he returns to New York from the present tour of the southwest and western cities. He already possesses a big Marmon that he drove all last summer at Narragansett Pier, where he and the family went for their vacation, but its 70 miles an hour is not enough for him. He wants to do 100 a minute at the very least, but his manager is not so enthusiastic over the idea. There are 60 or 70 concerts to be fulfilled next season, and a broken bone or two would mean a hundred thousand dollars gone forever.

Mrs. A. Starr Best, the Founder of Drama League, Coming

Mrs. A. Starr Best, vice president of the Drama League of America, has accepted the invitation of the Omaha Drama League to lecture in Omaha this month. The date and subject will be announced later.

Mrs. Best, whose home is in Evanston, Ill., is the founder and first president of the Drama League of America. Some years ago, feeling the need for a greater interest in the drama, and with a desire to help raise the standard of plays, Mrs. Best organized the Drama club of Evanston. Other clubs identified themselves with this club, interest in the movement spread over Chicago and in 1910 the Drama League of America was organized in Evanston. Since then the movement begun so quietly has astonished even its founders in its growth and scope. The league now has a membership of 100,000 men and women from one end of the country to the other. Much of its marvelous growth is due to the vision and self-immolation of Mrs. Best, its moving spirit.

Easy Way to Remove Freckles and Eruptions

Some women have skin of such texture they occasionally are annoyed by the sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines. March winds usually play havoc with skins of that kind. In such cases if one will procure an ounce of common mercuric iodine at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off the next morning, flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or so, with all its defects. No bleach can so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No harm or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.

For deep wrinkles or crowfeet, a solution of powdered azoite, one ounce dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel, makes a bath which is wonderfully effective.—Adv.

My Dental Creed

Faith in the people; confidence in myself; a square deal for both.

That's a short platform but there is room on it for everyone.

There has always been an argument between some of esteemed professional brethren as to propriety of "guaranteeing" dental work—and the claim is advanced that owing to the liability of pyorrhea, change of human tissue, sickness, uncleanness, etc., that a dentist could NOT in justice to HIMSELF guarantee dental operations.

Granting that circumstances may alter every case—I still claim that the public is entitled to a guarantee of value for every dollar spent whether it is in a department store or a dental office, and under "My Creed" as stated, I cannot see the justice of asking the patient to accept ALL the risk.

I GUARANTEE JUST THIS—AND NO MORE:

That the dentist doing the work (in my office) is registered, qualified and experienced, capable of doing his work in a first class manner.

That he understands Asepsis and Antiseptics, and uses every precaution to insure cleanliness and prevent infection.

That instruments are sterilized the moment they are used—and the hands and linen kept scrupulously clean.

That materials used are of standard quality—exactly as represented and as good or better than used by the best dentists in the State.

That all mechanical work (plates, crowns, bridges, inlays, etc., are carefully made by qualified and competent mechanics who do nothing else.

That the price will be consistent with the cost of the work—and estimated and agreed upon BEFORE the work is undertaken.

That I am personally able, willing and ready to make right at any time any work done in this office where material or workmanship was at fault.

THAT IS ALL THE PUBLIC COULD ASK—AND IS AS LITTLE AS THE DENTIST SHOULD GIVE.

To do less is to acknowledge either inability or unwillingness to do good work and stand back of it.
